Vol. 15 — HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1933. — No. 34

SENATE

TUESDAY, March 21, 1933

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet. Even if we do forget, help us to remember Thy dealing with Thy people, written in Thy word, and that we are following the same law, under the leadership of the same Infinite King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Help us not to be deceived by all the clamor of this country and of our times. Help us to think, to think as men and women, and to remember the lessons of history, which are the lessons of God. Guide us and be with us so that all of our pomp of yesterday may not be one with Nineveh and with Tyre. Be with us today. Guide us, keep our feet on the ground, but may our heads be in the stars. Guide us and keep us for Thy Name's sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SORDINI, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FAY, from the Committee on Finance, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 645, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the nineteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (P. L. 92), entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties;" extending the time for payment of the emergency relief sales tax by extending the time of payment of said tax under certain circumstances.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. OWLETT, from the Committee on Finance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 580 (House Bill No. 127), entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand two hundred seven of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred forty-three), entitled "An act [to amend the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred forty-three) entitled "An act] relating to the finances of the State government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection, and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth, the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth; and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State Government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth," [] taking out of operation of the Fiscal Code questions relating to the lien and payment of liquid fuel taxes, and referring such questions to the provisions of the liquid fuels tax acts.

Also from the Committee on Finance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 601 (House Bill No. 126), entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand four hundred one of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred forty-three), entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State Government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection, and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth," limiting the lien, and procedure for collection of taxes, bonus and other moneys due the Commonwealth in certain cases.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. REED, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported, as amended, Senate Bill No. 578, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 70), entitled "An act declaring it a misdemeanor for any maker or drawer, with intent to defraud, to make or draw or utter or deliver any check, draft, or order, when such person has not sufficient funds in, or credit with, the depository upon which the same is drawn," by providing for the admission in evidence of the protest of nonpayment of checks, drafts and orders.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 336 (HOUSE BILL No. 1)

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 336 (House Bill No. 1), entitled:

An Act relating to baseball and football on Sunday prohibiting baseball and football on Sunday during certain hours and also during certain other hours unless the electors of the Commonwealth are in favor of the same and a license has first been secured from the municipal authorities providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and for the enactment and repeal of licensing ordinances and resolutions in accordance therewith providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 336 (House Bill No. 1), as follows:

An Act relating to baseball and football on Sunday prohibiting baseball and football on Sunday during certain hours and also during certain other hours unless the electors of the Commonwealth are in favor of the same and a license has first been secured from the municipal authorities providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors

Section 2 Penalty for Unlawful Baseball and Football on Sunday It shall be unlawful for any person copartnership association or corporation to conduct stage or engage in any baseball or football game regardless whether a charge or admission thereto is made or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct manage stage or operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday before the hour of two o'clock post meridian or after the hour of six o'clock post meridian

It shall be unlawful for any person, copartnership, association or corporation to conduct, stage or engage in any baseball or football game, regardless whether a charge or an admission thereto, or incidental thereto, is made, or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct, manage, stage or operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, between the hours of two o'clock post meridian and six o'clock post meridian, unless at the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, a majority of the electors of the entire Commonwealth voting on the question hereinafter provided for, shall vote in favor of baseball and football games on Sunday between said hours. In case said vote in the State at large is in favor of baseball and football on Sunday between said hours, then said games shall be lawful only after the person, copartnership, association or corporation proposing to conduct or stage any such baseball or football game to which an admission charge is made or is incidental shall first have secured from the proper municipal authority of the municipality a license authorizing him, her or it to conduct or stage such baseball or football game between said hours on Sunday.

Any person, copartnership, association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars ($10), and in default of the payment of such fine and costs of prosecution, such person, or any member or agent of any copartnership or association, or any officer or agent of any corporation responsible for such violation, shall be imprisoned for a period of not more than five days

Section 3. Ordinances and Resolutions. License Fees. If at said election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, a majority of the electors in the entire Commonwealth voting at said election vote in favor of baseball and football on Sunday between the hours of two o'clock post meridian and six o'clock post meridian, then each municipality other than a township of the second class shall, by ordinance, and each township of the second class shall, by resolution of the township supervisors, if at said election the vote in the municipality or township was in favor of baseball and football, provide for the licensing of baseball and football games to which an admission fee is charged or is incidental on Sunday between the hours of two o'clock post meridian and six o'clock post meridian. If the vote of the electors in the municipality was not in favor of baseball and football, then no ordinance or resolution providing for the licensing of baseball and football games shall be enacted or adopted.

The license fees to be charged under any such ordinance or resolution for any baseball or football game to which an admission is charged or is incidental, shall not exceed the following amounts: In cities of the first and second class, fifty dollars ($50); in cities of the second class A and third class twenty-five dollars ($25); in boroughs, ten dollars ($10); and in townships, five ($5).

All license fees collected under the provisions of any such ordinance or resolution shall be paid into the treasury of the municipality.

Section 4 Referendum Statement of Question on Ballots At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, there shall be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth, a question to determine the will of the electors of each municipality in this Commonwealth, and of the Commonwealth as a whole, with respect to baseball and football games on Sunday. Such question shall be in the following form

Do you favor the conduct, staging and playing of baseball and football games regardless of whether an admission charge is made or incidental thereto, or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct, stage or operate the same between the hours of two and six post meridian on Sunday?	Yes
	No

The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of each county, and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of the county so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election. In districts where voting machines are used, such question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for such purposes.

Section 5. Returns and Computation of Votes. The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used, to the prothonotary of the county, who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns. The return board shall compute the said returns by municipalities and certify the results of the vote cast on the question to the legislative body of each municipality within the county, and shall also compute the vote for the county as a whole, and certify the vote in the county to the Secretary of the Commonwealth. The Secretary of the Commonwealth, upon the receipt of such returns from each county, shall compute the vote on such question for the whole State, and certify the results thereof to the Governor, who shall, by his proclamation, announce the result of the vote in the entire Commonwealth.

Such election shall be governed by the election laws of the Commonwealth, and all penalties provided by said laws shall apply to such elections.

Section 6. Future Referendums. If at the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, a majority of those voting were in favor of baseball and football on Sunday, then in any municipality the will of the electors with respect to baseball and football on Sunday may after the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, but not oftener than once in three years, be ascertained, and the question as provided in this act shall be submittted to the electors of any municipality upon demand in writing of petitioners equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in the municipality at the last preceding general or municipal election. Such petition shall be filed with the corporate authorities at least sixty days before any general or municipal election, at which the question is to be submitted, and if the petition is sufficiently signed, shall thereupon be certified to the county commissioners who shall cause such question to be submitted in the same manner as is provided in this act for the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

If a majority of the electors voting in any municipality which licenses baseball and football games to which an admission charge is made or is incidental, are not in favor of such licensing, then the ordinance or resolution licensing such baseball and football games shall be repealed; but if a majority of the electors in any such municipality which does not license baseball and football games are in favor of such licensing, then an ordinance or resolution shall be enacted or adopted licensing baseball and football games to which an admission charge is made or is incidental, as provided in this act

Section 7. Intent of Act. It is the intent of this act to provide a method whereby the will of the electors of the entire Commonwealth and of each municipality with respect to baseball and football games on Sunday between the hours of two o'clock post meridian and six o'clock post meridian, may be ascertained, and it shall be the duty of the legislative body of each municipality if at the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, a majority of those voting in the entire Commonwealth are in favor of baseball and football games on Sunday, to enact, adopt or repeal any ordinance or resolution in accordance with the will of the electors as ascertained at said elections. In case of a failure so to do the duty herein imposed upon the legislative body of any municipality may be enforced by mandamus.

Section 8. Repeal. Section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four (3 Sm. L. 177), entitled "An act for the prevention of vice and immorality, and of unlawful gaming, and to restrain disorderly sports and dissipation," be and the same is hereby repealed in so far as it prohibits baseball and football games on Sunday.

Section 9 Constitutionality Clause The provisions of this Act are severable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included herein

Section 10 Hunting and Fishing Nothing contained in this act shall relate to Sunday hunting and fishing or be construed as repealing any law relating thereto

Section 11 Effective date This act shall be effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, last week I asked the indulgence of the Senate to discuss what I regarded as my own personal views on this matter. This morning I think I am compelled to go beyond that and to call the attention of the Senate to certain provisions in this bill which I believe every one of us should consider before the final vote is taken.

In the first place, admittedly I think this is a difficult bill to understand. It may be a matter of mere mathematical calculation to get all of these brackets in their correct position and discover what we are voting upon now. I discovered, after trying to find out what provisions were omitted and what amendments were substituted, that we can turn from the first page to some page eleven or twelve and find section two.

Now, perhaps my remarks should be directed to members of the bar who are in this assembly. In the first place, when I venture, not influenced as to the locality of this matter—it certainly is sufficient in my opinion—it may be conflicting with the others—and so far as that is concerned my opinion naturally will be subservient to those who are perhaps wiser men than I am; but I want to call the attention of the Senate to a rule which has been in force for many, many years. It is Rule thirty-seven of the Senate, the provisions of which are: "No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so altered or amended on its passage through the Senate as to change its original purpose."

Now, if it is possible for us to decipher the original purpose of this bill which now appears before us in amended form, I believe it will be agreed by everyone that the original purpose was this: "Empowering cities, boroughs, towns and townships to enact ordinances prohibiting baseball and such other outdoor sports on Sundays." Now, it is the purpose of this amendment to change the character of that bill so as to provide a State-wide referendum. In the original bill there were some provisions made whereby municipalities could vote on this proposition, but here we have a new proposition which in my humble opinion is in violation of the rule of the Senate. But, as I stated a week ago, it is not particularly my purpose, even if I had the desire or wisdom to do so, to take advantage of the technicality cited by this argument. It is a need, a popular need, is it not, to submit this matter to a general referendum to be voted upon by all the people in the State of Pennsylvania; and if it were not for some other defects in this bill, to which I hope to refer in a moment, that is always a wise thing to do. In all legislative action here we should be guided by what the sentiments of our constituents happen to be. But we have gone far beyond that in this particular matter, Mr. President. We have preferred first of all outdoor sports, but we have from all the outdoor sports—we have selected two of these sports. I am wondering if it is, though it may be true, that my distinguished colleague, Senator McClure, more or less favors these two sports. I am wondering by what decree of justice or by what logic he can deface from a matter of this kind all other sports. I have been wondering why it is not true those of us who are entirely willing there should be outdoor sports on the Sabbath—what we should say to them. That we have not given proper consideration. We have preferred in our amendment two of these sports. There are no other sports of any kind mentioned in the amendment except that. I admit, Mr. President, that, for the purpose of clarification, in the last paragraph of the bill it is stated that this has nothing to do with hunting or fishing. I am quite sure that is obvious if we read the bill. But every practicing lawyer who happens to be a member of this Senate should read it very carefully before the final vote is taken.

For example, on page fifteen of the amendment which was before us this morning—bearing in mind for a moment that some of the re-printed amendments came before us just about ten minutes ago—I find this language in the tenth line of page fifteen: "each municipality other than a township of the second class shall by ordinance, and each township of the second class shall by resolution of the township supervisors, if at said election the vote in the municipality or township was in favor of basketball and football, provide for the licensing of baseball and football games to which an admission fee is charged or is incidental on Sunday."

In the first place, it is my humble opinion that a borough council or a city council is rather as much of a legislative body as we are. Frankly, I believe, whether or not their powers are as great, whether or not their position may by comparison be conceded to be as mighty, I believe that by no act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can any local branch of the legislative department of our government be compelled to pass certain ordinances. Frankly, I do not believe that they can even be compelled to repeal certain ordinances. But it is my opinion that not even by mandamus proceedings, which this bill would provide for, can they be compelled to do so. That you might say is only an opinion as to what may be the existing law, but disregarding the legal phase of it, my fellow members of the Senate, cannot you follow that logic to its only safe conclusion and say that we might immediately agree for the moment that this entire proposition may be sound? We might immediately drive it to the extreme. If we were to follow that out here whatever the Legislature will determine to do, be it safe or unsafe, the proposition might be, if that were the law, that we could by legislative action in the form of a mandatory decree direct the local municipalities throughout the State, trying to compel them, if you please, to do this or to do that.

Frankly, gentlemen, I do not believe that can be done, and because of that also I would say that this is a matter that needs our careful consideration. The last portion of that paragraph to which I have referred reads as follows: "If the vote of the electors in the municipality was not in favor of baseball and football, then no ordinance or resolution providing for the licensing of baseball and football games shall be enacted or adopted." Frankly, gentlemen, such an ordinance could not be valid. No city council or borough council can possibly take it unto itself to enact any ordinances unless they are given legislative authority so to do; but there is a difference between giving legislative authority and enacting an ordinance upon a certain given subject and demanding or compelling or seeking to compel them to do so. And, frankly, it seems to me that that second section of that paragraph which I have just read in itself discloses the weakness of that particular provision in these amendments and also so proves the point which I have been attempting to make.

But in my humble judgment the most dangerous—yes, and I use the word advisedly—the most dangerous portion of these amendments appears on page seventeen, under section six; and, again directing more particularly the attention of my fellow members of the bar here, I am asking every lawyer here to consider those provisions, in effect to follow the purposes through to their logical conclusions; and for that purpose may I quote the amendment: "Future referendums. If at the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three a majority of those voting were in favor of baseball and football on Sunday, then in any municipality the will of the electors with respect to baseball and football on Sunday, may, after the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, but not oftener than once in three years, be ascertained, and the question as provided in this act shall be submitted to the electors of any municipality upon demand in writing of petitioners equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in the municipality at the last preceding general or municipal election."

Does that mean,—frankly, I am too stupid to understand it,—does that mean that after this matter has been referred, through a referendum, to the people of the State of Pennsylvania or to the individual municipalities and they voted a certain way,—does it mean that that is to be the law for three years? I think so. I think perhaps that is the only meaning we can get out of that provision. If it means that, then this Legislature, during that particular period, can do nothing, because it is the spirit,—at least, I regard it as the purpose, of these amendments to say that the question of repealing this particular provision of this act is now out of our hands; it must again be submitted to a referendum before any action can be taken.

If I am wrong in that belief, there is only one other answer that can be given, and that is this: If I were to be a member of the Senate three years from now and I were to discover in my particular district, a movement to have some referendum on this question, I would say, "Let us not defeat that movement. Let us find out whether we can in the Senate reconsider the matter and pass a law." Do you want to extend it that far? Do you want to say, in Pennsylvania, that two sports selected from all the sports in which our young people love to engage shall be given not only the preference, in an unprecedented way, giving them a state-wide referendum, and then, in addition to that, say that these people shall be so tied in their deliberations, for or against the proposition, that for three years things must stay as they are?

Now, my fellow members of the Senate, have I, perhaps in sort of a round-about way, called attention to what I regard as a very serious preference to be given, perhaps, to any issue, and particularly to a matter of this kind?

And, in the next line, let me call your attention to something significant. How shall this referendum, in three years, be brought about? How shall the change be made? By whose authority shall the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania be called upon to reconsider legislation?

There is the inference that if certain things are done then we shall here pass certain laws to carry out those wishes; and, fundamentally, I would say there is nothing wrong with that; but who is to do this? Upon demand, in writing, of petitioners. That is all it says. Who are the petitioners? Is this a matter which the Courts can construe literally, or must construe literally; or can the Courts of the State of Pennsylvania,—and I would say even the Appellate Courts are included in that language,—say that these petitioners are by inference, supposed to be qualified electors? There is nothing like that in this bill. It says, "shall be submitted to the electors of any municipality upon demand, in writing, of petitioners equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in the municipality at the last preceding general or municipal election."

That might appear quite technical to you, my fellow members of the Senate, but when a matter is of sufficient importance to give it a State-wide referendum, or two of them, and, perhaps, in three years have municipal elections in order to test the will of the people, then, it seems to me, it is of sufficient importance to have clarified in the act who shall be given the right to petition.

Unquestionably there was in the mind of the sponsor of the amendments "qualified electors." I have no doubt about that. But I can predict that this is another reason why this proposed law cannot succeed. This is another reason why there is a loophole here.

If I were to take the side, which perhaps I do not take with this particular pleasure now, to seek around for loopholes, if I were to consider this entire subject from the standpoint of finding only weaknesses in the bill, and not deal with the principles which are underlying, I would certainly, first of all, before the bar of any court in Pennsylvania, call attention to that particular provision.

Now, Mr. President, there is still another thing I want to say in this regard. This is the first time, members of the Senate, I have been actually disappointed with our own activities. Yes, it is true that we may have found some fault, in days gone by, by reason of delays, the reason for which I cannot understand. Yes, it is true, perhaps, we had some reason when, in the special session, we passed a sales tax, which, I think it is admitted now, was rather an unwise thing to do; and we may have found some fault. Yes, it is true, that we have been called back, at least, during my short term here, three times, without a definite program before us, to solve the problems which are uppermost in our minds, to wit, unemployment relief, reduced cost of government, and reduced taxation. Yes, it is true, perhaps, that some of us may have found some fault; but, for the first time have I broken silence in order to speak, perhaps, the will of a great majority, I believe, of the people of the State of Pennsylvania, and that is this,—that we must, my fellow members of the Senate, put first things first. I think that even in matters of legislation we must go under a new system of revaluation. Would you have it said of the Senate of Pennsylvania that even though the city where I was born, or even though the city of Pittsburgh, or even though any other municipality insists that something must be done upon this particular matter,—would you say to the people of Pennsylvania, in spite of the fact that,—I think you will agree with me,—there are these discrepancies in this legislation,—would you say by your action, in itself, on this bill, that we admit,—that we admit right now, that we have conceived this to be of greater importance than all those issues to which I have called attention and which, in my judgment, should have been given preferential consideration?

As a humble citizen of the State of Pennsylvania I have never yet been able to understand why Babe Ruth should receive as much money as the President of the United States. I haven't yet been able to understand why the movie stars, of whom we hear so much, should receive far greater salaries than that of the President of the United States. I believe, as sure as I am standing before you now, there must be a turning back,—there must be a turning back to simplicity in government, there must be a turning back to simplicity in living,—to that type of simplicity, if you want to call it simplicity, which built up the rugged characters of the leaders of this Commonwealth.

And I want you to know that if this is of sufficient importance to have a referendum on the proposition, is it not of sufficient importance to have a referendum on the Eighteenth Amendment, or on this proposed beer legislation here? Is it not of sufficient importance to have submitted to the people of Pennsylvania, in the form of a referendum, whether or not this new School Code, which is so revolutionary in its character, should be adopted? Why, there are many matters here, my fellow members of the Senate, which, it seems to me, should have been given preferential consideration. But my disappointment is in this: This move to present this matter in the form of a referendum was, by the proponents of the bill, a wise move. Should I have it understood that I stand here representing one of the great counties of the State of Pennsylvania and say to myself that I deny the people of Lehigh County the right to vote upon this proposition? I would say, if that were alone, I would never deny those who sent me here the right to vote on any proposition; but there is something beyond that, and my distinguished colleague made reference to it last night. This is a representative form of government, and for the first time, and I hope for the last time during my term in the Senate of Pennsylvania, do I say that we have, instead of meeting the issue fairly and squarely, turned back to the people of the State a problem which we have been unwilling to solve.

I am opposed to the proposition of commercializing the Sabbath, and that proposition is as clear as crystal in my mind. If you are not opposed to it, then I would say you should have voted "yes" instead of "no." And so, when I cast a vote against this bill I do not do it at all with the idea that I am denying to the people of Lehigh County the right to express themselves. For the first time, I will say to those of you who are leaders in this Assembly,—for the first time we have passed back to the people of Pennsylvania a proposition which apparently we have been unable to solve ourselves.

I agree with my distinguished colleague, the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince,—"Let us turn back to simplicity in government." Again the day is here to say "yes" or "no," and stand or fall by the decision, not as we may be influenced by what appears in the press, not even as we may be influenced, always, by what we regard as a majority; after all there is only one principle that should influence us here, and that is the principle which, from our own deliberation, reaches the conclusion that we do this or that for the welfare of the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I can agree with much that my distinguished colleague from Lehigh county, Mr. Snyder, has said. If I understood him correctly in the beginning of his remarks, he stated that there should be a broader bill. I know, Mr. President, there are activities other than football and baseball. If he has any such notion in his mind, he has the same privilege as all of us, and he can prepare such a bill and present it to the Senate. We have already been criticised by the Executive of our Commonwealth for spending so much of our time on sport legislation, legislation concerning liquor, and for providing for conventions. I agree that we should spend as little time as possible on this kind of legislation. We should continue our activities that we have been carrying on since the beginning of this session along the lines the people most desire of us. We should dispose of this legislation today, and not postpone it for any changing of the words of this act. The amendments which I presented last night provided principally for three changes in this act. First, the referendum at large; secondly, the referendum to municipalities held at the same election; and third, the wiping out of licenses for the amateur sports. Those amendments give a safeguard to the public which I believe every fair-minded person in Pennsylvania who give consideration to this amendment cannot help but approve. He raises objections to certain parts of this bill, particularly on page fifteen, where we have written into the bill a mandatory provision providing that the municipality where the vote is recorded in favor of baseball and football shall issue a license. The municipalities where they are opposed to baseball and football shall not issue licenses only carries out the will of the people. This is not the first mandatory act that has been passed in the General Assembly. It is our common custom to pass mandatory acts, and in this bill, I believe, it is well provided that the councils of the different municipalities need not set their judgment up against the will of the people. That is true democracy. I stated my reasons for not supporting this bill last week, and I do not have to repeat those reasons today. I would not be supporting this bill today if this great question was not referred to the people. The gentleman from Lehigh states that this is the first referendum that has been referred to the people in some time. I call his attention to the fact that this is the first amendment that has been submitted to the Senate changing the "Blue Laws" of 1794, and that it is wise for us, as representatives of the people, to secure, through this referendum, their wishes concerning these acts of 1794, if for no other purpose to carry out the idea of the Senator from Lehigh of providing a broader bill which would embrace more than football and baseball.

Again I ask my colleagues not to postpone action on this bill, but to consider it at the present time.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I hesitate to speak on the Sunday Bill, or any other bill at this time, because of the fact that my presence in the Senate has not been of sufficient duration to permit me to do it, but I do intend to vote in favor of this bill and in doing so I want to take advantage of this opportunity to say, first, that I am voting in favor of the bill, not because I think it is a good bill, but because I think that the people whom I represent, want it. In my opinion that is the only way that legislation should be considered, by a reaction of their representatives to the will of the people, irrespective of their own personal impressions. I do not think that this referendum is a proper referendum. I agree with the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Snyder, that it is our duty to meet the responsibility of deciding questions which the people send us here to decide. I do not think this bill gives the people what they want but I think that my constitutents might misunderstand my actions if I voted against this bill, and if it should not pass might feel that they were deprived of something that they would otherwise get I am going to vote in favor of the bill. I agree with Senator Snyder that there is much more important legislation, but I think that this bill should be passed and gotten rid of so that we can give our attention to the more important subject of relief to the unemployed. I shall take the privilege of voting for this bill because I think the people want it. I do not vote for the bill because I think it is the best kind of legislation on this subject but there are more important subjects to be considered.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And the question recurring,

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

He also presented communication from the House informing the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in resolution as follows:

In the Senate, March 21, 1933.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, March 27, at nine o'clock; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene Monday evening, March 27, at nine o'clock.

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE WALTER LYON

Mr. EINSTEIN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, March 21, 1933.

It is with great sorrow that the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania learn of the death of former Lieutenant-Governor Walter Lyon and a Senator from the Forty-second district forty years ago.

Governor Lyon was for many years a distinguished member of the legal fraternity, having been identified with some of the most important litigation during the more than 36 years he was an active lawyer of the Allegheny County bar. He was for two separate terms United States attorney for Western Pennsylvania.

For more than 30 years Governor Lyon was a leading figure in Republican party councils, having been a delegate to and chairman of many State conventions and delegate to numerous National conventions. His wisdom and political sagacity were valued by the great party generals of the last half century.

Governor Lyon was a student, silent and serious, genial in manner, loyal to the last degree, the companion of learned men.

It is hereby resolved that the sympathy of the members of the Senate be conveyed to his bereaved family with a copy of this minute and that when the Senate adjourns this week it be in memory of this departed former member and officer.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, March 21, 1933.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

O Spirit Divine, bear witness with our spirits, now, that we are children of God; in spite of our weaknesses, ambitions, foibles and conceits common to human kind, help us to remember that we are ambassadors of the King of Glory, and representatives of a great people.

Open the eyes and ears of our spirits that we may always be conscious of this two-fold unseen presence on Capitol Hill.

Amid the clamorousness of these busy days, there are deep rumblings, as of rivers in flood; rumblings, not of empty stomachs, as some vainly imagine, but the stirrings of the souls of men. Master statesmanship is the need of the hour, may these Legislators know Thy will for the Commonwealth, and prepare the way for its accomplishment. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. Dwyer, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,
The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,
The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1487, as follows:

An Act making appropriations to the State Emergency Relief Board for expenditure by it and for allocation and reallocation to political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor or to other substituted agencies for direct and work relief defining the purposes for which such moneys may be expended providing for the audit of such expenditures and prescribing the powers and duties of the State Emergency Relief Board of cities coextensive with counties and of counties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) is hereby specifically appropriated out of the revenues of the fiscal biennium ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three to the State Emergency Relief Board for the months of April and May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three to be allocated and be expended by said Board for direct relief and work relief in accordance with the provisions of the act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws ninety) entitled "An act relatitng to unemployment relief making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief and work relief prescribing the powers and duties of the board with reference thereto and conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain State departments"

Section 2 (a) The sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) is hereby specifically appropriated to the State Emergency Relief Board for allocation and payment over to politicl subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor or to such other agency as may be set up or selected in accordance with this act for the months of June July August September October and November of the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three

(b) The sum of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) is hereby specifically appropriated to the State Emergency Relief Board for allocation and payment over to political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor or to such other agencies as may be selected or set up in accordance with the provisions of this act for the month of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three for the calendar year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and for the months of January February March April and May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five Provided however That the appropriation made by this clause (b) shall be contingent upon the receipt of sufficient revenues for the General Fund from a bond issue to defray the expenses of the Commonwealth or from loans and transfers from the Motor License Fund or from other sources so as to at all times keep said General Fund balanced and avoid the incurring of any deficiency and in case at any time there are insufficient moneys in the General Fund or estimated to be collected in the biennium for the General Fund to meet the appropriation made by this clause and a deficiency will or is likely to occur at the end of the fiscal biennium then and in that event no further moneys shall be paid out by the Auditor General and the State Treasurer under the appropriation made by this clause

Section 3 The State Emergency Relief Board shall make allocation monthly of the amounts to be distributed from the appropriations made by section two of this act among the several counties of this Commonwealth on a ratio that the estimated number of unemployed in a county bears to the estimated total number of unemployed persons in the entire Commonwealth as shown by the latest available tables compiled and issued by the department of Labor and Industry The State Emergency Relief Board may in its discretion vary the amounts to be allocated from the appropriation made by section two from month to month but no allocation for any one or more months shall be so increased as to prevent the spread of said appropriation over the twenty-four month period provided for in section two

Section 4 The moneys so allocated to a county shall be available for expenditure in that county only for work relief or for food clothing fuel and shelter for those persons who are without means of support as may be determined by the political subdivision to which allocated and none of said moneys shall be expended by such political subdivisions for administration purposes but the cost of administration shall be absorbed by the political subdivision and be paid from moneys received by taxation or otherwise

Section 5 (a) In counties coextensive with cities the money allocated to the county shall from time to time be paid by the State Treasurer on requisition of the State Emergency Relief Board into the city treasury and shall be expended by or under the supervision of the department of welfare of the city or by said department and any other political subdivisions in such cities charged by law with the care of the poor or by such other agency or agencies as the council or any such city may by ordinance provide

(b) Where a political subdivision charged by law with the care of the poor is coextensive with a county the amount allocated to the county from time to time shall be paid by the State Treasurer on requisition of the State Emergency Relief Board to the treasurer of such political subdivision.

(c) In other counties where the territory of political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor are not coextensive with a county the amount allocated to a county for any month shall be reallocated by the State Emergency Relief Board among the various political subdivisions located wholly or partly within such county on such equitable basis as the Board shall determine and when so reallocated the amount payable to any such political subdivision shall be paid to the treasurer thereof Provided however That in any county where each borough and township constitutes a separate poor district the State Emergency Relief Board may substitute the county commissioners of the county as the agency to administer the expenditure of such funds for the entire county and where the county commissioners are so designated as the agency they shall have authority to expend county moneys to pay the cost of administering the distribution of such moneys

Section 6 The State Emergency Relief Board shall have power to supervise the expenditures of political subdivisions and other agencies of the moneys allocated under the provisions of this act and may at any time require any political subdivision or agency selected or set up by it to justify the need for additional moneys for relief purposes and the manner in which the moneys theretofore allocated to it have been applied or expended and to withhold payments in whole or in part from such subdivision or agency until need for further funds or the manner of future expenditures is justified by said political subdivision or agency in such manner as the Board may require

Any allocations which have been withheld for lack of need shall be added to the amount to be allocated to all counties in any subsequent month or months

Where the State Emergency Relief Board shall be of the opinion that any political subdivision or agency selected or set up has been extravagant incompetent or negligent in the performance of its duties or in the expenditure of moneys allocated to it the Board shall have power to substitute or create any other agency to expend such moneys in accordance with this act and to permit such other agency to use reasonable sum of the amount allocated to it to be allowed by the Board for administration expenses

The State Emergency Relief Board may discontinue allocations and payments under the provisions of this act at any time if in its opinion no further necessity for State-aid exists

Section 7 Each political subdivision charged by law with the care of the poor and the State Emergency Relief Board through any agency which it may select or set up or create shall have authority under the provisions of this act any law to the contrary notwithstanding to expend the moneys received from the appropriations made by this act for work performed for the subdivision to which allocated or for any county city borough town township or school district or for the Commonwealth or for the purpose of providing food clothing fuel and shelter for persons residing within their respective districts who have gained a legal settlement and who are without means of support In no case shall any appropriation be used for paying cash commonly known as a "dole" to persons entitled to relief.

No person shall be entitled to work or direct relief from the appropriations made by this act unless such person shall on account of financial circumstances be in actual need of work or direct relief Any person who shall receive aid from any political subdivision or agency under the provisions of this act as the result of false representations as to his or her need shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment of such fine and costs may be imprisoned for a period not exceeding ten days

Section 8 The amounts paid to political subdivisions under the provisions of this act and by them expended shall be audited by the auditors of such political subdivisions in the same manner and with like effect as other expenditures made by such subdivision

The Auditor General on his own initiative and at the request of the State Emergency Relief Board shall audit the accounts of any political subdivision or any other agency with respect to moneys received and expended under the provisions of this act in like manner and with like power and authority as is provided by the laws of the Commonwealth for audits in connection with the fiscal affairs of the State Government

Section 9 The sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the State Emergency Relief Board for printing the payment of the compensation and expenses of clerical and other assistants required for supervision of the expenditures of the appropriations made by this act for postage traveling expenses and for all other incidental and necessary expenses incurred by the said Board in administering this act

Section 10 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

REQUEST FOR VERIFICATION OF ROLL

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have a verification of the roll on this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that his request is made too late, the result of the vote having been announced.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1277, as follows:

An Act relating to writs of execution on goods and chattels and regulating the period within which such property must be sold to preserve the lien of a levy thereon and providing that sheriffs or coroners may return any such writ if no sale shall be made thereon within said period unless the sale be stayed by law or an order of court and relieving them from liability for abandonment of the levy in such cases

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever any sheriff or coroner to whom any writ of fieri facias or testatum fieri facias shall be directed to levy upon any goods chattels of any defendant or defendants named therein shall make such levy on or before the return day of such writ but shall not make any sale thereof within three months after such return day not including the period of any stay by law or order of court on account of the refusal or neglect of the plaintiff or plaintiffs named in such writ to advance to such sheriff or coroner the legal fees and costs including reasonable charges for advertising such sale to which such officer may be entitled for making the same or by reason of any postponement or adjournments of any such sale by order of the plaintiff or plaintiffs or their attorney the sheriff or coroner holding such writ at the expiration of said period may return the same to the court out of which it issued stating the facts without being liable to such plaintiff or plaintiffs to answer for the debt or damages mentioned in such writ which return shall be without prejudice to the right of such plaintiff or plaintiffs to thereafter issue an alias or pluries fieri facias or testatum fieri facias for the recovery thereof with interest and costs

Section 2 Whenever any sheriff or coroner to whom any writ of venditioni exponas or testatum venditioni exponas shall be directed to sell any goods or chattels of any defendant or defendants named therein upon which he may be holding a levy shall not make any sale thereof within three months after the return day of such writ not including the period of any stay by law or an order of court by reason of the refusal or neglect of the plaintiff or plaintiffs named therein to advance to such sheriff or coroner the legal fees and costs including reasonable charges for advertising the same to which such officer may be entitled for making the same before the expiration of such period or by reason of any postponement or adjournments of said sale by order of the plaintiff or plaintiffs or their attorney such sheriff or coroner may return said writ at the expiration of said period stating the facts and withdraw said levy without being liable to such plaintiff or plaintiffs to answer for the debt or damages mentioned in such writ which return shall be without prejudices to the rights of said plaintiff or plaintiffs to thereafter issue an alias or pluries fire facias or testum fieri facias for the recovery thereof with interest and costs

Section 3 Nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain any sheriff or coroner from making return of any writ at the return day thereof as therein commanded unless the plaintiff or plaintiffs named or their attorney request such officer to delay or adjourn the sale of the goods and chattels levied upon for the purpose of extending the time within which the defendant or defendants may satisfy the debt or damages for which such levy was made for a period not exceeding three months after the return day of such writ not including the period of any stay by law or any order of court

Section 4 This act shall become effective upon the approval by the Governor and shall apply to all writs of execution on goods and chattels then remaining unreturned in the hands of any sheriff or coroner upon which no return shall be made within three months thereafter not including the period of any stay by law or any order of court by reason of any refusal or neglect of the plaintiff or plaintiffs therein to advance the legal fees and costs including charges for advertising same before the expiration of said period or by reason of any postponement or adjournments of such sale by the order of said plaintiff or plaintiffs or their attorneys respectively

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 257, entitled:

An Act to amend sections thirty-seven and thirty-eight of the act approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ninteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-seven) entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors as a condition of their right to vote at elections, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries, in cities of the first class of this Commonwealth, by removing from office all existing registration commissioners and their appointees in said cities, and authorizing the Governor to appoint registration commissions therein; defining the jurisdiction of said commissions, and the powers and duties of the commissioners constituting same, and of their appointees, including registrars, inspectors of registration, clerks, and counsel; fixing their qualifications, terms of office, and compensation; granting them certain immunity from arrest on registration days; and empowering such inspectors to arrest without warrant certain persons committing certain offenses in violation of this act in their presence, as well as to enter and inspect buildings given as residences of electors to interrogate the inmates thereof, to copy or demand a list of the lodgers therein, and to supervise the conduct of registrars; regulating the registration of electors at polling places by registrars, and at the offices of commissions by commissioners, and the right of parties or bodies of electors to have watchers thereat, and the preparation and use of street lists and other records of those registered; allowing the names of persons not entitled to vote to be struck from the registers in certain cases; permitting all records regarding registration to be inspected and copied by any elector under certain conditions; directing how the registers shall be used at elections and primaries; compelling the attendance of witnesses and payment of witness fees; and providing penalties for refusal to obey subpoenas; directing receivers of taxes to appoint chief clerks of commissions as deputies to collect poll taxes and to give receipts therefor; authorizing such clerks to administer oaths, sign subpoenas and vouchers, and to collect and disburse witness fees; prescribing a method for challenging persons applying for registration, and the procedure for the correction of registers, and for appealing from actions of registrars to said commissions; and allowing for appeals from the decisions of the commissions in certain cases to courts of common pleas; imposing certain duties upon election officers and upon the councils, treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers, and other officials of said cities and upon the courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, commissioners, peace officers, and other officials of the judicial districts and counties in which said cities are situated or with which they are coextensive; legalizing certain acts required hereby if done on any Sunday or legal holiday; requiring said cities to provide for the maintenance of said commissions, and the compensation of their appointees, and the payment of all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and to transfer the unexpended balances of all appropriations heretofore made for the personal registration of electors of said cities during the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen to and for the use of the said commissions; punishing and fixing penalties for violations hereof; and repealing all legislation inconsistent herewith"; regulating the correction of registers upon petitions of electors, by placing the burden of proof upon the petitioner in proceedings to strike names from the register.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain its purpose. It seems to me, if I am right, that it would make it more difficult to strike the fictitious names off the polling list. I, therefore, would like to ask the sponsor of the bill to explain the purpose of it.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, all this bill does is this: At the present time a man is registered and then someone files a petition with the commissioners for the purpose of striking off his name. His name is stricken off when he does not appear, because he happens to be sick or away.

What this bill does is this: A man who is registered is considered prima facie entitled to vote. Anybody who feels that the man does not live there has the right to file a petition, as he does now, but he must produce proper evidence that the man does not live there and is not entitled to vote. That is all the bill does.

He must be served with notice. There is no other change except this; when someone files a petition to strike off he must produce evidence that his petition is filed in good faith and thus prove that that man is not entitled to vote.

At this time when a petition is filed and the man does not appear, his name is stricken off. I can relate personal experiences that I have had in the last year where a number of men registered, petitions were filed to strike their names off and a numbr of them were sick. All that the inspector said was "I am informed he does not live there." The commission said the man must appear, and they struck off his name. The man could not appear. This bill requires that the one who files such a petition shall produce proper proof that the man does not live there and is not entitled to vote. I think that is a perfectly proper proceeding, but no man should be denied the right to vote, no matter how low he is, unless there is proper and satisfactory proof of his not being qualified to vote.

Shall the bill pass finally?

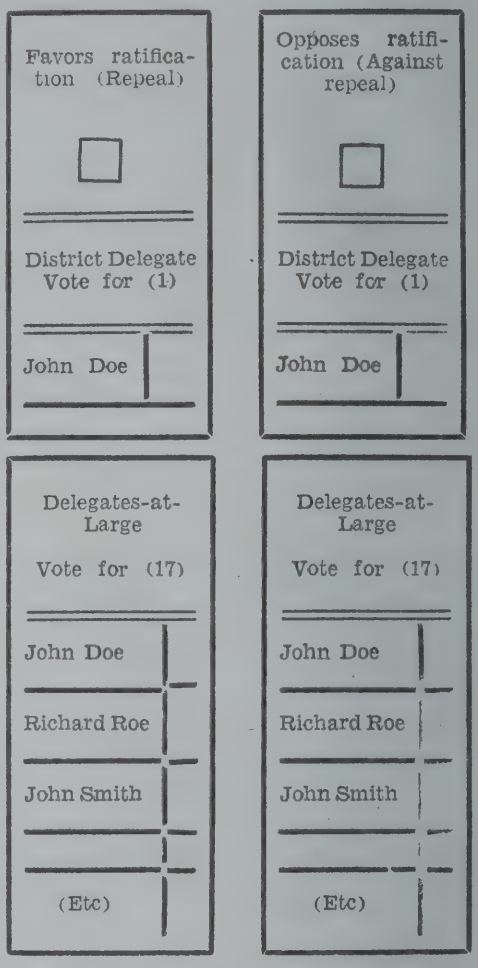
Ties shall be decided by lot drawn by the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Within thirty days (30) days after the last day for filing petitions the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall certify the nominees in congressional districts and at large to the county commissioners of the respective counties



Section 6 The election shall be by ballot separate from any ballot to be used at the same election which shall be prepared by the Secretary of the Commonwealth in substantially the following form and shall be furnished to the various election districts by the county commissioners of the respective counties

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION BALLOT

(Copy of amendment)

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS A cross mark X in the square at the head of any one of the two columns on this ballot votes for all candidates for district delegate and delegates at large named in that column Do not mark a cross mark in more than one square at the head of a column

If you do not desire to vote for the group of nominees in any one column mark a cross mark X after the name or names of the candidates of your choice to the number indicated on the ballot

Each elector may vote for one candidate for district delegate and seventeen candidates for delegate at large A cross mark X in the square at the head of any one of the two columns on the ballot shall count as a vote for each of the candidates for district delegate and delegates at large appearing in that column If an elector does not desire to vote by a cross mark X in the square at the head of a column then he may indicate the candidate for district delegate and the seventeen candidates for delegate at large of his choice by marking a cross mark X in the square opposite their respective names or he may insert the name of any candidate or candidates for whom he desires to vote in the appropriate blank spaces provided on the ballot

When an elector votes in the square at the head of a column his power to vote is exhausted and if he thereafter inserts any cross mark X in any other square at the head of another column or after the name of a candidate in any column other than the one at the head of which he has placed his cross mark X his ballot shall be void

Section 7 The candidate in each congressional district receiving the highest number of votes at said election shall be the delegate from said district to said convention The seventeen candidates at large receiving the highest number of votes in the entire state at said election shall be the delegates at large from the State to said convention Any vacancy in the membership of the convention caused by the death or disability of any delegate or for any other cause shall be filled by appointment of a person by the majority vote of the group of delegates favoring ratification or opposing ratification as the case may be to which the absent delegate belonged

Section 8 The Delegates to the Convention shall serve without compensation and shall meet at the Capitol on the twenty-eighth day after their election at 12 o'clock noon in the Hall of the Senate and shall thereupon constitute a Convention to pass upon the question of whether or not the proposed Amendment shall be ratified

Section 9 The Convention shall be the judge of the election and qualification of its members The convention shall be called to order by the Lieutenant Governor who shall be the chairman thereof but who shall not have any vote unless elected as a delegate The Secretary of the Senate shall be the secretary of the convention and the Chief Clerk of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be the tellers of the convention The Secretary of the Senate shall provide a reporter or reporters for the convention a sergeant-at-arms and one page whose compensation shall be paid out of the appropriation made by this act upon the approval of the Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of the Senate In case of the inability of any of the persons herein named to be present the convention shall name some one in his stead

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall as soon as the convention is called to order present the election returns of delegates which shall be opened and read after which the roll of names of those elected as shown by the returns shall be called and if any elected delegate is absent the vacancy shall then be filled as in this act provided

Before proceeding with the business of the convention the delegates shall take the Constitutional oath of office which shall be administered by a judge of the court of common pleas

Section 10 The convention shall keep a journal of its proceedings in which shall be recorded the vote of each Delegate on the question of ratification of the proposed Amendment and the debates thereon Upon final adjournment the Journal shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Section 11 If the Convention shall agree by vote of a majority of the total number of Delegates to the ratification of the proposed Amendment a certificate to that effect shall be executed by the President and Secretary of the Convention and transmitted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of this State who shall transmit the certificate under the Great Seal of the Commonwealth to the Secretary of State of the United States

Section 12 If at or about the time of submitting any such Amendment Congress shall by statute prescribe the mannner in which the conventions shall be constituted and shall not except from the provisions of such statute such states as may theretofore have provided for constituing such conventions the preceding provisions of this Act shall be inoperative and the convention shall be constituted and shall operate as the said Act of Congress shall direct and all officers of the State who may by the said statute be authorized or directed to take any action to constitute such a convention for this State are hereby authorized and directed to act thereunder and in obedience thereto with the same force and effect as if acting under a statute of this State

Section 13 The sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Secretary of the Senate for the payment of the compensation of the reporter or reporters sergeant-at-arms and page and for the payment of all other incidental and necessary expenses in connection with said convention

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speakers and members of the House, because there has been some slight controversy concerning the provisions of this bill, I should like briefly to summarize its purpose and the provisions made in this bill for holding the state convention to ratify or reject the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

The purpose of the bill is clearly set forth in the title, to provide for a convention to ratify or reject an amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by both houses of Congress for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the constitution.

The bill then sets up the machinery for the election of the delegates as well as for the holding of the convention. It provides, first, that the election of these delegates shall be held at the November election of 1933, the municipal election. That is November 7, 1933.

It further provides for the number and the manner of the election of the delegates. The number is set at fifty-one as follows: One from each congressional district of the State, making thirty-four, and seventeen delegates at large. These delegates will serve without pay. They are selected in this manner: In each congressional district signatures will be obtained by the candidates and the two candidates receiving the largest number of signatures, one for ratification and one against ratification, will be the two candidates to be voted for at the November election.

So far as the state at large is concerned, there will be two groups of candidates, one group of seventeen who have received the highest number of signers and are opposed to the ratification and the other group of seventeen who have received the highest number of signers who favor ratification.

The controversy, I think, with reference to this bill arises from a lack of understanding as to how the number of fifty-one was reached. It was felt that since this is a convention to ratify or reject a constitutional amendment of the United States that the vote of this convention should be as truly representative of the voice of the people as possible, and so, using the congressional district as a unit, it was felt that each congressional district should have at least one representative in the convention. Congressional districts were used mainly because it is the one district in the State that has been apportioned in recent years. Congressional apportionment was made by this Assembly in June of 1931.

Take the smallest county of the State or the smallest congressional district, which is the 18th congressional district, that has a population according to the 1930 census of one hundred ninety-eight thousand plus. Therefore, we have started with that as a base or standard and we desired after that to accord to each one hundred ninety-eight thousand voters at least one delegate. Of course there are much larger congressional districts in the State. The largest district is the 12th congressional district, Luzerne County. That has four hundred and forty thousand plus. The next is the Schuylkill-Northumberland district comprising the 13th congressional district with three hundred and sixty-four thousand plus.

Obviously if we use as a base or standard the figure of one hundred and ninety-eight thousand, which is the population of the smallest congressional district, in order for the convention to be truly representative it becomes necessary to afford a choice to all of those voters in excess of one hundred and ninety-eight thousand, and so there was computed the excess in each county above one hundred and ninety-eight thousand, and in the sixty-seven counties there are upwards of two million eight hundred and ninety thousand voters who would not otherwise be represented if the representation was restricted merely to congressional districts. This figure of two million eight hundred and ninety thousand voters was divided by the base of one hundred and ninety-eight thousand and that gave us fifteen delegates at large, and then, as is customary, two more delegates at large were added to take the place of the two United States Senators. That is the method by which this fifty-one figure was reached.

I cannot conceive that there can be any more fair or equitable manner for arriving at the number of delegates. It is an effort to make this convention as truly representative as possible.

These delegates will be voted for at the November election and of course in the congressional districts the one receiving the highest number of votes, whether he be for ratification or against ratification, shall be the one elected, and in the State at large the group of seventeen who receive the highest number of votes, whether that group be for or against ratification, will be the group elected.

These elected delegates will meet twenty-eight days after the election here in Harrisburg and will vote on the simple question of ratification or non-ratification.

This bill has received the thought of all of the interested parties in the State, and it is felt that it is the finest bill that could be presented to this House. So I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose this bill. The only advantage of the proposed convention is to establish the machinery for ascertaining the will of the people of Pennsylvania. You cannot ascertain the will of the people of Pennsylvania by polling the congressional district. It would be possible under this bill for the wets to carry the State of Pennsylvania by one hundred thousand and lose the convention. It would be possible under this bill for the drys to carry this State by one hundred thousand and lose the convention.

This bill is established upon the principle that a congressional district is to be the unit, and if my congressional district goes unanimously wet or dry the voice of the people in my congressional district is no greater than though a congressional district were carried wet or dry by a majority of one.

I object to the entire contention of the gentleman from Philadelphia who has expounded this bill, and oppose the bill because it does not offer the machinery whereby we can ascertain; not what the congressional districts think, not what the senatorial districts think, but what a majority of the people of Pennsylvania think.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, the only other suggestion made for the election of delegates to this convention is incorporated in another bill which provides that the delegates shall be elected by legislative districts, that there shall be no delegates at large, but that each legislative district shall have one convention delegate.

You are faced with the choice between those two propositions. Now, I have told you why I believed that the provisions of this bill afforded the surest opportunity for securing the real sentiment of the State.

Let me then answer why the provisions as to legislative districts is so completely faulty. In the first place, we are dealing with a federal law and not a state law, and therefore the federal or congressional districts should be the unit instead of the state or the legislative district.

In the second place, let me give you just a few instances of the inequalities if we were to choose delegates from legislative districts. For instance, Forest County, with a population of five thousand one hundred and eighty, would be entitled to one delegate. The 16th legislative district with a population of one hundred thirty-seven thousand six hundred and eighty-six would get but one delegate. This, as you see, is a ratio of about twenty-five or twenty-six to one, which would mean that the vote of one resident of Forest County would be equivalent to the votes of twenty-six residents of the 16th legislative district.

In Cameron County the population is five thousand three hundred and seven. The 15th legislative district, which would only get one delegate the same as Cameron County, has a population of one hundred and four thousand plus.

Take the three counties of Sullivan, Fulton and Pike. In Sullivan County there is a little upward of seven thousand voters, in Fulton County there is a little upward of nine thousand voters, in Pike County there is a little upward of seven thousand voters. Each of these three districts would get one delegate, so that the total of about twenty-four thousand votes would give them three delegates.

Compare that with three other legislative districts, the 22nd legislative district has a population of upward of one hundred and eight thousand, the 31st legislative district, Allegheny County, has a population of upward of three hundred and twelve thousand, the 34th legislative district, Allegheny County, has a population of three hundred and eleven thousand, and if you total those three you have a combined population of seven hundred thirty-one thousand plus, which would be a representation of three as against the former twenty-four thousand plus with the same representation of three. Now, you can see the gross inequality of such a set-up.

Thus far twenty-one states have acted on the machinery to set up these conventions. In fourteen of those states provisions have been made for the election of delegates at large. There are varied plans but all of them have some system whereby they will elect delegates at large and in seven of those states all of the delegates to be elected are to be delegates at large.

Of course it might be the ideal system, to have all of the delegates elected at large but it would inevitably meet with the opposition of the rural communities who would then say that the large populous cities would control all of the delegates. The provisions of this bill attempt to obviate any such criticism because it affords representation to every congressional district and takes up the excess in the seventeen delegates at large, and I can see no sound or valid reason for opposition to the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if there is any constitutional reasons why all of the delegates to the proposed convention cannot be elected at large?

Mr. BLUMBERG. There is none, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Another question, Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman select, or have the proponents of this measure selected, congressional districts as the unit because congressional districts have been reapportioned and legislative districts have not?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, that is one of the reasons, together with the fact as I have stated, that we are working on a federal law and therefore the base should be the federal district, the congressional district.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia has stated my contention; which is, that there is no constitutional reason why all of these delegates cannot be elected at large, and I oppose this bill because electing delegates at large presents the only opportunity of ascertaining the will of the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. BLUMBERG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia to state that the highest two petitions, that is, the candidates getting the highest number of signers on two petitions would be the ones whose names would be placed on the ballot to be voted upon?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Yes. Every candidate, Mr. Speaker, as a delegate must receive in a congressional district at least two thousand signatures, whereas the delegates at large must receive at least two thousand signatures in at least ten counties. In the congressional districts the two candidates who receive the greatest number of signatures will have their names certified as candidates, and likewise as to the seventeen delegates at large.

Mr. O'CONNOR. That, Mr. Speaker, is regardless of whether they are for or against this amendment.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, the one who receives the highest number for ratification will be the candidate for ratification and the one who receives the highest number against ratification will be the candidate against ratification.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, how about the seventeen at large.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, the same thing applies to the seventeen delegates at large. Two groups of seventeen will be selected. One group containing seventeen who have received the highest number of signatures for ratification and one group of seventeen each of whom have received the highest number of signatures against ratification.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I oppose this measure because of the fact that for the first time in the history of our country this method for ratifying or rejecting an amendment to the federal constitution has been used. I feel there is no better way, since this is a statewide issue, and cannot be made a local option issue, to elect all of the delegates to the convention at large. I, therefore, oppose this measure and ask the House to vote it down.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, on page three of the bill I notice this provision on line twelve "unless the Governor shall fix a day for a special election prior thereto" is stricken from the bill. May I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether that was done in the House or in the Senate?

Mr. BLUMBERG. That was done in the House, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I dare say that the attitude of this House is undoubtedly to get an unbiased opinion on this problem with which we are confronted. By restricting this election to the municipal election held this November, we are not accomplishing that purpose.

The problem of prohibition has been a football of politics since the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment. Every local issue, every local problem, every individual conviction, has been tainted and prostituted by injecting the prohibition problem therein.

I maintain that if we are desirous of getting a clear expression of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on the problem of the repeal or ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment we should vote on that problem alone, where there is no opportunity for politicians of both sides to inject that problem in order to gain elective offices for their individual constituents. I feel that irrespective of the expense that it will impose upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that the opportunity to vote on this problem alone should be given to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I fear that in every community at this municipal election the politicians—and I say on both sides—will inject the problem of the prohibition amendment into the votes of their constituents. I therefore oppose this bill unless some method can be found to allow an election on this problem alone.

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the objection raised by the gentleman from York, the primary reason for selecting the November election as the time at which this question shall be submitted is one of expense. The cost involved in having a separate election for the purpose of submitting this question would probably be in the neighborhood of a million dollars. The election machinery is set up in November and it involves no extra expense. The question of expense is vital to the Commonwealth at the present time. Every effort is being made in every possible way to keep down expenses in the Commonwealth, and if this question is to be submitted to the people within the next few months, it seems obvious that the time to do it is at the general election when no additional expense will be involved.

The time of the municipal election is selected because at the time of the primary election the equipment is not there, and that is an additional reason for selecting the general election in November. It is a matter of expense and I think that answers the gentleman conclusively.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Greenstein.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Greenstein, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GREENSTEIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman admit that the problem of prohibition and the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment in the past have been made the football of politics?

Mr. GREENSTEIN. I think that that question is rather irrelevant, Mr. Speaker, to the question at hand. Even if it were so I do not think it could influence the purpose of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The point is well taken by the gentleman from Philadelphia. The gentleman from York will proceed with his interrogation.

Mr. COHEN. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia admit that local issues have been perverted by the injection of the prohibition issue.

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I make the same objection to that question. I think that it is immaterial.

The SPEAKER. The point is well taken. The gentleman from York is interrogating the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia admit that a clearer expression of the people on this problem would be gained by holding an election distinct from any municipal or general election than could be gotten by holding it on the same day and at the same time.

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not think it necessarily follows that such would be the case. I can see no reason why at the general election, when this question would be submitted every citizen of the Commonwealth going to the polls would not be well aware that he was being called upon to vote on this more serious and most important question, and he could do so at that time as well as he could at any election called for that purpose only.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the only contention that the gentleman from Philadelphia has to substantiate this mode of holding a referendum is due to the fact that it is less expensive. I agree with him thereon. But I do maintain that this problem is great enough to warrant the expenditure of any sum of money necessary to hold an election on this problem alone.

The gentleman from Philadelphia has undoubtedly evaded what we all know to be common knowledge, that is, that prohibition has been made the football of politics. Every local issue is tainted by the problem of the prohibition amendment pro and con. I for one desire to see a clear expression of the people of this commonwealth on this subject and on this subject alone.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to what the gentleman from York has said, it seems to me that there might be some justification for his statement were the election in November 1933 a state wide election in the sense that we are voting for state wide offices, but this being purely a local election I cannot see how the question of wet or dry will enter into the election of local officials at that time.

I do believe that we must save a million dollars if we can, and there would be no assurance that this election might not be called at the spring primary or some other time than the general election of 1933.

It seems to me that we have three propositions on which we can elect delegates to this convention. The first one is upon the legislative district and I think that that is objectionable under the statement of the gentleman from Cambria that it would not be an expression of the will of the people of the state, because of the wide divergence of the number of people in the different legislative districts, some where you have four or five thousand in a district and in some where you may have one hundred thousand. If you take it on the plea of the gentleman from Cambria that all of the delegates be elected at large in the state then you have this situation, two-fifths of the voters of the state are in Philadelphia and Allegheny counties and two-fifths of the voters in the state are in the rural districts and one-fifth in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties and some of the contiguous hard-coal districts. It would be possible by a combination of certain of the large sections of this state to absolutely control all of the delegates and elect all of the delegates at large, which would crowd out the rural districts and the smaller districts in the state.

We have a precedent for what is being done here. If you will turn back in your history of the United States, to the very adoption of the constitution, you will find that the delegates to the convention that was to adopt or ratify the constitution that was adopted in Philadelphia in 1787, the members were elected from districts in the state and not at large.

So it seems to me at this time when we meet this important question, on which there may be this divergence of opinion, that the fairest proposition that has been submitted is that of the congressional district plus these delegates at large to represent that mass of population that is not included in the congressional districts.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Delaware believe that a voter should be disqualified from expressing his full sentiments simply because he happens to live in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton or Wilkes-Barre?

Mr. TURNER. I do not, Mr. Speaker. I desire to proceed from where the gentleman from Cambria left the question in the air. If he had followed it up by saying that if you take it on the basis I have stated, in Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties, with their large populations and their undoubtedly large wet vote, there is no opportunity for the expression of the will of the other fellow because he will be crowded out by the sentiment of one great metropolitan district, or two great metropolitan districts as against the sentiment of rural Pennsylvania.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I know that the time for recess is drawing very close and I arise only to make one further point.

It seems that a question has been raised as to whether this problem will not be confused with the municipal questions involved in every municipal election. In order to obviate that possible phase of it, this bill provides that "The election shall be by ballot separate from any ballot to be used at the same election which shall be prepared" in the following form, and then the form of the ballot is specifically provided for in the act showing those delegates who are for repeal and those delegates who are against repeal. So, this particular question is kept separate and apart and cannot be confused with other municipal questions.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible under the Constitution to have delegates to this convention from the districts according to their population; that is, the gentleman took one hundred and ninety-eight thousand, I believe, as the base and there are some districts that have four hundred thousand. Why could not the districts that have four hundred thousand have two delegates, or whatever the proportion may be, to represent that district and do away with the delegates at large?

Mr. BLUMBERG. The answer to that is, there could be no method of taking up the fractional parts of the excess. You would have a district entitled to one and one-quarter delegates and another district to one and a half delegates. Now we have given each district at least one delegate and taken the excess and divided it evenly, and we have seventeen parts and have called them delegates at large, and in that way every voter is represented by a delegate.

PREVIOUS QUESTION

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Joseph R. Lynch, Hoffman, Steedle, Metzier, Bennett, Duffy, Baldi, Lewis, Cordier, Harris, Hart, Baker, Peters, Ederer, Forrest, Storb, Greenstein, Witkin, Turner, Fleisher, Weidemann and Nothnagle.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

HOUSE BILL No. 354.

An Act to amend section five of article seventeen of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred eighty-one) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania" increasing the emergency borrowing power

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 2, line 17, by striking out after the word "dollars" the words "at any one time," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "in any one year"; also in line 18, by striking out the light face bracket before the word "the"; also in line 19, by striking out the light face bracket after the word "created"; also in same line by striking out after the word "created" the words "three (3) years."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

ANNOUNCEMENT BY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

I desire to call up at this time Bill No. 515, Printer's No. 86, on page 13 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Tahl.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 515, entitled:

An Act to amend section one as amended, and section two, of the act, approved the ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 198), entitled "An act prohibiting the furnishing, by gift, sale, or otherwise, of cigarettes or cigarette paper to minors; requiring minors to divulge where and from whom cigarettes or cigarette paper have been obtained; and providing penalties for violation of this act," by reducing the age limit of persons to whom cigarettes or cigarette paper may be furnished.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the bill on third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 13, by striking out the word "sixteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "eighteen."

Amend section 3, page 3, line 5, by striking out the word "sixteen" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "eighteen."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 759, entitled:

An Act making it unlawful for any person or group of persons together, while having a firearm or firearms, or other implements, whereby deer, bear or elk may be killed, in his or their possession or control, or in any vehicle, on any highway or road, or in any field, woodland or forest, to throw or cast the rays of a spotlight or other artificial light upon a deer, bear or elk, and providing a penalty.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 759, Printer's No. 224 needs a little explanation. There has been quite some delusion going about as to the intent of this bill.

There is a racket in almost every game, and it has gone into the killing of deer, elk and bear. People from the states of Ohio, New York and New Jersey come into Pennsylvania, and it is no trouble for them to secure the carcass of a deer for a five dollar bill, and that is done in the manner that is known to sportsmen as jack lighting, that is, casting the ray of a headlight or a jack light on deer in fields, and then shooting them. There have been as high as sixteen deer shot in a field in one night.

This bill was sponsored by the Carbon County Sportsmen's Association, twenty thousand members, endorsed by the State Association four weeks ago in this building here, and is only a measure to conserve game.

It is true that it is a pleasure to drive out and see deer in the field at night, with the reflection of a headlight or a jack light thrown upon them. That is true especially of those who come from the cities. We in the rural districts consider it a common sight. However to forego a little pleasure in seeing a deer at night, when a bill means so much to the state of Pennsylvania, is a subject that should be given due consideration.

The jack light is a light that is placed on the head, something similar to a miner's light, and the ray is thrown into the field, and the sights of a rifle are almost in direct line, so that it is almost impossible to miss a deer.

There are many deer killed in the state in that manner, and if this continues it will not be necessary to have any jack lights, or head lights to see any deer, because I am afraid there will be no more deer unless we take care of them in this manner. So I am going to leave this to your own thoughts and to your own good judgment.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have laws on our statute books now that very conclusively prohibit the spot lighting of deer, and in my opinion the enactment of this bill into law would cause a great many innocent sportsmen to be fined.

Therefore, I move you that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Game for further study.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer, that this bill in its present condition cannot be amended in Committee. It would, however, be in order to move to reconsider the vote by which it passed third reading.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, the Committee can give it further study, can it not?

The SPEAKER. That is quite true.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, it is true that we have a bill and a heavy fine connected with it for the shooting of deer in the manner as described, "by jack lighting." However, there are few convictions because of the fact there are so many escapes. This is just an extraordinary precaution, and it carries a fine of fifty dollars with it. The law, as it is now, does not take care of the situation because it is almost——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking upon the motion.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The question before the House is on the motion to recommit House Bill No. 759, Printer's No. 224, to the Committee on Game for further study.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the noes appear to have it, whereupon, a divison was called for, seventy-nine members voting in the affirmative and ninety members voting in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill does not prevent you from driving out and casting your headlight into a field at night, providing you have no firearm in your car or in your possession. That is reasonable. It does not prevent you from seeing that sight. The only time that the majority of the people go out with firearms in their cars or in their possession is during the gunning season, and that is only for a trip or two. It is a very small pleasure that they could forego and this is a question of vital interest.

I am going to leave it to your consideration.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on general principles I would be in favor of this bill, but it seems to me the same desired effect could be secured by some other means. If this illegal hunting is done by the use of jack lights, would it not be possible to prohibit by law the use of jack lights.

There is another provision which I don't like, which is the last proviso: "Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply if it shall be proven that the headlight of any motor vehicle was cast upon such an animal . . . without intent——"

That provision is contrary to the general principles of the criminal law, if I am informed correctly. A man is presumed under the law to be innocent until he is proven guilty. Under the provisions of this bill a man would be considered guilty until he proves himself innocent. I would like to support this measure in principle, and I hoped there would be some way in which this bill could be modified to make it more acceptable. I think the fine is very severe. If a man goes out, a roughneck, and beats up his wife, he gets an imprisonment or ten dollars fine. If he goes out and plays a headlight on a deer, he is fined fifty dollars. There are certain provisions in this law that I don't like at all, and I will be compelled to vote against it, although I believe in the protecting of the deer and the preventing of illegal hunting as far as possible.

Mr. HEFFNER. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, and friends of the sportsmen of Pennsylvania, to my mind this is one of the most important pieces of legislation that has come before the House in the last few years, giving the game of Pennsylvania a chance.

I happen to represent one of the greatest game counties in Pennsylvania. During the last few years that county has become sparsely settled, with many abandoned farms, and with the racketeer or bootlegger in deer meat in that vicinity, and night after night in that big rugged county spotlighting has become a common practice.

Some two or three years ago a game warden rounded up a bunch of racketeers in this work, netting costs and fines of nineteen thousand dollars. Eight thousand dollars was paid, and the balance was worked out by their serving time in jail. I think there is some misunderstanding of this bill. This bill prohibits the spotlighting or killing of deer by the use of automobile head lights. In our county it is quite a racket and they operate in one end of the county where we have one game protector and an assistant, and the next night they operate twenty miles away in another portion of the country, and around many of the abandoned farms in Huntingdon County many deer heads and deer hides have been found night after night, where the deer has been skinned out and the meat taken away.

We are here passing legislation to protect the hunter and destroy the game of our Commonwealth. We realize that it is a beautiful sight. We realize that there are many that enjoy turning the headlights of their car on a deer or casting them at them in their contented condition, but it certainly appears to me that the good sportsmen of the greatest state in the Union for game could stay away for a short period of time and allow the deer an equal chance.

All we ask for the wild life in this particular bill, in this particular case, is just a chance to save their lives.

To those people who do not hunt, who do not enjoy rural Pennsylvania, it might be interesting to know that when the flashlight or the light of an automobile is thrown on the deer they stand there, they do not move, they do not run.

If we expect to continue to pass legislation that will destroy our game, we certainly will come to the time soon when we will have no game. All those people who have actually noticed the great slaughter of animals in Pennsylvania, and especially in the rural districts that are sparsely settled, will certainly realize that this is a progressive measure, a piece of game law that will protect the game instead of the hunter, and allow our forests to become a better place for our outdoor life.

It is a fact that some gangs, not sportsmen, in Pennsylvania have offered to the people of the large cities of Pennsylvania, if they would come into their vicinity and pay fifty dollars or any other price, or pay the expense of their staying there, that they would guarantee them a deer to take home, and a lot of this guaranteeing has been done by means of the spot lighting of deer throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I ask my good friends who are not sportsmen to abide by the decision of the sportsmen of Pennsylvania. I favor this bill, and in the Committee, when this bill was passed from the Committee on Game there was only one vote against it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order. He is divulging the secrets of transactions that happened in committee.

Mr. WILLIAM L. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlement of the House, I am from a district, the thirteenth legislative district in Allegheny County. It is not a deer hunting district whatsoever, but I have in my possession communications from every sportsmen's club in that district requesting me to support this bill.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 383, Printer's No. 113, on page 12 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Kinney.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 383, entitled:

An Act to amend section ten of the act approved the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, (P. L. 63), entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors in cities of the third class of this Commonwealth, to make such registration a condition of the right to vote in such cities, and to provide penalties for violation of its provisions," as amended eliminating the provisions requiring county commissioners to prepare street lists.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the pending measure, House Bill No. 383, Printer's No. 113, merely changes that section of the personal registration law in cities of the third class, which requires county commissioners to compile and have printed each year a street list of all registered voters in cities of the third classification, and furnish same to party committeemen and others who may desire a copy of the same. The cost is quite heavy in counties which contain cities of the third class. In my County of Erie the cost last year was more than a thousand dollars. I do not think the members of this House believe it to be the duty of county commissioners to pay for party poll books.

I offer as Exhibit No. 1 the Erie County registration street voters list for the cities of Erie and Corry (Exhibit bound book). The street list is of no public value. Our county commissioners in requesting the repeal of that section of the personal registration law write to me, "It is of no account and a nuisance, and an unnecessary expense to the county." Furthermore, this book gives the party politics of each registered voter, and as a result hundreds of our citizens now refuse to register, claiming such a book should not be peddled around two weeks before an election. When a book of this kind is printed and circulated, it is somewhat of a nuisance. There are some who are not registering, and furthermore some counties in the state which have third class cities have refused to print this book. I am of the opinion that the members believe that this is an era of economy especially, and if we can save Erie County one thousand dollars, it will mean some saving and it will also no doubt effect some saving in other counties. It is not necessary, as it is an easy matter to go to the county commissioners and obtain the names of the electors without going to the expense of printing a book of this kind.

Mr. RUBY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a vicious piece of legislation that is parading under the mantle of economy. I call the attention of the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Kinney, to the fact that there are third class cities in other parts of the State. He seems to forget that this act as originally passed was to regulate election laws and give us the protection that we are now seeking in so many bills now before this House and Senate.

Just this afternoon I listened for more than an hour in the Senate Chamber to a group of more than three hundred people speaking in favor of election reform measures, having made the trip by special train from Pittsburgh.

In Allegheny County there are several third class cities. Perhaps in Erie County they don't have phantom voters. I want to say it has been rumored numerous times that there are phantom voters in our county. One of the ways to wipe that out is to have a public list of the registered voters, so that we may know who is entitled to vote. I want to say in reply to the gentleman from Erie that the laws does not require that this book be published showing your party designation. I want to say also that if we take away this protection, that we are not doing justice to the various counties in which third class cities are represented. This book is published not just for one city in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania, but for cities all over the State of Pennsylvania, and they should be considered. I therefore ask you not to be deceived about this bill, but to vote it down.

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I regret very much that I should be charged with being the author of vicious legislation. I have a communication here before me from the county commissioners of Erie County asking the Erie County delegation to secure the passage of this act, and I am doing my duty to the county commissioners, and I think that the publishing of this book is a great expense and an injustice to the taxpayers of Erie County. To show that party politics ar printed in this book which I have before me, my name appears in here, W. D. Kinney, with my street address, Democrat, and that is the list which is circulated in Erie County. I desire to say to the gentleman from Allegheny County that any one who wants to get a list of voters, it is a very easy matter for them to go to the county commissioners themselves and make a copy of the poll book as they did in former years, but now we seem to depend on the county commissioners to furnish these lists to party leaders for political purposes. I certainly would not advocate anything that I thought would interfere with the election laws.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 987, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 479), entitled "An act to regulate procedure where a defendant desires to have joined, as additional defendants, persons who he alleges are alone liable or liable over to him or jointly or severally liable with him for the cause of action declared on and providing for entry of judgments against such additional defendants" as amended by providing for service of process on an added defendant in counties other than that within which the action was instituted

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I desire the sponsor of this bill to explain the provisions of it.

Mr. BALDI. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill simply clarifies the condition of summoning defendants in other counties to the counties where the action takes place.

Session 1933 — 130th of the General Assembly

Vol. 15 — HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1933. — No. 35

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, March 22, 1933

The Senate met at 10.30 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Gracious Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the light of another day. Help us to meet all of its duties and responsibilities unruffled and with courage. Be today with all who are in sorrow. Be with the members of the Senate who are depressed and sorrowful today because of the loss of loved ones. Guide and keep them. Bless all who are afflicted. May we always be under the shadow of Thy wings in joy as well as in sorrow. We ask in Christ's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HOMSHER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

(e) The term "private carrier" shall mean any person owning controlling managing operating or causing to be operated any freight motor vehicle used in transporting property for hire in intrastate commerce other than common carriers subject to the provisions of the Public Service Company Law of this Commonwealth approved July twenty-sixth one thousand nine hundred and thirteen its supplements and amendments.

The second section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 2 (a) On and after ninety days from the date this act shall become effective or after such further period as the Commission may by order provide no person shall commence or continue to operate any freight motor vehicle over the highways of this Commonwealth in intrastate commerce as a private carrier without an effective permit incorporating such conditions as the Commission may impose and unless and until a permit therefor has been granted by said Commission it being the express legislative intent to require the permits herein provided for to promote in the public interest safety of and upon the highways of this State as well as economies in the construction and maintenance thereof

(b) The commission is hereby authorized to refuse a permit to any person who shall apply for a permit to operate as a private carrier for hire if in its opinion the operation proposed will tend to burden damage or congest the public highways to render them unsafe for general public use or unnecessarily to increase the number of freight motor vehicles operating on the public highways beyond that required adequately to meet the transportation needs of the public to the detriment of the general public use of and interest in the public highways Otherwise the commisison is hereby authorized to and may grant a permit to the applicant therefor

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I move to amend section 2 (a), page 3, line 9, by adding the following proviso: Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the operation of a freight motor vehicle by a farmer carrying his own milk and produce together with the milk and produce or milk or produce of other farmers from the farms to the nearest transportation terminal or market.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The third to tenth sections inclusive of the bill were read as follows and agreed to.

Section 3 (a) An application for such permit shall be made to the commission in writing under oath or affirmation of the applicant in the case of an individual or of some authorized officer in the case of a corporation or association setting forth the name and address of the applicant the territory in which and the public highways over which he or it proposes to operate his or its financial condition the equipment to be used including the right of judicial review as is provided in the Public Service Company Law of this Commonwealth approved July twenty-sixth one thousand nine hundred and thirteen its supplements and amendments in respect to similar procedure affecting common carriers

Section 4 No permit shall be issued by the commission to any private carrier of property by freight motor vehicle unless and until the applicant shall have filed and the Commission shall have approved a liability insurance policy or other evidence satisfactory to the commission of the applicants ability to provide payment of compensation for all injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property resulting from the negligent operation of such carrier Such liability insurance policy shall be issued by an insurance company or association authorized to do business in this State shall be in such amount and in such form as the commission may deem necessary to protect the interest of the public and shall be kept in full force and effect at all times such carrier shall operate If in lieu of an insurance policy the commission accepts other evidence of the applicants ability to provide such compensation the carrier shall whenever requested by the commission from time to time furnish such information as may be relevant to its continued ability to provide such compensation and if the commission is not satisfied with the carrier continued ability it may require an insurance policy to be filed in the manner above set forth.

Section 5 Every permit granted by the commission shall specify the number type and size including maximum carrying capacity as specified in the application for registration under an Act known as the Vehicle Code approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred five) its supplements and amendments of freight motor vehicles to be used and the route over which the termini between which or the territory within which the applicant is permitted to operate No increase shall be made in the number of vehicles operated and no change shall be made in the type or size including maximum carrying capacity of vehicles to be used or in route termini or territory without the approval of the commission Every permit shall also specify the period for which it is issued which period shall not in any even be less than one (1) year and upon expiration of such period no private carrier shall operate any freight motor vehicle over the highways of this State in intrastate commerce until such permit has been renewed or continued by the commission upon application made and considered in the manner hereinabove provided for as to the original permit

Section 6 No permit shall be transferred or assigned to any other person without the approval of the commission

Section 7 There shall be forwarded to the commission with every application for a permit and for each renewal transfer or assignment of the same a filing fee of Five dollars ($5) which shall be paid into the State Treasury

Section 8 Inasmuch as the public interest requires the preservation of highways for the use of the general public and the unrestricted and unregulated use of such highways by freight motor vehicles for hire tends unduly to burden damage and congest said highways as well as to render them unsafe for general public use and also in order that the commission may foster regulate and presrve a dependable transportation system for the whole people of the Commonwealth co-ordinated and adequate to meet public requirements without undue use of or burden upon the highways to the public detriment and further inasmuch as the public interest requires the regulation of the rates of common carriers by freight motor vehicles engaged in intrastate commerce over the highways of this State and such regulation cannot be carried out effectively without regulating the rates charged by all persons operating freight motor vehicles for hire in intrastate commerce over the highways of this State no person shall on or after ninety (90) days from the date this act shall become effective or after such further period as the commission may by order provide transport any property as a private carrier without first having filed with the commission in the form and manner prescribed by the commission a tariff or schedule of the minimum rates and charges thereafter to be made charged or imposed for the carriage of such property in intrastate commerce No change shall be made in any such rate or charge except after ten (10) days notice of the proposed change filed in the aforesaid form and manner. Such notice shall plainly state the change proposed to be made and the time when such change will take effect The commission may in its discretion and for a good cause shown allow changes upon less than the notice herein specified or modify the requirements of this section in respect to the filing of tariffs or schedules either in particular instances or by a general order applicable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions

Section 9 No such carrier shall make charge impose or collect a less compensation for such carriage than the rates and charges filed in accordance with said tariff or schedule and it shall be unlawful for any such carrier by the furnishing of special services facilities or privileges or by any other device whatsoever to make charge impose or collect less than the minimum rates and charges so filed

Section 10 (a) The commission shall have power either upon complaint or upon its own motion to investigate the rates and charges made charged or imposed by any private carrier whether for the carriage or for special services facilities or privileges furnished by any such carrier

(b) If at any time after full hearing upon complaint or in an investigation upon its own motion the commission finds that any rate or charge of a private carrier is unduly low in that such rate or charge (1) gives or causes any undue or unreasonable advantage or preference to those whom it serves as compared with the patrons of any common carrier by freight motor vehicles or (2) subjects the patrons of any common carrier by freight motor vehicle to any undue or unreasonable discrimination or disadvantage or (3) by unfair competition unduly impairs (a) the service or business or (b) the regulation of the service or business of any common carrier by freight motor vehicle in intrastate commerce or (4) tends unnecessarily to increase the number of motor freight vehicles operating on the public highways beyond that required adequately to meet the transportation needs of the public to the detriment of the general public use of and interest in the public highways the commission may determine prescribe and order the minimum rate or charge thereafter to be made charged imposed or collected by such carrier All complaints shall state fully the facts complained of and the reasons for such complaint and shall be made under oath Whenever in its judgment the commission is of opinion that any complaint does not state reasonable grounds for investigation and action on its part it may in its discretion dismiss such complaint

The eleventh section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 11 (a) Every private carrier shall file quarterly with the Commission statements under oath showing the names and addresses of the persons for whom it transported property and the general description of property so transported for each person during the preceding three (3) months period it being the express legislative intent to require such information for the purpose of assisting the commission in its determination of whether the carrier in question is conducting a private carrier or common carrier business Whenever requested by the Commission a private carrier shall also furnish it with such other information as may be relevant to the question of whether such carrier is conducting a private or common carrier business

(b) The transportation for more than two persons by any carrier for hire by freight motor vehicle shall be prima facie evidence that such carrier is operating as a common carrier

(c) No application for a permit to operate as a private carrier shall be granted by the commission to any person operating as a common carrier by freight motor vehicle nor shall any certificate of public convenience such as is granted under the Public Service Company Law of this Commonwealth be granted by the commission to any person operating as a private carrier nor shall any freight motor vehicle be operated nor any person operate under both a certificate and a permit

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 11 (b), page 10, line 7, by adding the following proviso: Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the operation of a freight motor vehicle by a farmer carrying his own milk and produce together with the milk and produce or milk or produce of other farmers from the farms to the nearest transportation terminal or market.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has the great honor of presenting to you General Shannon in his new capacity.

GENERAL SHANNON. My comrades of the Senate, I do not believe that you can possibly realize my feelings at this time. As a young fellow forty-four years ago, on the 10th of next month, I enlisted as a private soldier in the Pennsylvania National Guard, never dreaming, at that time, what might happen to my service in that force. To the best of my ability, as an American citizen, I have endeavored to play the game as a soldier man all through these years, and what has happened here this morning is an example of what might happen to any young man in this great Commonwealth, when the Senate of this great State approves the nomination of His Excellency the Governor for me to command the Pennsylvania Army.

It was most gracious of the Governor to send this nomination in; and the only thing I can say to you this morning is that I appreciate his courtesy in the matter, and that you have been most gracious in making it unanimous, and in stepping aside from the ordinary course of the rules of this body and approving the nomination.

For the few short months I have to serve as commanding officer of the Pennsylvania forces I shall endeavor to carry out the work as it has been done in the past, and whatever honor comes to me in that capacity will be an honor for the State of Pennsylvania.

I wish I could tell you how much I appreciate what you have done here in my service with you. You have been most gracious. The service has been service in a more or less long life of public service. We are a happy family, and I assure you that in years to come I will look back on this term of service as one of the happiest periods of my life. Thank you very, very much.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

ADJOURNMENT

OUT OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF HONORABLE WALTER LYON

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn out of respect to the memory of the late Honorable Walter Lyon, former Lieutenant-Governor of the Commonwealth and a former member of this Senate.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The Senate adjourned, at 12.29 p. m., until Monday evening, March 27th, at 9 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, March 22, 1933.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner offered the following prayer:

O God, Thou hast folded back the mantle of the night, and clothed us in the golden glory of the day: If there remains any darkness or gloom in our hearts, may the brightness of hope illumine us.

We thank Thee for this new day, with fresh opportunities of work and service.

Grant to these Thy servants, and the people's—vision, courage and power commensurate with their responsibilities. Grant to them right judgment in all things.

May the tradition of this House ever be—old-fashioned in principles, up-to-date in information and ideas, and ahead of the times in ideals. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. O'Keefe, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to report a bill from the Committee on Appropriations with some slight explanation. This, Ladies and Gentlemen, is the Relief Appropriation Bill, carrying an appropriation in the sum of two million dollars to take care of relief for the two months of April and May of this biennium.

Mr. STEEDLE, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1590, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief and work relief.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Mr. STEEDLE asked and obtained unanimous consent to have House Bill No. 1590 read for the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1590, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief and work relief.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

REQUESTING DATA RELATIVE TO EMPLOYEES OF STATE EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD

Mr. WELSH offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, March 21, 1933.

Whereas, Much criticism is heard of the expenses attended to the distribution of relief funds of the Commonwealth to and among unemployed persons; and

Whereas, It is rumored that excessive salaries are paid to persons who assist in the administration of relief funds; and

Whereas, If such criticism is justified, it should be known so that proper measures can be adopted to prevent its continuation, and if unture the criticism can best be stopped by a revelation of the actual amounts spent for salaries and wages; therefore be it

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board is hereby requested to furnish to this House not later than April first, a complete list of all persons employed in any capacity in the distribution of relief funds to the unemployed, together with their addresses and the amount of compensation paid to them, the service performed and the time devoted to such service; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be immediately sent to the State Emergency Relief Board by the Chief Clerk of this House.

RESOLUTION No. 50

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to call up Resolution No. 50, Printer's No. 258.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 21, 1933.

Be It Resolved That Rule Thirty of the House which reads as follows "Each committee shall have full power over the bill resolution or other paper committed to it except that the committee cannot change the title or subject nor amendments adopted by the House" is hereby amended to read "Each committee shall have full power over the bill resolution or other paper committed to it except that the committee cannot change the subject nor amendments adopted by the House"

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I just want to say a word in explanation of this resolution which eminates from the Rules Committee.

It changes Rule No. 30 by deleting the word "title" and thus enables a committee to change the bill in committee as to the title, as long, of course, as the subject is not affected—that cannot be changed, according to the provisions of the Constitution Article III, Section 1, but by the adoption of this change in the rules it will enable the committees to change titles, which heretofore and under the present practice can only be done upon the floor of the House, and which results in an extra printing of the bill. This is a change in the Rule in the interest of economy, and also celerity in the passing of bills.

I ask you, therefore, to vote for the adoption of the resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

By a rising vote of one hundred and forty-eight to none the resolution was adopted.

SUGGESTING LEGISLATION TO TAX REAL PROPERTY OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

Mr. HARMUTH offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, March 22, 1933.

Whereas, During the boom period, there was a rapid increase in taxation which was absorbed by the taxpayers without complaint; and

Whereas, The economic depression has cut the income of our citizens, but there has not been a corresponding reduction in taxes, due in large measure to the fixed charges which have been saddled on government; and

Whereas, It is imperative that relief be granted to the owner of real estate from the unjust burden of taxation and that the burden be more equally distributed; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Ways and Means Committee be directed to prepare and have introduced in the House of Representatives, a bill to enable local governments to tax the real property of public utilities now exempt from taxation not by statute but by decisions of the courts.

REQUESTING SUMMARIES OF AUDITS FROM AUDITOR GENERAL

Mr. STERLING offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 22, 1933.

Resolved, That the Auditor General shall transmit from time to time, as and when completed, summaries of audits made by his department of the expenditures by political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor, of funds appropriated under the provisions of the Act No. 7-E, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1503), entitled "An act making an appropriation under the police power and as a governmental duty to the Department of Welfare for State aid to political subdivisions charged by law with the care of the poor, and providing for the allocation and use of the moneys so appropriated," and that said statements upon presentation to the House of Representatives shall be printed in the Legislative Journal.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Auditor General, by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BRENNAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BRENNAN. Mr. Speaker, in the Legislative Journal of March 6, on page 948, I am recorded as voting "no" on Senate Bill No. 52, House Bill No. 969, which is not correct. I voted "aye" on this bill and with your permission I would like to have that correction made in the next issue of the Legislative Journal.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION

MALT BEVERAGE CONTROL BILLS TO BE COMMITTED TO SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Mr. SOWERS asked unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows

In the House of Representatives, March 22, 1933.

Whereas, This House by resolution No. 24, Serial No. 39, Printer's No. 57, appointed a Committe to draft a bill to regulate liquor control, and on Monday last amended the resolution substantially creating the Committee to draft, consider, amend, and hold public hearings on all liquor control bills, and for the said Committee to better and more efficiently function all liquor control bills ought to be referred to it for consideration, and action as is done and practiced by the Committees of the House.

Now, therefore be it resolved by the House of Representatives that all Bills on the subject of liquor control be referred to the said special committee appointed by the Speaker for consideration and action in conformity to the usual practice of committees of the House.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the introduction of the resolution at this time? Is there objection?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is whether that can be done under the rules of the House.

The SPEAKER. The resolution would not be retroactive. It will apply to future bills on the liquor question.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and unanimous consent is not granted.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair has been informed by the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau that due to the fact that tomorrow is the last day for the filing of bills, his office and office force are swamped with bills, and with requests from members that the bills be ready for filing tomorrow. The Director informs the Chair that this is physically impossible.

If there is no objection the Chair will rule that all legislation that has been placed in the hands of the Legislative Reference Bureau shall be considered as being filed, in order to afford an opportunity for the Bureau to typewrite these bills. The bills will then be filed with the Chief Clerk and the members who are sponsoring the bills can sign them on Monday when they return.

Does the Chair hear any objections to the ruling? The Chair hears none and the ruling of the Chair will be carried out as suggested.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1220, entitled:

An Act to amend section ten of an act approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred sixty-eight) entitled "An act providing for the establishment of a State Highway Department, by the appointment of a State Highway Commissioner, two Deputy State Highway Commissioners, chief engineer, chief draughtsman, superintendents of highways, and a staff of assistants and employes; defining their duties and the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and fixing salaries of commissioner and deputies and other appointees; providing for taking over from the counties or townships of the Commonwealth certain existing public roads connecting county-seats; principal cities, and towns and extending to the State line; describing and defining same by route numbers as the State Highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the improvement, maintenance and repair of said State Highways solely at the expense of the Commonwealth, and relieving the several townships or counties from any further obligation and expense to improve or maintain the same, and relieving said townships or counties of authority over same; requiring boroughs and incorporated towns to maintain certain State Highways wholly and in part; requiring the State Highway Commissioner to make maps to be complete records thereof; conferring authority on the State Highway Commissioner; providing for the payment of damages in taking of property, or otherwise, in the improvement thereof; providing for purchase or acquiring of turnpikes or toll-roads forming all or part of any State Highway, and procedure therein; providing for work of improvement of State Highways to be done by contract, except where the State Highway Commissioner decides the work be done by the State; providing aid by the State to counties and townships desiring the same in the improvement of township or county roads; defining highways and State-aid highways; providing method of application for State aid in the improvement, maintenance and repair of township, or county roads and prescribing the contents of township, county, borough, or incorporated town petitions, providing for percentage of cost of improvement or repairs to be paid by State, county, township, borough, or incorporated town requiring contracts by counties, townships, boroughs and incorporated town with Commonwealth governing same; providing for the minimum width of State Highways and State-aid highways, and kind of materials to be used in the improvement; providing for payment of cost of improvement and repairs; providing penalty for injuring or destroying State Highways; making appropriations to carry out the provisions of the act; and providing for the repeal of certain acts relating to Highway Department and improvement of roads, and of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and providing that existing contracts are not affected by provisions of this act," as amended, relieving boroughs and incorporated towns from the responsibility for maintenance of highways and bridges under the control of the Department of Highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 10 This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and its approval by the Governor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, these six bills represent the educational program as prepared and presented to the committee and sent out from the committee with their endorsement. I very reluctantly move to put these bills on the postponed calendar. But gentlemen in whom I have a lot of confidence have come to me and urged me to do this and I am bound to follow their advice.

Personally, I have enough of confidence in my colleagues in this House, not that they will vote for this program, but that they will have courage enough to vote as their consciences and convictions tell them to vote.

If these were my bills, and my bills alone, I would put them on the calendar this morning for final passage. I am satisfied that when the members of this House realize the work and the energy that has been put back of this, the time and the attention that the committee and the sub-committee of the Senate and the House have given to this legislation, that there would be votes enough in this House to pass it. I am urged to do what I am doing and I am yielding to the advice of those in the House in whom I have confidence.

I am going to call these bills up and present them to the House. I tell you now that this is your program; this is the program that the committee and the sub-committee have built up, and we think it is the only program that we can make with the material that we have in front of us.

It was not my desire nor was it my wish to build a program like this, nor is it the wish of the fine committee I have the honor to be chairman of. We would like to make up a program that would give more money to the schools and build them up, and I know that that is the wish of every member of this House. It is necessary in order that this matter may be properly considered that these bills be postponed for the present and I will make motions, one after the other for the postponement of the other bills, but when I do it, I do it most reluctantly. In doing it I feel that I owe the House an apology, because I know that the members of this House will vote according to the way they think they ought to vote regardless of the telegrams and messages and letters and the interests that are deluging this House in an effort to get the members to vote in a way that will be for their personal interest and not in the way that will be for the interest of the Commonwealth and its needs.

I have confidence in the members of this House and I feel they will vote, when the time comes, as they ought to vote. Mr. Speaker, I make this motion very reluctantly.

On the question recurring?

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1386, as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the eigtheenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local of any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended temporarily reducing the reimbursement by the Commonwealth to school districts for salaries of full-time members of the teaching and supervisory staffs for salaries of the teaching and supervisory staffs engaged in special education for closed schools and for the transportation of pupils

The provisions of this section however shall not be construed as affecting the fifteen per centum contained in said section one thousand four hundred six as amended for computing the charge of depreciation and repairs of district owned school conveyances

Section 6 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and its approval by the Governor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1374, as follows:

An Act relating to the minimum salaries and annual increments of the teaching and supervisory staffs of the public schools granting power to the State Council of Education to permit as to certain school districts temporary reductions in the salary schedules authorizing the State Council of Education to suspend mandatory provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintaining the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" and of its amendments and supplements prohibiting school districts from demanding requesting or accepting gifts or donations from members of the teaching and supervisory staffs and empowering the Superintendent of Public Instruction to forfeit certain State subsidies for violations thereof relating to the effect of payment of salaries which are less than those prescribed by salary schedules and temporarily superseding any inconsistent acts and parts of acts

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Definitions The following terms shall be construed in this act to have the following meanings

1 "Teacher or supervisor" A member of the teaching or supervisory staff or other appointee of any school district to whom any statutory minimum salary schedule shall be applicable

2 "Salary schedule" A schedule of minimum basic salaries plus required increments prescribed by any Act of Assembly for the payment of salaries of teachers or supervisors

Section 2 Re-employed Teachers and Supervisors During the period in which this act shall be in effect no school district shall be required to pay to any teacher or supervisor who during the year preceding the effective date of this act shall have been in its employ or who during such year shall have been in the employ of any school district whose territory shall wholly or in part comprise such district any salary or compensation at a rate greater than ninety per centum of the minimum amount which such teacher or supervisor would have been entitled to receive under the salary schedule if he or she had entered the employ of such district immediately prior to the effective date of this act

Section 3 New Teachers and Supervisors During the period in which this act shall be in effect no school district shall be required to pay to any teacher or supervisor who during the year preceding the effective date of this act was not employed by such school district or by a district whose territory shall wholly or in part comprise such district any salary or compensation at a rate greater than ninety per centum of the minimum amount which such teacher or supervisor would have been entitled to receive under the salary schedule if he or she had entered the employ of such district immediately prior to the effective date of this act

Section 4 Additional Reductions When the board of school directors of any school district shall present to the Superintendent of Public Instruction evidence which shall convince him that the district does not and will not have sufficient funds to pay the salaries required by the salary schedule as modified by the foregoing provisions of this act or that the payment of the salaries of the schedule as thus modified would be unreasonably oppressive upon the school district the Superintendent of Public Instruction may for such district and for the period during which this act shall be in effect reduce the percentage herein provided from ninety to a percentage which he shall deem to be just and reasonable for that district

In lieu of or in addition to thus reducing the above percentage the Superintendent of Public Instruction may as to any such district and for such period suspend any provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" and of its amendments and supplements when such provisions require and make mandatory any action by the school district or its board of school directors

Section 5 Effect of Payment of Salaries Which Are Less Than Those Prescribed by Salary Schedule There shall be no deduction from the amount to be paid by the Commonwealth to a school district as a partial reimbursement for the salary or compensation of any teacher or supervisor because the district pays such person any time during the biennium beginning on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-three a smaller salary or compensation than is prescribed for such person by the salary schedule so long as the amount which the district pays is not less than the amount permitted by the provisions of this act or than that allowed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in pursuance of the provisions of this act

Section 6 Prohibition Against Demanding Requesting or Accepting Gifts or Donations During the period in which this act shall be in effect it shall be unlawful for any board of school directors to demand request or accept directly or indirectly any gift or donation from any teacher or supervisor within its employ

Section 7 Forfeiture of Subsidies When during the period during which this act shall be in effect the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be of the opinion that any school district shall have violated the provisions of this act by demanding requesting or accepting any gift or donation from one or more teachers or supervisors he shall subject to the restrictions herein provided have the power to declare forfeited for the then current school year any State subsidy which is to be paid to the district as a partial reimbursement of the salary of each such teacher or supervisor

Before declaring any such forfeiture as to any school district the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall mail to the board of school directors of the district a statement setting forth the alleged violations and the names of the one or more teachers or supervisors from whom the gifts or donations are alleged to have been demanded requested or accepted The statement shall be accompanied by a notice stating that unless a denial of such allegations verified by the affidavit of the president or secretary of the board is received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction within fifteen days he will declare a forfeiture as to such subsidy for each such teacher or supervisor If such a denial shall not be received within such fifteen days the Superintendent of Public Instruction may declare such one or more forfeitures

If such a denial shall be received the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall conduct a hearing to determine whether or not there have been any such violations He shall give reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing to the board of school directors of the district and at the hearing shall give the board the right to be heard and to be represented by counsel

If after the hearing the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be of the opinion that one or more of the violation set forth in the statement which he shall have sent to the board as herein provided did actually occur he may as herein provided forfeit the subsidies to be paid to the district as a partial reimbursement for the salary of each teacher or supervisor listed in such statement from whom in his opinion the district or its representatives shall have demanded requested or accepted a gift or donation

Section 8 Impairment of Contracts Nothing in this act shall be construed as impairing the obligation of any contract made before the effective date of this act

Section 9 Constitutional Construction The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decisions of the court as to those provisions shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this act would have been adopted by the General Assembly had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 10 Effective Date Period During which Act Shall be Effective This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and its approval by the Governor and shall remain in effect until the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

Section 11 Inconsistent Provisions All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby superseded for the period during which this act shall be in effect

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

It was agreed to.

NAYS—2

Cannon, O'Connor,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, your committee appointed to draft malt beverage control legislation has performed its duty, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Conner, and I sponsor the measure and I now offer it. I ask that it be referred back to the Committee under the terms of the resolution.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EMHARDT, from the Committee on Insurance, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1729 (Senate Bill No. 639), entitled

An Act relating to insurance companies exchanges associations societies orders and individuals under the supervision of the Insurance Department authorizing the Insurance Commissioner during the existing emergency to suspend laws relating to certain payments by insurers and to impose conditions upon the conduct of the business of insurance and providing penalties.

RESOLUTION

MALT BEVERAGE CONTROL BILLS TO BE COMMITTED TO SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Mr. SOWERS asked unanimous consent to offer a resolution and asked that it lie over for printing, which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 22, 1933.

Whereas, This House by Resolution No. 24, Serial No. 39, Printer's No. 57, appointed a Committee to draft a bill to regulate liquor control, and on Monday last amended the resolution substantially creating the Committee to draft, consider, amend, and hold public hearings on all liquor control bills, and for the said Committee to better and more efficiently function all liquor control bills ought to be referred to it for consideration, and action as is done and practiced by the other Committees of the House.

Now, therefore be it resolved by the House of Representatives that all bills on the subject of liquor control be referred to the said special committee appointed by the Speaker for consideration and action in conformity to the usual practice of committees of the House.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the introduction of the resolution at this time? Are there objections?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I object.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I understand from the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, that he has no objection to the introduction of the resolution, and I have not asked that it be given immediate consideration. I ask that it lie over for printing.

The SPEAKER. The question before the House was would it give unanimous consent to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, to offer the resolution? The Chair heard objection from the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I insist upon that objection.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and unanimous consent is not granted.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1371, Printer's No. 213, on page 17 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 180

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 22, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 180, Printer's No. 85, entitled, "An Act authorizing townships of the first class to fund floating indebedness orders or indebtedness of any previous year or years or carried over from any previous year or years or indebtedness evidenced by any outstanding note or notes now existing and now due or hereafter to become due by the issuance and sale of bonds obligations or certificates and regulating the manner of the issuance and sale of such bonds obligations or certificates."

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1027

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 22, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1027, Printer's No. 116, entitled "An Act to ratify confirm and make valid certain contracts entered into by the supervisors of townships of the second class."

This bill would validate certain township road contracts which appear to have been regular and proper in every respect except that they were entered into without previous formal action of the board of supervisors. Subsequently, however, the supervisors, at a regular meeting, adopted a resolution approving and ratifying the contracts.

If this was the only irregularity in the inception of the contracts, it was not only curable but was, in fact, cured by the ratifying resolution of the supervisors. No validating legislation is needed for such a case.

On the other hand, if the bill is designed to avoid the consequences of other irregularities which are not disclosed, it is improper.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I move the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1933 — 130th of the General Assembly

Vol. 15 — HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1933. — No. 36

THURSDAY, March 23, 1933.

The House met at 10.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer.

Dear Heavenly Father, shed forth Thy blessed spirit, richly upon the Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House this morning. Make each member an instrument in Thy hands for the good of the Commonwealth.

Oni has said, "my strength is as the strength of ten, because my heart is pure." Dear Lord, purify our hearts, make us strong in mind and body, that we break not under the tremendous strain and pressure of urgent tasks

Supported by Thee, we can stand unmoved as an oak in the storm, or rock in the flood.

Vouchsafe Thy peace to rest upon us this day and every day; sweeten our trials, cheer us in our work, keep us faithful to the high trust reposed in us, and finally crown our labors with success. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on the motion of Mr. Lord, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

REMARKS EXPUNGED FROM RECORD

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, referring to the Malina episode of yesterday's session, and in order to entirely clear the record, I move at this time that the remarks of the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, and the rejoinder of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Malina, also be expunged from the record.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTIONS

PETITIONING BOARD OF PARDONS TO PARDON PERSONS CONVICTED OF VOLSTEAD VIOLATIONS

Mr. SOWERS offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Whereas, The Federal Congress has by proper action submitted to the several state the question of the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment; and

Whereas, Federal Congress is about to enact a law declaring beer of increased alcoholic content to be non-intoxicating; and

Whereas, The majority of the citizens of this Commonwealth have indicated clearly by their support of candidates at elections, their disapproval of the enforcement of the liquor laws in so far as beer is concerned; and

Whereas, Numbers of residents of this Commonwealth are at present incarcerated, being convicted of manufacture, sale or possession of beer alone; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives respectively petition the Board of Pardons and His Excellency, the Governor, that the Board shall recommend and the Governor shall pardon, all persons who are undergoing imprisonment by reason of having been convicted in any court of this Commonwealth of the manufacture, possession or sale of beer alone; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall upon its pasasge, transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of this Commonwealth and to the Board of Pardons.

MALT BEVERAGE LEGISLATION TO BE REFERRED TO SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Mr. SOWERS and Mr. CONNOR offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 22, 1933.

Whereas, This House by resolution No. 24, Serial No. 39, Printer's No. 57, appointed a Committe to draft a bill to regulate liquor control, and on Monday last amended the resolution substantially creating the Committee to draft, consider, amend, and hold public hearings on all liquor control bills, and for the said Committee to better and more efficiently function all liquor control bills ought to be referred to it for consideration, and action as is done and practiced by the Committees of the House.

Now, therefore be it resolved by the House of Representatives that all Bills on the subject of liquor control be referred to the said special committee appointed by the Speaker for consideration and action in conformity to the usual practice of committees of the House.

BILL INTRODUCED

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, your committee on liquor control has drafted the balance of the bills, and as sponsor I offer them and ask that they be referred back to the Committee.

The SPEAKER. The bills will be filed with the Bill Clerk.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 70 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. BAKER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 70, entitled "An act to amend sections sixty-nine and seventy-one of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws five hundred ninety-four), entitled 'An act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act' by increasing the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

EXTENDING TIME FOR INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

Mr. HUTTON from the Committee on Rules offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Resolved, That notwithstanding the provisions of House Resolution of March 13, 1933, Serial No. 70, the last day for the introduction of bills for raising revenue (including taxes, license fees and any other form of income), in the House of Representatives, shall be Thursday, March 30, 1933.

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE LIQUIDATION OF BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

Mr. MALINA offered the following resolution, which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Whereas, A number of Building and Loan Associations are now under the control of the Banking Department of the State for liquidation and

Whereas, They have been for a long period of time in the said Department without being liquidated and stockholders in the said Associations are therefore at great loss and

Whereas, Practices have been indulged in by the Department of Banking in the selection of Attorneys and receivers for the said Associations who have been charging large fees for their services and

Whereas, The maintenance, management and control of the said Associations are costing the stockholders in the said associations unnecessarily large sums of money and

Whereas, It is believed that the said Associations have been placed under the control of certain individuals for political reasons and

Whereas, A large number of the Associations are still dominated and controlled even though under the control of the Banking Department by former Directors of the Associations who have wrecked and dissipated their assets and

Whereas, It would seem for the good and protection of the assets of the Association to the advantage of the stockholders that the same be investigated, Now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee of seven, four of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House and three by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate for the purpose of investigating the conditions generally as to the management and liquidation of the Building and Loan Associations in the hands of the Banking Department for liquidation for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of the long delay in liquidation; the reasons why officers formerly in control of the Associations are still retained by the Banking Department; why large sums of money are expended for attorneys fees; why a large amount of money is expended unnecessarily for maintenance and operation instead of liquidation; why political influences are allowed by the Department to dominate and control the present management and liquidation of the Associations; why said Associations have not been liquidated by the Department and be it further

Resolved, That this Committee be authorized and empowered to compel the attendance of all witnesses necessary to the proper investigation and the production of all records both of the Banking Department, Building and Loan Associations and all other records and report to the next Legislature the result of its findings together with any suggested Legislation to be proposed for enactment of laws to correct and remedy the same.

RESOLUTION NO. 51

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 51, Printer's No. 288.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 21, 1933.

Whereas, Much criticism is heard of the expenses attended to the distribution of relief funds of the Commonwealth to and among unemployed persons; and

Whereas, It is rumored that excessive salaries are paid to persons who assist in the administration of relief funds; and

Whereas, If such criticism is justified, it should be known so that proper measures can be adopted to prevent its continuation, and if unture the criticism can best be stopped by a revelation of the actual amounts spent for salaries and wages; therefore be it

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board is hereby requested to furnish to this House not later than April first, a complete list of all persons employed in any capacity in the distribution of relief funds to the unemployed, together with their addresses and the amount of compensation paid to them, the service performed and the time devoted to such service; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be immediately sent to the State Emergency Relief Board by the Chief Clerk of this House.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the resolution in my judgment is covered by the Blumberg Resolution, to which the Governor has already responded I therefore ask that the House vote down this resolution.

Mr. QUINN. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, this resolution is of vital importance in view of the fact that an outstanding citizen of Washington County, a Mr. Arthur Sweeney, who is the editor and publisher of Westmoreland Tribune and who is chairman of the relief association in his county, has made very serious charges which have been published in the newspapers of this State, in which he charged the functioning of that organization was practically a racket. This charge was made in connection with his resignation submitted to the Governor of this State. In that charge, if my memory serves me aright, he said the operating expenses, the matter of salaries in the Westmoreland County organization was $91,000 a month. I remember vividly that the salary list given for my own county of Allegheny is $100,000 a month. These charges were never denied.

I want to tell you briefly something of my own experience in connection with the functioning of that organization which has its headquarters in my county directly opposite my office. This organization is headed by a woman who is credited with receiving a salary of four hundred dollars a month. I have personally visited these headquarters fourteen different times in an effort to get matters straightened out for some deserving people. I was treated with utter contempt and with insolence of the most brazen kind. This organization is conducted by a lot of girls, none of whom are residents of that community. They come to these headquarters at very late hours in the morning and leave there at very early hours in the afternoon. It is a social proposition in everything that that word "social" means. They are highly dressed. they are very nicely upholstered, and you would imagine that they were attending an afternoon tea rather than dealing with the alleviation of human misery. It is commonly understood that they receive salaries ranging from two hundred to three hundred dollars a month, and it is necessary, I understand, to have a university education to be qualified as one of these investigators. In other words, it is necessary before you are qualified to give to a suffering human being a loaf of bread, that you must understand what an archipelago is.

Citizens of my community who are just as good citizens as you and I are, and better perhaps, have under my own observations been treated with the utmost contempt and disregard of their need. Some of them finally got into the office of the adjuster and there they were told that their cases will be investigated, and somewhere, I believe, in the dim distant furture they will be, but certainly they will not be in the year 1933, the way this organization is functioning.

I put this matter up to one gentleman whom I presumed to be one of their officials in Pittsburgh, and I got a long lengthy telephone conversation, that afternoon while there was surrounding that headquarters a crowd of fifteen hundred people seeking aid. This crowd startd in the town of Rankin as a hunger march of some two hundred people and grew to about fifteen hundred which finally made a demand on headquarters for help. The sheriff sent out half a dozen deputies. The police tried to quiet them but it lookd serious for a while. I got a lot of conversation in my attempt to explain all of this to that organization with principal headquarters in Pittsburgh and heard a lot of words.

Ladies and gentlemen of this House. I think it is only fit and proper that we know whether this money is being spent for salaries and how, or whether it is being made a racket in human misery. I cannot for the life of me conceive why any person, if they have nothing to be ashamed of, why they should fail to tell the members of this House, where their money and the people's money of this State is being spent, whether it is being spent on human welfare among the deserving men and women—decent, upright American citizens—whether it is being spent for the relief of human conditions, shelter, food and clothing, whether it is spent for that, or whether it is being spent for salaries. I ask you as decent American citizens, let us know the facts, give us the light and we will know.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentlemn from Franklin, Mr. Hutton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman intimated that these same matters pertaining to this resolution were covered by the Blumberg resolution.

Mr. HUTTON. I so understood.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, that resolution is serial No. 21, Resolution No. 9, Printer's No. 15.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I have read the resolution.

Mr. COHEN. In that resolution it says 'before the fifteenth of February, a report should be made;' is that correct?

Mr. HUTTON. I believe so.

Mr. COHEN. Has that report been made?

Mr. HUTTON. I understand it has.

Mr. COHEN. Has it been given to the House?

Mr. HUTTON. I understand so.

Mr. COHEN. Where will we find that in the record?

Mr. HUTTON. That ought to be with Mr. Blumberg.

Mr. COHEN. The resolution says that it will be furnished to the House and the Senate. Has that information been furnished?

Mr. HUTTON. I understand it has and that that information is available.

Mr. COHEN. Apparently it has not.

Mr. Speaker, apparently the House has not been furnished with that information according to the Blumberg Resolution No. 9, Printer's No. 15. If any member or officer of the House has that information, the members of the House ought to have it, and I can see no reason why we should not accentuate the fact that we desire that information by passing the resolution before the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the House, that the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, is in error, and the requirements of the resolution have not been met by His Excellency the Governor.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

MOTON TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 65 Pink, introduced on the 9th day of January, 1933, and on the 9th day of January, 1933, referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments, and having remained in the hands of that committee for more than ten days, that the same committee be discharged from further consideration of said House Bill, and the bill be placed upon the calendar for action by the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Philadelphia to inform him, according to his motion, it is seconded by Mr. Schwartz and that is crossed out, is that correct?

Mr. SOWERS. No. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Long seconded the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

MOTON TO MAKE MOTION A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move you that the motion be made a special order of business for Monday evening next at 10 o'clock.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, that memorial services have been arranged for 10 o'clock Monday evening.

Mr. SOWERS. 11.20 P. M. then, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is further informed that six bills have been made a special order of business for 11 o'clock P. M. Monday.

Mr. SOWERS. Then 10.30 P. M., if the Speaker please. I will change my motion to read then 11.30 P. M.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, that it is indefinite as to the time the House will take on the six bills which are on special order of business for 11 o'clock P. M. Therefore, if we were in business under the special order on the six bills, the motion could not be effective. It is rather unfortunate that the time is consumed as it is, while the Chair has no suggestion to make to the gentleman, it probably better be delayed until after the six bills are out of the way that are under special order.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I will make that 9.30 P. M. It is only a matter of a roll call.

The SPEAKER. The Chair further desires to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, that it is the desire of the Speaker, who sponsored the relief bill, that that might be made a special order for 9.30. That request has not been made yet, because the bill has not passed second reading. If the gentleman desires the Speaker to give up that plan, he will be glad to do so.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to interfere with your plans, and therefore I make it 12 o'clock midnight.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that the Chair has announced his decision that the noes have it.

The Chair is desirous of informing the members what business is before the House. The Chair stated after the vote that the noes appeared to have it, the noes have it. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, then asked for a roll call. The motion was defeated when the Chair declared that the noes have it, before the Speaker heard the gentleman's demand for a roll call.

MOTION MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move you that the motion be made a special order of business for 11 o'clock A. M. on Tuesday.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Sowers and Mr. Hoopes.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, that the rules of the House provide that the session shall start at 11.00 o'clock. If the motion would prevail it would mean that we would not officially open the session on Tuesday morning, March 28th. Does the gentleman desire to change the time?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would change the time from 11.00 o'clock to 11.30 o'clock A. M.

Mr. SPEAKER, if it meets with the approval of my friend from Berks, who seconded the demand for the roll call, I am satisfied to withdraw that and have it decided by a standing vote.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, acquiesce.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, on the request of Mr. Sowers, I will withdraw my request.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion.

It was agreed to.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 67, pink, introduced on the 9th day of January, 1933, and on the 9th day of January, 1933, referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments, and having remained in the hands of that committee for more than ten days, that the said committee be discharged from further consideration of said House Bill, and the bill be placed upon the calendar for action by the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

MOTION MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move you that the motion be made a special order of business for Tuesday next at 11.45 A. M.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE LIQUIDATION OF BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES

Mr. MALINA offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Whereas, A large number of banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies have been placed under the control of the Department of Banking of the State for liquidation; and

Whereas, Some of the said banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies have been in the hands of the Department of Banking for liquidation for over a period of two years with no final or complete liquidation occurring; and

Whereas, Very small percentage have been paid to the depositors of the said banks, banking institution and Trust Companies in satisfaction of their deposits; and

Whereas, A great deal of costs have been entailed in the payment of interest on mortgages, maintenance of offices, taxes, on property, custodian costs, attorney fees and a list of other costs which eventually will be borne by the depositors and deducted from their accounts; and

Whereas, There seems inadequate legislation remedies to overcome delays in liquidation; and

Whereas, It would seem that a more definite, comprehensive and speedy liquidation for the benefit of saving the accounts of depositors in said banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies employed and should be legislative for; and

Whereas, Effectiveness and thoroughness of banking inspectors of the Department of banking seem to be inadequate and lacking in thoroughness in the investigation of the accounts of banks prior to liquidation; and

Whereas, Large amounts of moneys have been withdrawn from banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies a few day prior to them being taken over by the Banking Department; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a Committee of seven four of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House and three by the President pro tempore of the Senate for the purpose of investigating the conditions generally as to the banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies in process of liquidation under the control of the Banking Department, for the purpose of ascertaining the necessity of postponing final liquidation for such a long period; as to why such small amounts of percentages are paid to depositors; as to the necessity of the large amount of costs paid for maintenance of offices, interest on mortgages, taxes on property, custodian costs and large and execessive attorney fees reducing amounts to be paid depositors; the adequacy of the bank examiners and the thoroughness of their examinations of banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies; and as to why large sums of money were permitted to be withdrawn from banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies within a few days prior to them being taken over by the Banking Department; and be it further

Resolved, That this Committee be authorized and empowered to compel the attendance of all witnesses necessary to the proper investigation and the production of all records both of the Banking Department and of the banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies in liquidation and report to the next Legislature the result of its findings together with the suggested Legislation to be proposed for enactment of law to correct and remedy the same.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Mr. MALINA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary procedure.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary procedure.

Mr. MALINA. Mr. Speaker, in that resolution there seems to be a typographical error. It says the President Pro Tempore is to appoint two, it should be three. Could that be corrected at the rostrum, or does there have to be a new resolution drawn.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desire to inform the gentleman on his question of parliamentary procedure that the Chair is returning the resolution to the gentleman's desk and he will have the privilege of changing and returning it.

The resolution lies over under the rules.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 962, as follows:

An Act relating to judicial sales of real estate the credits to be given upon obligations on account of certain sales and giving the right of subrogation to mortgagors in the event of certain sales

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where real estate shall be levied upon under any writ of execution and the execution creditor shall directly or indirectly in whole or in part become the purchaser thereof at a price which at the time of sale clearly does not equal the fair value of such real estate the execution debtor shall be entitled to such credit on account of his obligation as the court shall find to be fair and just

Section 2 In all cases where real estate not described in any mortgage given to secure the payment of the obligation for the payment of which executon is issued is levied upon and advertised for sale upon any writ of execution and it shall appear to the Court that the fair value of the real estate levied upon is in excess of the obligation with interest and costs the Court shall have the power to control the sale thereof so that the execution debtor shall receive such credit upon his obligation where the execution creditor shall be the purchaser directly or indirectly in whole or in part as the Court shall determine to be fair and just and only so much of such real estate shall be sold as shall be necessary to fully secure the payment of the obligation with interest and costs

Section 3 In all cases where a mortgagor shall have parted with title to real estate subject to the mortgage and thereafter execution shall issue for the collection of the obligation secured by such mortgage and property of the mortgagor other than that described in the mortgage shall be levied upon and sold the obligation of the mortgage as against the mortgaged property shall not be reduced or affected and the mortgagor shall be subrogated to the rights of the mortgagee in such mortgage to the extent of the price for which the property of the mortgagor was sold or the credit to which the court shall have determined he is entitled as hereinbefore provided Provided however that the rights of the mortgagee remaining in such mortgage shall be superior and prior to any right in the mortgagor

And provided further that in the event the mortgaged property or part thereof shall after such right of subrogation has arisen be levied upon and sold for the obligation secured by the mortgage and the execution creditor shall become the purchaser thereof directly or indirectly in whole or in part the Court shall have power to enter such judgment or decree or to make such charge against such real estate as shall be right and just and shall protect the right of subrogation herein given

Section 4 Whenever it shall appear to the Court at any time that the provisions of this Act have been evaded the Court shall have power to enter and enforce such judgment order or decree as shall be necessary to secure and protect the rights herein given or to assess proper damages in favor of the person injured by such evasion

Section 5 In any proceeding wherein the execution debtor can or may avail himself of the privileges or rights granted by this Act the execution creditor shall have the right prior to the sale of said real estate reasonable notice having been

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of amendment

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1543, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws ninety-two) entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by venders as herein defined prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax and providing penalties" extending the period for payment of part of the tax

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section five of the act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws ninety-two) entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors as herein defined prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax and providing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 5 Assessment and Payment of Tax Every vendor at the time of making the return required under section four shall compute and pay to the department the tax due to the Commonwealth by him for the preceding six months' period The amount of all taxes imposed under the provisions of this act shall be due and payable at the time the return for such six months period is required to be filed with the department by this act Provided however That any vendor may on or before the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three pay one-half of such tax concurrently with the filing of such report and may pay the remaining one-half of the said tax in a single instalment on or before the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three but the amount of the tax not paid on or before the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum until the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three and twelve per centum per annum thereafter

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 12, by striking out the word "May" and insert in lieu thereof "April."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to as follows:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the nineteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (P. L. 92), entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties"; extending the period for payment of part of the tax.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 92, entitled:

An Act permitting fishing on Sunday with one rod and two hooks and fixing penalties

The first section was read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That it shall be lawful for any person subject to the observance of other provisions of the laws of this Commonwealth relating to fishing to fish on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday No person fishing on Sunday shall use more than one rod nor more than two hooks

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Fisheries for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BAKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. What further study is needed on this bill?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is a bill that pertains to fishing. This bill has not been in the Fishing Committee and the Committee on Fisheries has had no opportunity to study this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Does the Fisheries Committee want to determine whether a line shall have one hook or two hooks?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that I want to say that all bills pertaining to fishing should be referred to the Committee on Fisheries, and the committee has had no chance whatever to study this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Does the Committee on Fisheries want to specify whether a rod shall be of wood or iron?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer that for the committee.

Mr. SOWERS. Can you give any information as to what further study is needed on this one rod, two hooks and a line?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I would say the committee has had no chance to give this bill any study.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I can find no reason why the Committee on Fisheries should need this bill back for further study; the bill only provides for some little lad to fish with one rod and two hooks.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that the motion before the House is to recommit, and the bill is not debatable.

Mr. SOWERS. The gentleman asked to have the bill recommitted for further study. Now the study becomes the subject——

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to refer the gentleman to the rule and the point of order that was raised thereunder: "The Speaker ruled that the merits of the bill were not open to discussion on a motion to recommit. Legislative Journal, April 27, 1931, page 3541, and other decisions."

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, may I suggest that this is not a motion to recommit ordinarily, this is a motion——

The SPEAKER. The motion before the House is to recommit the bill.

Mr. SOWERS. For study, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. And the House decides whether a bill shall go back to the committee or not.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hope you will vote down this motion and let the House study it.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to urge you to vote against this motion. This bill provides for Sunday fishing. It has the endorsement of the Rod and Gun Club, the Isaak Walton League and members of other fishing organizations. It has been carefully considered in the Committee on Law and Order and reported to this House. I think that the members of the House are able to pass upon it without further study by any other committee.

I ask you to vote no on this motion.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I also ask the members to vote down this motion. This bill has been here for many years. It has been brought here by Democrats, by Republicans and by the Socialist members from Berks county. There is a great deal of sentiment down in my section of the State for Sunday fishing. Our people believe there are many things going on on Sunday that are much worse than sitting quietly by the side of a stream with rod and line. I ask you to give immediate consideration——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order,

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, will state his point of order.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking upon the motion.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken and the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, will confine his remarks to the motion before the House to recommit.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I see no necessity why the bill should go back to committee.

I am thoroughly satisfied that every member of the Committee on Fisheries thoroughly understands this bill and there exists no reason why this bill should be sent back to committee.

I ask you to vote no on this motion.

Mr. BERNHARD. Mr. Speaker, being a member of the Committee on Fisheries, I want to sustain the Chairman of that Committee on the stand he has taken on this particular motion.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, does this bill pertain to fishing?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, this bill does pertain to fishing on Sunday.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Berks if any other bills pertaining to fishing have been referred to the Committee which reported out this bill?

Mr. HOOPES. I do not know, Mr. Speaker. I know that many other bills pertaining to Sunday have been referred to this committee as this bill was, and I understand it is the policy to refer all bills pertaining to Sunday activities to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of this bill whether it would not be proper, just and fair to have the Committee on Fisheries study this bill?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that this bill needs any further study on the part of the committee. It has received careful consideration from one committee of this House, and I do not think that it is necessary to have it considered by another committee. I did not pick the committee to which it was referred.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentleman of the House, as chairman of the Committee on Fisheries, I would like to make this brief statement, that we have had no other bills which pertain to fishing assigned to the Committee on Law and Order. I contend that the Committee on Fisheries should have had a chance to make a study of this bill. This bill pertains to fishing——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. STEEDLE. The gentleman is not talking on the motion that is before the House. He is talking on the bill.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman from Union will confine his remarks to the motion before the House.

Mr. BAKER. I thank you. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, in defense of Mr. Baker, and as a member of the Committee on Fisheries, I wish to state that I have not had a chance to study this bill, which came from the Law and Order Committee, and I hope that Mr. Baker will be sustained.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Hewitt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEWITT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman think that he will have enough time between now and next Monday night to study the bill?

Mr. HEWITT. I want to study it in the committee, please, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to give the reason why I think this bill should be referred to the Committee on Fisheries. Two years ago this was referred to the Committee on Fisheries. There are two issues at stake in this bill: One is the moral question, and, of course, that will go to the Committee on Law and Order——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point or order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Erie will state his point of order.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is speaking on the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not understand that the gentleman from Centre was speaking on the merits of the bill.

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this has been considered from a moral point of view. It is going to have such a bearing on fishing in the State of Pennsylvania that it may be necessary for the committee to prepare a bill if this should become a law, in order to shorten the season.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Baker and Mr. Wood and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second, and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

Section 2 Any person violating the provisions of this act shall upon conviction in summary proceedings be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars

Section 3 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are repealed

An Act permitting fishing on Sunday with one rod and two hooks and fixing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 197, as follows:

An Act to amend sections eight hundred and eight hundred and one of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth except in counties of the first and second class and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" defining legal settlement and the liability of poor districts for support

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section eight hundred of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth except in counties of the first and second class and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 300 [HOW GAINED A settlement may be gained in any poor district by any person not a public charge married or single who bona fide comes to inhabit therein and counties to reside there for one year Persons born in a place whether legitimate or illegitimate shall be deemed to be settled there unless the parent having their custody be settled elsewhere and all children shall follow the settlement of the parent or parents stepfather or stepmother having their custody until the age of sixteen years] LEGAL AND QUASI SETTLEMENTS LIABILITY FOR SUPPORT (a) A legitimate person is first settled in the poor district of birth unless the father shall then have a known settlement elsewhere in which case the first settlement of such person is in the district where the father was then settled

(b) An illegitimate person is first settled in the poor district of birth unless the mother shall then have a known settlement elsewhere in which case the first settlement of such person is in the district where the mother was then settled

(c) The settlement of a person in a poor district continues until a new one is acquired in this State or elsewhere A settlement is lost only by acquiring a new one

(d) Except as hereinafter otherwise provided every adult and every emancipated minor whether married or single legitimate or illegitimate may acquire a new settlement in any poor district of this Commonwealth by coming bona fide to establish a permanent abode therein and continuing to reside therein for one whole year if such person or minor is of sufficient mental ability to make a bargain and is not or does not become a public charge during said year

(e) The settlement of a married woman during coverture follows that of her husband and continues after his death in the district where he was last settled but she may thereafter acquire a new settlement for herself If the husband has no known settlement then she is settled whether he be living or dead in the district where she was last settled The settlement of a woman After divorce absolute or from bed and board or desertion by the husband or withdrawal by the wife from cohabitation with the husband on account of his cruelty inebriety or lack of support continues in the district where the husband was last settled but she may acquire a new settlement for herself

(f) A minor whether legitimate or illegitimate cannot be amancipated before age sixteen and becomes emancipated absolutely at age twenty-one if then of sufficient mental ability to make a bargain After age sixteen and before age twenty-one a minor of sufficient mental ability to make a bargain may become emancipated by his own acts of the parent stepfather or stepmother having had the custody When a person is emancipated he or she is capable of establishing a new settlement

(g) A minor whether legitimate or illegitimate who is so mentally deficient as to be unable to make a bargain cannot be emancipated after age sixteen and such a person does not become emancipated at age twenty-one and so long thereafter as said mental condition continues The settlement of such a person shall at all times during mental disability be ascertained as provided in clauses (h) and (i) of this section for the settlement of minors not emancipated

(h) Before emancipation the settlement of a legitimate minor is and remains that of the father unless

(1) The father is dead and the mother acquires a new settlement in which case it follows that of the mother or

(2) The father deserts his family in which case it follows that of the mother or

(3) The mother withdraws from cohabitation with the husband on account of his cruelty inebriety or lack of support in which case it follows that of the parent having the custody or

(4) The parents are divorced either absolutely or from bed and board in which case it follows that of the parent having the exclusive custody but where custody is divided between the parents the settlement remains that of the father or

(5) Both parents are dead and the minor is in the custody of a stepfather or stepmother in which case it follows that of the stepfather or stepmother having the custody

(i) Before emancipation the settlement of an illegitimate minor at all times follows that of the mother and in case of her death before emancipation of such minor continues in the poor district in which she was last settled until such person established a new settlement after emancipation

(j) If a person has no known settlement in this Commonwealth and cannot for any reason whatever be removed into the State or country where settled he shall have a quasi-settlement in the poor district where he or she becomes a public charge which district shall be liable for his or her support

(k) If a person becomes a public charge in a poor district other than the one in which settled such district shall be liable for support until the district of settlement is discovered and removal to such district takes place but the poor district of settlement shall be liable to the district in which the person became a charge for the amount of relief advanced costs and the expenses of removal

Section 2 That section eight hundred and one of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 801 ORDER OF REMOVAL In case any person shall have no settlement in the district wherein he has become or is likely to become a public charge it shall be the duty of the directors as soon as may be to notify the directors of the district of his settlement of the facts [and from the time of such notice the cost of his relief shall be charged to the district of his settlement] If the directors so notified refuse or neglect to receive him or to make arrangements for his proper support and maintenance and to pay the amount of relief advanced the directors furnishing such relief may apply to the court of quarter sessions of their county or to any judge thereof by petition asking for a citation to the directors so refusing or neglecting requiring them to appear before such court at a time specified therein and show cause why an order should not issue for the removal of such person into their district. The said court shall proceed to hear and determine the cause upon its merits and their decree shall be final unless an appeal therefrom be taken with thirty days

The citation herein provided for accompanied by a copy of the petition shall be served by the sheriff of the county who may for that purpose deputize the sheriff of the county of the respondent upon one or more of the directors named therein or with the approval of the court service may be had by sending such copy by registered mail and shall be served or mailed at least ten days before the day fixed for such hearing Provided That upon the hearing and argument before said court of quarter sessions of said citation for an order of removal of paupers from one district to another it shall be lawful for either of the parties to the issue to except to any decision of the court upon any point of evidence or law which exception shall be noted by the court and filed of record as in civil cases and an appeal to an appellate court may be taken by either party from the judgment or decree of the court with like effect as in civil cases

Section 3 That section nine of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws five hundred thirty-nine) entitled "An act relating to the support and employment of the poor" is hereby repealed

All other acts and parts of acts general local and special inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 198, as follows:

An Act to amend sections one two and three of the act approved the sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred twelve) entitled "An act providing for the relief of poor persons regulating their settlements in poor districts providing a means of enforcing the removal of a poor person to the district of his settlement the payment for relief furnished to him and the payment of costs thereto and authorizing courts of quarter sessions to compel certain relations to contribute to the relief of poor persons" defining legal settlement and the liability of poor districts for support

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

HOUSE BILL NO. 1590 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1590, be made a special order of business for third reading and final passage on Monday, March 27th, 1933, at 2:30 o'clock P. M.

The motion was agreed to.

MEMORALIZING CONGRESS TO RESCIND RESTRICTIONS ON IMMIGRATION

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Whereas, A reign of terror exists under the Fascist Government in Germany, and

Whereas, Atrocities are committed upon Nationalists of various religious faiths, and

Whereas, The United States Government is founded upon the priniciple of religious liberty and the free exercise of faith, and America has been at all times an asylum for the oppressed of all lands, and

Whereas, The Constitution of the United States of America provides that Congress shall declare no law regulating religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, and

Whereas, The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Article I, Section 3, provides that all men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God, according to the dictates of their own conscience, and

Whereas, The German Nationalists who have emigrated to this country have generally been patriotic, law-abiding, frugal, industrious and desirable citizens, and have taken their part loyally in defense of their land of adoption in its direct need, therefore be it

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memoralize Congress of the United States to rescind temporarily the restrictions on immigration of Nationalists from the German Republic, and allow the oppressed of all faiths who are proven to be law-abiding, worthy and who are not afflicted with contagious or infectious diseases, and who are not likely to become a charge upon the public, to find an asylum and a refuge among the people and in the country of the United States of America.

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the House of Representatives of the United States.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I have before me a book which sets forth the names of the members of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments, and I desire to ask if that is a correct list of the membership of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

The SPEAKER. What book does the gentleman have in his hand?

Mr. SOWERS. I will pass the book up to the Speaker.

The SPEAKER. In answer to the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, the Chair desires to inform him that on page 28 there were added the names of six members of this House to that committee, and the book, which the gentleman has sent to the desk, was printed in the early part of the session.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, may I have the names of the six members appointed to this committee?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will be very glad to give the gentleman from Philadelphia the names of those members: the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Craig; the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson; the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn; the gentleman from Jefferson, Mr. Lord; the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Yeakel, and the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Brennan. Does that answer the gentleman's parliamentary inquiry?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, that answers the parliamentary inquiry.

Carson,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 179, Printer's No. 102, on page 14 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Weidemann.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 179, entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and twelve of the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-two) entitled "An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth except in counties of the first and second class and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by providing for depositories for funds of poor districts.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 10, by adding after the word "districts" the following: "coterminus with counties of the third class."

Amend section 1, page 2, line 20, by inserting after the word "poor" the following: "in all poor districts coterminus with counties of the third class."

Amend section 1, page 3, line 1, by inserting after the word "poor" the following: "of such poor districts."

Amend section 1, page 3, line 8, by striking out the word "the" and insert in lieu thereof: "such."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

STATEMENT BY MR. SURFACE

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to make an announcement, if you please.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Snyder desires to make an announcement. Are there objections? The Chair hears none. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on next Tuesday afternoon, at two o'clock, there will be a convention of the taxpayers, including the Pennsylvania Taxpayers' Association and the State Tax Justice League, in the auditorium of this building.

There will be several speakers including the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the House, Messrs. Fertig, Wade and Surface and several others, and the taxpayers were particularly anxious that the members of the House should be invited to be present.

They wish to advance the interests of their bill. If any persons should wish to know what these bills are by number and by title I shall be glad to give the information to them.

Mr. Speaker, I wish to say something further, if you please. I have received a telegram reading as follows:

"Hon. HARVEY SURFACE

Harrisburg Penn

"Sixty-two thousand Pennsylvania teachers expect you to vote against all bills affecting teachers salaries and will have record of yeas and nays teachers in your legislative district will be strongly organized before next year's primaries to vote for friends at polls each block of hundred teachers controls thousand votes."

Mr. Speaker, I consider that an insult to the intelligence of a Representative. I consider it unethical, especially from those who ought to be the leaders in ethics, namely, the teachers of our State.

Mr. Speaker, there are others to consider besides the teachers. All of us are anxious to do all we can for the teachers, but the taxpayers with their heavy burdens at this time should also be considered. Therefore, I desire to offer the following resolution.

RESOLUTION

DENOUNCING THE SENDING OF THREATENING COMMUNICATIONS

Mr. SURFACE asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Resolved, That it is the expression of the members of the House of Representatives of the State of Pennsylvania in session assembled, that it is unethical, offensive and objectionable for any person or persons to threaten them in any kind of communication with a loss of votes or political influence for the voting on any measure in any other way than that dictated by the conscience and the best judgment of the member.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, it is only fair, and I want to say, and I intended to say from whom the telegram came and how it was signed.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask the gentleman if he wants the telegram made a part of the record.

Mr. SURFACE. I do, Mr. Speaker. I shall ask unanimous consent for that, if you please.

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the telegram read by the gentleman from Centre, Mr. Surface, will be noted in the Journal and be printed in the Legislative Journal.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, that telegram was signed by the Committee of Hazleton School Teachers.

I am further prepared to say that when I get an anonymous communication or a communication that excuses the sender under the name of "committee," it does not receive much consideration from me. I think it ought to be signed by the actual senders.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair will declare a recess until 1.20 P. M. for the purpose of referring bills. Are there objections? The Chair hears none, and (at 12.25 P. M.) declares a recess until 1.20 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 1.20 P. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

Vol. 15 — HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MARCH 27, 1933. — No. 37

SENATE

MONDAY, March 27, 1933

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P..M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo; offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Thou art the source of all truth, and we come to Thee with our little knowledge, which is but a beam in the darkness of night when compared with what Thou art; and may our ignorance make us humble as children, that we may seek to know the truth in order that we may be free, and that if we do not know the truth we will be always slaves. Therefore make use free through the truth, and we will be free indeed. Bless this Senate tonight, bless the presiding officer and all in any position here, all the members. Guide us and direct us by Thine infinite wisdom and knowledge. We ask in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr BATCHELOR, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

RESOLUTION EXTENDING SYMPATHY TO SENATOR CHAPMAN ON THE DEATH OF HIS FATHER

Mr. SCOTT offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, March 27, 1933.

Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania have learned with sorrow of the death of A. L. Chapman, of Warren, Pennsylvania, father of Honorable Leroy E. Chapman, member of this Senate from the Forty-ninth District. Mr. Chapman lived a long life of usefulness and earned the respect and esteem of the people of his community.

Be It Resolved, That the members of the Senate extend their sympathy to Senator Chapman and the members of the bereaved family.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL NO. 38

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 38, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-seven) entitled "An act placing upon the Commonwealth the responsibility for the construction and maintenance of certain bridges on State highway routes or continuations of State highway routes in boroughs incorporated towns cities of the third class and townships under certain conditions and restrictions and appropriating money in the motor license fund for such puorposes providing for a limitation of the Commonwealth's liability for reconstruction and maintenance in certain cases under orders of court or the Public Service Commission providing for the Commonwealth to succeed to the rights of the county under certain existing agreements or contracts authorizing the department to issue licenses to public service companies for occupancy of such bridges in accordance with existing laws subject to certain conditions and restrictions providing for the crediting of certain moneys to the motor license fund and providing for the return to the county or disposal of said bridges in certain cases and repealing certain acts with reference to county bridges" placing on the Commonwealth the responsibility for the construction and maintenance of additional county bridges and eliminating the provisions whch places upon the counties fifty per centum of the cost of construction and maintenance of certain bridges

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PROVISIONS FOR PAYMENT OF SALES TAX IN INSTALMENTS

Mr. PARKINSON offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, March 27, 1933.

Whereas, The Act of August 19, 1932, P. L. 92, imposing an emergency sales tax, provides for the filing of returns and payment of such tax on or before April 1, 1933; and

Whereas, Legislation is pending providing for payment of only one-half of said tax on or before April 1, 1933, concurrently with the filing of said report and the remaining one-half on or before May 15; and

Whereas, Said legislation cannot be adopted before April 1, and many taxpayers are uncertain as to what steps are to be taken with respect to the filing of returns and payments of said tax; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That every vendor liable for the payment of the emergency sales tax under the provisions of the Act of August 19, 1932, P. L. 92, entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties," may on or before April 1, 1933, pay one-half of such tax concurrently with the filing of his report and may pay the remaining one-half of said tax in a single instalment on or before the 15th day of May, 1933, but the amount of the tax not paid on or before April 1, 1933, shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum until May 15, 1933, and twelve per centum per annum thereafter.

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution and to authorize the Department of Revenue to accept payment, and to settle said emergency sales tax in accordance with this resolution.

Resolved, That this resolution shall be effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Is their objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL NO. 212

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 22, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 212, Printer's No. 83, entitled "An act to authorize boroughs and townships of the first class to sue out writs of scire facias on certain municipal claims where more than five years have elapsed since said claims were filed and to reduce such claims to judgment and providing for the revival and collection of such judgments."

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

VETO OF SENATE BILL 349

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 24, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 349, Printer's No. 81, entitled "An act to amend sections two and three of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws ten), entitled 'An act authorizing counties cities boroughs towns townships school districts and poor districts to install by ordinance or resolution a system for the collection of taxes in instalments and specifying certain conditions and penalties in such cases' by providing for the return of lands on which instalments of taxes are delinquent and for the filing of liens for and interest on delinquent instalments."

This bill would alter the penalties imposed on delinquent tax-payers who have elected to pay their taxes in instalments. It attempts to provide that where unpaid instalments are returned to the county treasurer, or are made the subject of liens entered in the prothonotary's office, they shall not bear interest or incur the penalties ordinarily imposed when those procedures are followed. Instead, this bill would fix a flat penalty on each instalment as it becomes delinquent and shortly thereafter interest on the tax and the penalty would begin to run at the rate of eight per centum a year. This interest would be computed, however, only to the first day of the month in which the tax is paid.

Our tax collection system is far from satisfactory. This bill would but increase the confusion and add to the lack of uniformity. Delinquent taxpayers who did not elect to pay in instalments, or who had no opportunity to do so, would be subject to the penalties fixed by the various taxing acts, and upon their taxes being returned to the county treasurer, and additional six percentum a year would be added under the Act of May 29, 1931, P. L. 230. Meanwhile, delinquent taxes of instalment taxpayers, returned under the same act, would be subject only to the penalties provided by this bill.

Confusion, lack of uniformity and inequity would result if this bill were to become a law.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the communication just read be laid on the table.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 487, as follows:

An Act to amend section one thousand thirty-four of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" providing how executions on judgments against counties may be issued the procedure thereon authorizing the court to direct the levy of a tax to satisfy such judgments and fixing the rate of interest which such judgments shall bear

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one thousand thirty-four of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1034 Execution Against County (a) If judgment shall be obtained against a county in any action or proceeding the party entitled to the benefit of such judgment may have execution thereof as follows and not otherwise namely [It shall be lawful for the] The court [in which such] of common pleas of the county against which judgment shall be obtained or to which [such] a judgment may [be] have been removed by transcript from a justice of the peace or alderman [to issue thereon a writ] on application of the party entitled to the benefit of such judgment may direct the issue of a writ thereon commanding the commissioners of the county to cause the amount [thereof] of the judgment with the interest and costs to be paid to the party entitled [to the benefit of such judgment] out of any moneys [unappropriated of such] of the said county which are not appropriated or pledged for any specific purpose and which are not required to meet the current operating expenses of the county during the then fiscal year and [or] if there be no such moneys then out of the first moneys [that shall be received for the use of such county and to enforce obedience to such writ by attachment] coming into the hands of its treasurer and which have not been appropriated or pledged to any specific purpose and are not required to meet the current operating expenses of the county during the fiscal year Provided That if such judgment shall have been recovered on an obligation secured by a sinking fund payment thereof may be directed out of any moneys in the sinking fund

(b) If such judgment be not paid by the commissioners as directed by such writ they shall within fifteen days after service thereof make answer showing the reasons for not having made payment as commanded

(c) If it appear from said answer that the county does not have moneys not appropriated or pledged for specific purposes and not required for current operating expenses with which to pay said judgment and that it will not during the then fiscal year have sufficient funds not appropriated or pledged for specific purposes and not required to meet current operating expenses to enable the payment of such judgment or judgments the court after hearing shall direct the levy of a tax to be levied and collected during the succeeding fiscal year or years sufficient to pay such judgment or judgments

(d) In directing the levy of such tax the court shall take into consideration the number of judgments against the county and the writs issued and shall have power to decide during how many years the tax shall be levied but it shall not direct the levy of a tax for any one year in excess of one-half of one per centum of the assessed valuation of the taxable property of the county

(e) The taxes thus directed to be levied shall be levied by the commissioners at the same time the next levy for general county purposes is made and shall be levied and collected as other taxes are by law levied and collected but shall be listed in the duplicates as a separate tax and shall be kept distinct from all other of the county's funds and applied in payment of the judgment or judgments for which collection is directed as from time to time received but one levy may be made for the satisfaction of more than one judgment and the fund shall be applied to the satisfaction of the judgments in the order in which the writs were issued

(f) The court shall have power to enforce by attachment or otherwise all orders and decrees entered in pursuance of the powers hereby granted

(g) All judgments and unpaid parts thereof shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum but not compounded

Section 7 Requirements of Voting Machines No voting machine shall be approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth or by any examiner appointed by him unless it shall satisfy the following requirements

(a) It shall provide facilities for voting for such candidates as may be nominated and upon such questions as may be submitted

(b) It shall permit each voter at other than primary elections to vote a straight party ticket in one operation and in one operation to vote for all the candidates of one party for presidential electors and in one operation to vote for all the candidates of one party for every office to be voted for except those offices as to which he votes for individual candidates

(c) It shall permit each voter at other than primary elections to vote a ticket selected from the nominees of any and all parties from independent nominations and from persons not in nomination

(d) It shall permit each voter to vote at any election for any person and for any office for whom and for which he is lawfully entitled to vote whether or not the name of such person appears upon a ballot-label as a candiate for nomination or election and to vote for as many persons for an office as he is entitled to vote for and to vote for or against any question upon which he is entitled to vote

(e) It shall preclude each voter from voting for any candidate or upon any question for whom or upon which he is not entitled to vote and from voting for more persons for any office than he is entitled to vote for and from voting for any candidate for the same office or upon any question more than once except in districts and for offices where cumulative voting is authorized by law

(f) It shall be capable of adjustment by election officers so as to permit each voter at a primary election to vote only for the candidates for nonpartisan nomination if any and for the candidates seeking nomination by the political party in which he is enrolled if he is enrolled as a member of a political party and so as to preclude him from voting for the candidates seeking nomination by any political party in which he is not enrolled

(g) It shall permit each voter to deposit write in or affix upon receptacles or devices provided for the purpose ballots containing the names of persons for whom he desires to vote whose names do not appear upon the machine

(h) It shall permit each voter to change his vote for any candidate or upon any question appearing upon the ballot-labels up to the time he begins the final operation to register his vote or indicates or expresses his intention to register his vote

(i) It shall permit and require voting in absolute secrecy and shall be so constructed that no person can see or know for whom any other elector has voted or is voting save a voter whom he has assisted or is assisting in voting as prescribed by law

(j) It shall have voting devices for separate candidates and questions which shall be arranged in separate parallel rows or columns so that at any primary election one or more adjacent rows or columns may be assigned to the candidates of a party and shall have paralled office columns or rows transverse thereto

(k) It shall have a counter or other device the register of which is visible from the outside of the machine which shall show during any period of voting the total number of voters who have operated the machine during said period of voting

(l) It shall have a protective counter or other device the register of which cannot be rest which shall record the cumulative total number of movements of the operating mechanism

(m) It shall be provided with a lock or locks by the use of which immediately after the polls are closed or the operation of the machine for an election is completed all movement of the registering mechanism is absolutely prevented

(n) It shall be provided with a screen hood or curtain which shall conceal the actions of the voter while voting

(o) It shall be constructed of material of good quality in a neat and workmanlike manner

(p) It shall when properly operated register or record correctly and accurately every vote cast

(q) It shall be so constructed that a voter may readily learn the method of operating it

(r) It shall be safely transportable

(s) It shall be so constructed and controlled that during the progress of voting it shall preclude every person from seeing or knowing the number of votes registered for any candidate and from tampering with any of the registering mechanism

(t) If it is of a type equipped with mechanism for printing paper proof-sheets and not requiring the counters to be made visible in order to canvass the votes recorded on the machine the door or other device concealing such counters or keeping the same concealed shall be equipped with a lock or locks requiring the simultaneous use of three separate and substantially different keys to open or operate the same

Section 3 That clauses (a) and (d) of section fifteen of said act are hereby amended and clause (g) of section fifteen of said act as amended by section thirteen of said amending act is hereby further amended to read as follows

(a) The county commissioners shall deliver the keys which unlock the operating mechanism and the registering counters or counter compartment of the voting machine to the judge of election not earlier than noon the Saturday preceding an election nor later than three-quarters of an hour before the time set for the opening of the polls and shall take his receipt therefor The keys shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope on which shall be written or printed (1) the number of the voting machine (2) the name or designation of the election district (3) the number of the seal and (4) the number registered on the protective counter or device as reported by the custodian Provided however that if the type of voting machine used requires the simultaneous use of three keys to unlock the registering counters or counter compartment only two of said keys shall be enclosed in said sealed envelope the third key being retained by the custodian the county commissioners or such other person as they shall have authorized

(d) But if the numbers on the seal and the protective counter or device shall both be found to agree with the numbers on the envelope the envelope shall be opened and where the voting machine provided is not equipped with mechanism for printing paper proof-sheets the election officers shall examine the registering counters and for that purpose shall open the doors concealing such counters if the construction of the voting machine shall so require and before the polls are opened the judge and each inspector shall carefully examine every counter and shall see that it registers zero (000) and shall allow the watchers to examine the counters When the voting machine provided is equipped with mechanism for printing paper proof-sheets the judge of election shall deliver one of the two keys aforesaid to the minority inspector to be retained by him as hereinafter provided and shall then print at least two proof-sheets one of which the judge and each inspector shall carefully examine to ascertain whether every counter registers zero (000) and shall then preserve to be signed by them and returned to the prothonotary or the county commissioners as the case may be with the duplicate return sheet and the remainder of which shall be given to the watchers for their examination The key delivered by the judge of election to the minority inspector as aforesaid shall be retained by the minority inspector until the polls have been closed and the voting and counting mechanism of the machine shall have been locked and sealed against voting and shall then be returned to the judge of election for return by him to the county commissioners as hereinafter provided

(g) The machine shall remain locked against voting until the polls are opened and shall not be operated except by voters in voting If any counter is found not to register zero (000) the election officers shall immediately notify the custodian or the county commissioners who shall if practicable adjust or cause the counters to be adjusted at zero (000) but if it shall be found impracticable for the custodian or other person authorized by the county commissioners to arrive in time so to adjust such counters before the time set for opening the polls the election officers shall immediately make a written record of the designation or designating letter or number of each counter together with the number registered thereon herinbelow called the initial number and shall sign and post the same upon the wall of the polling place where it shall remain until the polls are closed provided however that if the voting machine used is equipped with mechanism for printing paper proof-sheets in any case where any counter is shown by such proof-sheet not to register zero (000) if it shall be found impracticable to have such counter adjusted before the time set for opening the polls the election officers shall sign such printed proof-sheet and post the same upon the wall of the polling place where it shall remain until the polls are closed and in filling out the returns of the election if the final number of such counter is greater than the initial number the election officers shall subtract the initial number from the final number and enter the difference on the returns as the vote for the candidate or on the question represented by such counter if the final number of such counter is less than the initial number the election officers shall add one thousand to the final number and shall subtract the initial number from the sum so ascertained and shall enter upon the returns as the vote for the candidate or on the question represented by such counter the final number plus one thousand less the initial number

Section 4 That clauses (b) and (c) of section twenty-three of said act as separated and amended by section nineteen of said amending act are hereby further amended to read as follows

(b) If the type of voting machine provided shall require the counters to be seen in order to enable the election officers to canvass the vote the election officers in the presence of the watchers and all other persons who may be lawfully within the polling place shall then make visible the registering counters and for that purpose shall unlock and open the doors or other covering concealing the same giving full view of all the counter numbers If the voting machine is equipped with mechansim for printing paper proof-sheets the election officers shall forthwith print not less than four proof-sheets and as many more as may be necessary to supply one to each member of the election board overseer candidate watcher representative of a newspaper and other person who may be lawfully present within the polling place requesting the same The judge of election shall then under the scrutiny of the two inspectors of election the overseers if any and the watchers and in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the machine read from the counters or from one of the proof-sheets as the case may be and announce in distinct tones the designation or designating number and letter on each counter for each candidate's name the result as shown by the counter numbers the votes recorder for each office for persons other than nominated candidates and the designation or designating numbers and letters on each counter and the results as shown by the counter numbers for and against each question voted on The counters shall not be read consecutively along the party rows or columns but shall always be read along the office columns or rows completing the canvass for each office or question before proceeding to the next The vote as registered shall be entered by the election officers in ink on duplicate return sheets and also on a general return sheet and statement all of which after the canvass is completed shall be signed by the election officers and certified by the overseers if any The vote for presidential electors shall be computed and returned as provided hereinbefore in section nineteen of this act If more than one voting machine is used in any election district the vote registered on each machine shall be ascertained in like manner and separately entered in appropriate spaces on the general and duplicate return sheets and statement The total vote cast for each candidate and for and against each question shall then be computed and entered on the general and duplicate return sheets and statement There shall also be entered on the general return sheet and statement the number of voters who have voted as shown by the lists of voters and the number who have voted on each machine as shown by the public counters and also the number registered on the protective counter or device on each machine immediately prior to the opening of the polls and immediately after the closing thereof and sealing of the machine The number or other designation of each machine used shall also be entered thereon In the case of primary elections duplicate return sheets shall be prepared for each party If the type of voting machine used requires the counters to be seen in order to canvass the vote the registering counters of the voting machine shall remain exposed to view until the said returns and all other reports have been fully completed and checked by the inspectors and overseers if any During such time any candidate or duly accredited watcher who may desire to be present shall be admitted to the polling place

(c) The proclamation of the result of the votes cast shall be announced distinctly and audibly by the judge of election who shall read the name of each candidate the designation or designating numbers and letters of his counters and the vote registered on each counter also the vote cast for and against each question submitted During such proclamation if the type of voting machine used requires the counters to be seen in order to canvass the vote ample opportunity shall be given to any person lawfully present to compare the results so announced with the counter dials of the machine and any necessary corrections shall then and there be made by the election officers after which the doors or other cover of the voting machine shall be closed and locked Any ballots deposited written or affixed in or upon the voting machine shall be inclosed in properly sealed packages and properly indorsed and shall be delivered by the judge of election as hereinafter provided The judge of election shall promptly deliver to the county commissioners or their duly authorized representative the keys of the voting machine inclosed in a sealed envelope if the construction of the voting machine shall permit their separate return Said envelope shall have indorsed thereon a certificate of the election officers stating the number of the machine the election district where it has been used the number on the seal and the number on the protective counter or device at the close of the polls

Section 5 That section twenty-four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Return of Votes The general return sheet duplicate return sheets and statements shall be printed to conform with the type of voting machine used and in form approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth The designating number and letter if any on the counter for each candidate shall be printed thereon opposite the candidates name Immediately after the vote has been ascertained the statement thereof shall be posted on the door of the polling place The minority inspector shall retain one of said duplicate return sheets one numbered list of voters sealed as aforesaid the voting check list (in districts other than cities) and one set of oaths of election officers and other affidavits The other duplicate return sheet numbered list of voters oaths of election officers and affidavits of voters and others and the ballot check list (in districts other than cities) shall be sealed up and given to the judge of election who shall deliver them together with the general return sheet and the package of ballots deposited written or affixed in or upon the voting machine to the prothonotary in the case of general municipal or special elections and to the county commissioners in the case of primary election provided that returns of elections for borough and township officers shall be made to the officer directed by law to receive them If the type of voting machine is equipped with mechanism for printing paper proof-sheets one of said proof-sheets shall be posted on the door of the polling place with the statement aforesaid one shall be retained by the minority inspector one shall be placed in the envelope and delivered with the general return sheet and one shall be sealed in the envelope with the duplicate return sheet and delivered by the judge of election to the prothonotary or to the county commissioners as the case may be The printed proof-sheet returned with the general return sheet and the printed proof-sheet returned with the duplicate return sheet shall each be part of the returns of the election

Section 6 That section twenty-six of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Provision for Recanvass of Vote (a) Whenever it shall appear that there is a discrepancy in the returns of any election district or upon petition of three voters of any district verified by affidavit that an error although not apparent on the face of the returns has been committed therein the court of common pleas board of county commissioners or other return board shall at any time prior to the completion of the computation of all the returns for the county summon the election officers of the district and said officers in the presence of said court or board shall make a record of the number of the seal upon the voting machine and the number on the protective counter or other device shall make visible the registering counters of such machine and without unlocking the machine against voting shall recanvass the vote cast thereon Before making such recanvass the said court or board shall give notice in writing to the proper custodian of voting machines and to each candidate and to the county chairman of each party or independent nominating body affected by the canvass and each such candidate may be present in person or by attorney and each of such parties or nominating bodies may send two representatives to be present at such recanvass If upon such recanvass it shall be found that the original canvass of the returns has been correctly made from the machine and that the discrepancy still remains unaccounted for the said court or board with the assistance of the custodian in the presence of the election officers and the authorized candidates and representatives shall unlock the voting and counting mechanism of the machine and shall proceed thoroughly to examine and test the machine to determine and reveal the true cause or causes if any of the discrepancy in returns from such machine Each counter shall be reset at zero (000) before it is tested after which it shall be operated at least one hundred times After the completion of such examination and test the custodian shall then and there prepare a statement in writing giving in detail the result of the examination and test and such statement shall be witnessed by the persons present and shall be filed with the said court or board If upon such recanvass it shall appear that the original canvass of the returns by the election officers was incorrect the said returns and all the papers being prepared by the said court or board shall be corrected accordingly

(b) Provided however that in the case of returns from any election district wherein the election was held by the use of a voting machine equipped with mechanism for printing paper proof-sheets said proof-sheets if mutually consistent shall be deemed to be the primary evidence of the result of the election and to be prima facie accurate and there shall not be considered to be any discrepancy or error in the returns from any such district such as to require a recanvass of the vote if all available proof-sheets from the voting machine used therein identified to the satisfaction of the return board and shown to its satisfaction to have been produced from proper custody shall be mutually consistent and if the general and duplicate returns or either of them from said district shall not correspond with said proof-sheets they and all other papers being prepared by said return board shall be corrected so as to correspond with the same in the absence of

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we halt the activities of this august body, to invoke Thy Divine blessing. May this moment of silent recollection of Thee, give to the ladies and gentlemen of the House, an "Inner Light," to guide them unerringly in the quest of truth, and the enactment of wise and just laws for the people of Pennsylvania.

Sustain the Speaker and his faithful coadjutors, who, through busy weeks have labored faithfully and unostentatiously for the human uplift of the Commonwealth.

Strengthen Thy servants, in their determined statesmanship, striving to banish the causes of misery, and injustice, throughout our State. To each member and officer of the General Assembly, give a sense of quiet assurance, "Still as the night and deep as the sea." Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Thursday, March 23, 1933.

EXTENDING SYMPATHY TO HON. WILLIAM McELWEE, JR.

Mr. EROE offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

In the House of Representatives, March 27, 1933.

Miss Mary McElwee, a sister of the Honorable William McElwee, Jr., a member of this House, died at her home in New Wilmington, Lawrence County, last week after the adjournment of the House.

Miss McElwee was a graduate of Westminster College, and the Clark Business College of Buffalo, and her death terminated an active life in the community in which she had lived; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House extends its deepest sympathy to the Honorable William McElwee, Jr. in this his time of sorrow, well realizing the loss that he must feel in the sudden ending of a relationship that had so long endured; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and a copy thereof be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the said Honorable William McElwee, Jr.

RENUMBERING ROOMS IN STATE CAPITOL BUILDING

Mr. MUMFORD offered the following resolution. which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, March 27, 1933.

Whereas, Members of the Legislature and visitors are frequently unable to find rooms in the Capitol Building, because no numbering system has ever been adopted which in any manner indicates the floor on which or portion of the building in which a room is located, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Department of Property and Supplies be requested to entirely re-number the rooms in the State Capitol Building so that the floor and location thereon of any room may readily be determined from the room number;

Resolved, That the first figure assigned to each room indicate the floor on which a room is located, except in the case of "E" floor, where the letter "E" shall precede the first number, and that after each number shall be used a letter to indicate whether the room may be reached from the North, Center or South portion of the building, such letters to be N, C or S.

The SPEAKER. The hour of 9.30 having arrived the Chair lays before the House the Special Order of business fixed for this time.

GEORGE W. WILLIAMS IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The hour of 9.30 having arrived the Chair lays before the House, House Bill No. 1590, which was fixed as a Special Order of business for this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1590, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct relief and work relief.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, you have before you tonight a bill calling for an appropriation of two million dollars for unemployment relief to finish out the present biennium ending on May 31, 1933.

My remarks may tonight carry me somewhat far afield, but I trust the members of this House will bear with me during this statement.

When this House was organized in the early part of January and I was inducted into office as your Speaker, I said at that time "we cease to be Republicans, Democrats and Independents," that we from that time on should work for the common good of the people of this Commonwealth, and I now pay tribute and attest to the fact that this membership has foregone party lines and has been faithful to the purpose for which it came here.

It is unfortunate that the entire membership of this body cannot resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole to study all legislation that is before us, but that being impossible it is necessary that important legislation be assigned to only a few committees. I desire tonight, in view of the criticism from sources beyond our control, to give not only to you members, but to give to the citizens of Pennsylvania that are here assembled the picture as it actually exists.

I am serving my fifth session in the General Assembly, and I say without fear of contradiction that the membership of this body has more seriously considered legislation, have labored more hours, than any membership of any session in which I have had the pleasure of being a member.

When we came here, we came here with three thoughts in mind. The first being the question of economy insofar as the operation of State Government is concerned; the second was the relief of the real estate burden, that we might lighten the load of those of our constituents back home, and the third was to provide an unemployment relief program for the unfortunate citizens of this Commonwealth.

I must take you back to the session of 1929 when a committee was appointed by resolution to study the finances of State Government. That Committee was renewed in the session of 1931, to giving a hurried survey, as it were to State finances. In the Special Session of 1932, that Committee, publicly known as the Sterling Committee, because the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, was the chairman of the Legislative Finance Committee on State Government, as I again here attest, for over six months labored faithfully and well, as every member of this House knows by the exhaustive report submitted to this body some two weeks ago. I know these members worked not only in the daytime, but they worked nights and Saturdays and Sundays, and I know they had surrounding them a large corps of assistants, and I here and now pay them tribute for the efficient work done.

Economy being the watchword of the 1933 session of this Assembly and the fact that the administrative code could effect economies if properly studied, House Bill No. 22 was referred to the Committee on State Government. I can again attest to the hard work of that subcommittee of the Committee on State Government of which my colleague, the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, was the chairman. They too labored both day and night and Sundays and they too had surrounding them a staff of assistants that were not being paid for their work, because neither one of these committees had received an appropriation from the General Assembly.

We have worked, and it is true that we have the past twelve weeks of the General Assembly, but the study did not stop there. The House by resolution passed what is better known as the Fay resolution which provided for a committee which was composed of the members that worked with the Sterling committee and the members that worked with the sub-committee of which Mr. Turner was chairman and they of necessity had to make a survey before the Appropriation Committee could begin to function. It is the hope of the framers of this program that not later than Monday night next these will be in the hopper for third reading and final passage. If we are willing, and if we, as members of this Legislature have the courage to stand up and do things that our constituents desire us to do we can through their recommendations save upwards of eighteen millions of dollars to the taxpayers of this Commonwealth for the coming biennium.

We have been charged, not later than two weeks ago tonight, by His Excellency the Governor, in joint assembly addressing us, that we were playing politics with the poor and unfortunate of Pennsylvania. I charge back and repeat the remarks made in the first part of my talk, that the members of this House have been sincerely trying to solve this problem by saving the money to give to unemployment relief that we may not again burden our citizens with additional taxes.

The time has now come, in spite of the minority reports which exist for peculiar reasons throughout the state, when we must resist that kind of propaganda, and when we should meet courageously the bills that have come before us.

We must realize with the anticipated decreased revenue for the coming biennium as fixed by the budget officer of this Commonwealth that expenses must be cut, in round figures to the extent of about twenty-five per cent. This is a time for departmental heads and employes of government to rise above selfishness and say we are for Pennsylvania first, last and all the time. If these recommendations, made by the Sterling Committee and the Turner Committee on House Bill No. 22 and the Appropriation bills, if we fairly cut every department of state government, I have no fear that the state government will continue to function, because those of you who were members of the 1932 Special Session recall well that the Governor said the only cut that could be made was to the extent of five million three hundred thousand dollars, yet when we finished that program we had made a cut of sixteen and one-half million dollars, and the Governor agreed to that program finally. I defy any man or woman in the Commonwealth to show me where any function of government was curtailed or rather where any citizens suffered by that lessening of the functions.

Unemployment relief has been studied by a special committee under the guidance of the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Rice, and some two weeks ago they made their recommendations.

Let us be honest with ourselves and the citizens and say to the citizens of this commonwealth, we cannot nor will we present an unemployment program until we have effected every dollar of economy in State Government that is possible.

The bill before you tonight is for two million dollars, and I say to you as members of this House, that this is every dollar we can appropriate, because under the decision of the Supreme Court, in what was known as the Talbot Bill, they said we could not appropriate beyond out anticipated revenues. The Governor in his message told us that there will be a surplus of one million six hundred thousand dollars, and by the Constitution we can appropriate one million dollars beyond our anticipated revenue, so that this bill is now in order.

I have discussed in many parts of the State the question of unemployment relief. I will not burden you with the facts and figures tonight, but while I am talking, ladies and gentlemen of this House, the Governor of this Commonwealth is expounding over the radio in an attempt to arouse the people, telling them that this body is playing politics with the unfortunates. I deny that in your name and in my own name. We are attempting in a sane way to solve this problem, and I believe I can say to the Governor that this Legislature will not be stampeded into hasty action.

You, ladies and gentlemen, represent Pennsylvania, and represent its future by your actions during this session. We all have faith in Pennsylvania. Let us stand steadfast; let us not be swayed by anything that is wrong, but let us do our duty as we see it, and in due course of time the citizens of this Commonwealth will thank us for the work done.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Delaware, who has just spoken has asked the members of the House to have the courage to express their views and truly represent the desires of their constituents.

I cannot conscientiously sit still and let this bill pass without making a few comments thereon. I expect to vote for the bill as it is the only unemployment relief bill that we have had a chance to vote on so far this session and it is absolutely necessary that an appropriation shall be made immediately in order to take care of their needs during the months of April and May, but I feel that we should, in passing this bill, realize what we are doing. I do not believe that the primary and sole purpose of this session is to effect economies at the expense of the unemployed of this Commonwealth.

I think it is absolutely necessary, I think it is the bounden duty of this Legislature to make an appropriation, together with what we may justly expect to receive from the R. F. C. to meet the need of the unemployed in this State, who are unable to get jobs, during the next two months.

Last August we passed an unemployment relief bill and appropriated twelve million dollars for a period of seven months. The smallest sum for any month during that period was one million and one-half dollars. The Governor, when he appeared before this body on February 14th, told us that in 1932 the high point of relief was two hundred and fifty thousand families. In the very beginning of 1933 already there are four hundred and fifty thousand, and there will be five hundred thousand and doubtless many more before the end of the year. Already two million people, one-fifth of our population, are on relief. With the help of Federal funds we are now spending for relief in various counties at the rate of more than eight million dollars a year. On the basis of the present methods of relief, at least one hundred million dollars will be needed before the year is out for food alone, and at least twenty-five million more for shoes, clothes and other bare necessities of life.

The Governor as chairman of the State Emergency Relief Board should know whereof he speaks. He told us that we were spending six and two-thirds millions of dollars per month for relief at that time. That was in February. This bill provides only one mililon per month for the months of April and May.

Unemployment is increasing steadily. Shops are closing down regularly. The banking situation has made the industrial situation much worse instead of better, and yet we are trying to satisfy ourselves by passing a bill appropriating only one million dollars a month to keep two million people. That is only fifty cents per month per person for relief.

Of course we expect to get some money from the R. F. C. but can we justly expect the Federal Government to add five and two-thirds million dollars to the one million dollars that this Commonwealth is appropriating? If I understand it correctly, they have refused to make any further allotment to this State until this Legislature does what it is able to do in the matter. Is the rich, wealthy State of Pennsylvania prepared to say that they are able to appropriate less than one-sixth of the sum that is absolutely necessary to keep our unemployed from starving during the months of April and May? That in effect is what this bill says. It is a stop gap. It is something, and I shall vote for it for that reason, and I shall vote for it with my tongue in my check, with the full realization that it is not sufficient.

I do not believe that we should hesitate, if it is necessary, in order to keep people from starving to levy additional taxes.

I have said before on this floor, and I say again, that if it is necessary, in order to keep the unemployed of this Commnowealth who are out of work through no fault of their own, who are forbidden to enter the industries not because they do not want to but because the industries are not operating, if it becomes necessary, in order to keep those people from starving, to take every dollar of the rich man's wealth, then it is our bounden duty to do it. I think, further, that we can raise the money to do it. You may say that every income has been reduced due to unemployment, that the rich men are not getting what they were getting. Well, members of the House, even if a few men have told you that they are not getting what they were getting, I still believe they are getting sufficient to pay taxes enough to keep the unemployed from starving. If they are not, then it is our duty as legislators of this Commonwealth to go further. If the owners of private industries are unable to open up their industries, if they are not in a position to give the unemployed jobs, in order that they may be kept from starving, then it is the duty of this Legislature to take over those industries, give the unemployed jobs and help them earn wages, so that they can buy the necessities of life for themselves. That is what they want, that is what they need, and if you cannot get it by taxation, then let us do it the other way, but don't let us fold our arms and think that we have done our duty by passing a bill that only provides fifty cents per person per month in this State.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 997.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 24, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 997, Printer's No. 104, entitled, "An Act to amend section fourteen of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 280), entitled 'An Act relating to delinquent taxes on seated lands and prescribing interest charges on non-payment thereof, requiring the receivers and collectors of county, city, borough, town, township, school district and poor district taxes to make a return to the county commissioners of such unpaid taxes and providing for the lien thereof; authorizing the county treasurers to collect such taxes and to sell seated lands at public sale for taxes heretofore or hereafter returned as unpaid, and authorizing the county commissioners to purchase such lands and resell the same under certain circumstances,' providing that when the county commissioners do purchase such lands the deeds thereto shall be acknowledged in the court of common pleas."

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

MEMORIAL SERVICES IN HONOR OF DECEASED MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10.00 having arrived the Chair lays before the House the Special Order of business—Memorial Services to the Honorable Jacob Mathay and the Honorable Thomas J. Brown.

The Chair requests the Chairman of the Memorial Committee, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long, to approach the rostrum and take charge of the services.

(MR. LONG IN THE CHAIR)

MEMORIAL SERVICE

The CHAIRMAN. If there are any members of the families of the Honorable Thomas Brown or the Honorable Jacob Mathay in the audience, they will kindly come forward and occupy the seats reserved for them.

Our fellow member, Honorable Reverend Frank W. Ruth, from Berks, will offer the prayer.

The Reverend Frank W. Ruth offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, this evening we draw aside from our busy life to pay our tribute of respect to the memory of those of our number who have finished their course in this earthly life. We pray that Thou wouldst receive our gratitude and thankfulness as coming from the bottom of our hearts for their lives and efforts in behalf of Thy children, the people of our great State.

We ask Thy Divine blessing to rest upon those who mourn a dear one. May they in their sorrow look back in memory and realize the great heritage left to them by those who have been faithful.

Teach us to know that through the grim gateway whose gloomy portals open upon a mystery which the yearning eyes of humanity have never penetrated or solved, all created beings which from the beginning have trod the earth in life have passed, and through that same gateway all created beings now living or hereafter to be born must surely go. Teach us that the gift of earthly life brings with it the certainty of earthly death.

As Thou hast taught us that in the course of life youth, strength and vigor must pass from us with the lapse of years to give way to the feebleness and helplessness of age. So Thou dost also teach us that death does not always wait until the tree of life is withered, nor does it always give warning of its approach by robbing the vigorous limbs of their strength, by whitening the locks, by dimming the brightness of the eye, or causing the elastic step to become feeble and wavering. Thou dost teach us every day that death comes at times without warning to robust youth and vigorous manhood; and so the message came to those of our number whose untimely death we this evening commemorate. When to the human eye they seemed in full vigor of health, when, judging by years, they were in the very prime of manhood, death placed its finger upon their hearts and they were still.

Thus resigned to Thy Holy Will we place ourselves into Thy keeping. What our tomorrows may bring forth Thou alone knowest. Help us to be faithful and true to the great trust committed into our care, so that when our course of earthly life is completed we may come unto Thee in the knowledge that we have done the best that we could. Then we know that we shall hear Thy Divine Voice in "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, Thou has been true to thy trust, enter thou into the joy of Thy Lord."

In the Master's Holy Name, Amen.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Speaker, fellow members of the House, and ladies and gentlemen: In accordance with the long cherished traditions of this Legislative body, now is the time when we are called upon to proceed with our memorial services in honor of those of our former members whose souls have been transported to the Great Beyond.

It is indeed most fitting that we should pause in our legislative duties to commemorate the memory of our deceased members including more particularly the late Honorable Thomas Brown and the late Honorable Jacob Mathay, and to make a lasting public record of the honor and respect in which both of these gentlemen were and are regarded.

Members of this House of Representatives who have been intimately acquainted with these honorable men will speak to you this evening and refresh your memories of their sterling qualities of character and of their valuable and conscientious services rendered to their fellow members, to their respective constituents and to all the people of the great State of Pennsylvania.

The male chorus sang "Lead Kindly Light."

The former of these two men lived to a ripe old age of usefulness, much more than the allotted span of three score years and ten, while the latter left us while in the prime of his life. Both of them were men we could ill afford to lose. We shall miss them, not only as our friends but we shall be deprived of their valuable assistance, their knowledge and their experience in the performance of our legislative duties. Yes, in the death of these two gentlemen the State has suffered an irreparable loss.

We have invited to be with us this evening members of the family and the friends of both of these gentlemen, and we are honored by their presence. Our hearts go out in sympathy to those dear loved ones who have suffered a more intimate loss than we have.

However, let us not be sad, but rather let us be proud in acknowledging that we have known and appreciated these God-fearing gentlemen who have heard the call of their Creator and thereto have responded.

The following lines are particularly appropriate to be read on this occasion:

"Life's span is short at best, you know;
If you like a man, then tell him so;
A flower's fragrance is always shed
Upon the living, not the dead.
The blooms we place upon the bier are of't a token,

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Honorable Norman Wood.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Chariman, ladies and gentlemen of the House, relatives and friends of our departed colleagues.

It seems fitting and proper that I should speak, briefly tonight, of the high place which Thomas J. Brown occupied in the hearts of the people, not only the members of this House but of the entire district which he had the honor to represent so capably. Those members of the House who were present at the funeral services must have been impressed by the large assemblage of people, who had gathered to pay their last tribute of respect for their friend and neighbor, whom they loved, respected and honored.

He lived to enjoy a good old age, nearly four score, years filled with many pleasures and hard work. Whatever may have been his activities in his younger years, however, prosperous he may have been during the years of his vigorous manhood, the noontime of his activities yet in the evening time of his earthly career, how venerable, how admirable he was.

Few if any of the members ever approached his duties in this House with more zeal and determination than did Thomas J. Brown. From the beginning of the session until the end he was always regularly in his seat devoting all his time to the study of the many measures under consideration.

He did not sponser many bills, believing in the principle that the fewer new laws the better, but when he put his name on a bill you knew that it had merit and was worthy of consideration. His voice was not heard often in debate on this floor, but in committee rooms, where the real work is in any legislative body, he took an active part and his advice was always good and worth listening too. His most important committees were Education, Ways and Means and Appropriations.

He weighed every subject carefully before he made a decision and when he reached a conclusion he kept to it in the face of great odds.

Mr. Brown was born in Yorkshire, England, in 1855, and was brought to this country by his parents when he was four years old. He received his education in Philadelphia and University of Pennsylvania. He entered the textile mills in Philadelphia when he was a small boy and learned the business in all its branches. In 1888, in company with his brothers, they started in the cotton and woolen business in Philadelphia, which they operated until 1891, when they moved to Mount Joy. Here he became associated with the George Brown Sons woolen and silk manufacturing. He was made president of the firm in 1919. In 1895, he became a director of the First National Bank of Mount Joy, of which he became president of the board later.

He was greatly interested in public education, being a school director of the borough of Mount Joy for many years. He also was a director of the Lancaster General Hospital. Also was president of the Lancaster Manufactures Association in 1923.

He was a home man, a man who loved his home and family as well as the community in which he lived. He loved his friends and neighbors. This is attested to by the large crowd of people who assembled to attend his funeral, people from all walks of life. He was very active in the work of his church, being a regular attendant thereof.

In 1929, Mr. and Mrs. Brown celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and a resolution was adopted by this House congratulating them on that occasion. Mr. Brown was escorted to the rostrum and thanked the members most heartily.

He first entered these halls in 1923 and has served in every regular session since and in the special sessions of 1926, 1931-1932. We entered the legislature on the same day.

While coming from the same county, I did not know Mr. Brown until that time. In the several sessions when we sat side by side I came to know and more fully appreciate the splendid qualities of the man. I can say in all that time that I never once heard him say anything but a good word of any member of this House. Where praise might not be given criticism was withheld.

Public men and women are often condemned, their positions and motives misunderstood. Therefore it is fitting and proper that we should make a public record of the splendid qualities that they possessed and to note the good they were able to accomplish.

We can say honored as he was by being chosen to public life and service in this great legislative body, that he courageously embraced the opportunity and carried on his responsibilities with dignity and honor.

He will live long in the affections of those who knew him. The inspiration of his life and achievements will not die but will live on duplicating and reduplicating itself in the lives of others. And that, I take it is a memorial greater than any of marble or bronze, a memorial in the hearts of men.

His health commenced to fail during the special session of 1931 and he was not able to attend the opening sessions but he rallied and was in attendance at the closing. During the special session of 1932 although in feeble health he insisted and did attend the entire session, many times when he should have been at home.

He was a candidate for re-election for this session, but he died one week before the general election. His constituency did him honor (for work faithfully and honorably performed in the past) by electing him for another term by a large majority.

I remember the last time that he was in this room, the final day of the last special session. We sat around after adjournment and talked. It seemed that he did not want to leave. When we shook hands and said good-by, I believe that he felt deep down in his heart that he would never return again.

In closing this brief eulogy of my former friend and colleague, let me point out that Thomas J. Brown was true to himself, to his friends, and to his public duties. In this connection, I am reminded of those lines from Shakespeare:

"This above all, to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not be false to any man."

The male chorus sang "Abide With Me."

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Honorable James A. Bennett.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of this Assembly and friends of our late deceased colleague, Jacob Mathay; it was with a good deal of sadness of heart that I answered the call of your Chairman to pay a brief tribute to the memory of one whom it has been my sincere pleasure to have known for the best part of twenty years.

As a lawyer in the city of Philadelphia he came to the practice with a fine euridition and a keen and disciplined mind that won the esteem, regard and admiration, not only of his fellow practitioners, but of the gentlemen of that city that graced the bench. He lived up to the highest ethics and the highest traditions for which the city of Philadelphia stands preeminent, regarded and respected throughout the Universe where the practice of law is prevalent.

In his public life he sat in the councils of his city with honor to himself and with signal service to the people of Philadelphia. His political life may well be held aloft as an example of fine living, clean thinking, square dealing. Never one to speak, was Jacob Mathay, with the split tongue of deception; never the taint hypocracy in his actions toward his fellow men. He lived lovably, likeably and loyally.

If there is one particular tribute, if there is one distinguishing characteristic that stands out in his life, it is his gracious sense of loyalty, not only to himself, but to his fellow men that he had the pleasure to associate with, and that also had the pleasure of his association.

He came to this body ten years ago, and to the men and the women that have known him, need I speak to you? how utterly unnecessary, how halting and inadequate must be any little tribute of mine! Aye, even if the most gifted man of eloquence, oratory and brilliant phraseology could come here tonight to paint the picture in words to any man that served in this or any body of similar character, he would not, nor could not do justice to that character. Alas, too soon he left his seat in this House. Mild! reticent! humble! the hallmark of the great in life as we look over life's cavalcade of men and women, is humility. The indomitable stamp of all true greatness.

No one had to ingratiate himself into the friendship of Jacob Mathay; nobody had to crash the door of the room wherein he sat; nobody had to kowtow; nobody had to approach with the feeling that he held a superiority complex; Jacob Mathay did not swell up with importance of the duty that was placed on his shoulders in serving in this body, but he grew and expanded magnificiently like a real man. Vanity was unknown to his character. Some fine stamp of blood and heritage so marked on him at birth made him stand out through summer sun and the winds of adversity of winter, that he was always the same to all men and to all women. Truly he exemplified in man as well as anyone I know that great injunction of the Master, of the great Leader, of the great Friend, of the great Brother, He who said, "He who is greatest amongst you, let him be servant unto all." Jacob Mathay gloried in the service he gave to you and me and to his constituents of Philadelphia and to the State of Pennsylvania in general.

I could go on indefinitely and yet have painted only a frail and meager picture of that splendid character; his loyalty as a public servant, as a lawmaker, as a friend, as a colleague, as an American, as a great citizen of this great State, and yet I could not with my meager equipment do anything but poor justice to his memory.

There was a still finer side to him than anything I have just said. Essentially, fundamentally and primarily, Jacob Mathay was a home man; he loved his home. He loved to labor for his loved ones who sit here tonight bereaving his loss and bowed down with sorrow. The great center, the great core, the great preservative, if you will, of all civilization is the home, and he held his duty to his home as something sacred. The first and last consideration of all his private and public activities was his home. Tonight he has passed out with a mantle of dusk robed about him; out to the horizon of eternity, to stand in the glory of God's eternal sunlight, and hear the welcome of the hymn that you have just heard sung "Abide With Me."

His race was run nobly and cleanly; his honor was unsullied; he leaves behind him a proud heritage and legacy of character, courage, duty and work well done; a faith completely kept that is as precious as apples of silver in baskets of gold. His family! No mere words of mine can assuage their troubles or their sorrows. Nothing that I can contribute would compensate the grief and loss they must feel in their hearts tonight, but that gift remains with them, the glorious gift of memory that God alone gives to man, the superior animal of civilization and creation. Memory will always hold for them that glorious picture that in their household lived one of God's finest creatures, a man.

In this House tonight his seat stands idle and empty, but to you, my friends, I feel that we, the members of this House, who knew him over an extended number of years, or only briefly during this sesison, he shall always occupy the golden chair of friendship in the corridors of time, while memory shall last in the minds of every one of us.

I feel that I express the sentiment of this House on this sad and solemn occasion when I conclude and say:

"Bright be the stars around thee,
Friend of our happier days;
None knew thee but to love thee,
None met thee but to praise."

The CHAIRMAN. Jacob Mathay as you know was a member of the Lutheran Church. Your Committee has been informed by Mrs. Mathay that his favorite hymn was that grand old hymn written by Martin Luther, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," which I will now ask the male chorus to sing for us.

The male chorus sang "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mercer, the Reverend Hugh M. Stevenson, who will pronounce the benediction.

The Honorable Hugh M. Stevenson pronounced the benediction:

Now may the blessing of God the Father, the grace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, the communion and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit rest upon and abide with you all evermore. Amen.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair now declares the Memorial Services at an end.

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 27, 1933.

Whereas, The first duty of the Commonwealth is to safe- ard the people, and to make secure the lives and liberties d the happiness of the men, women and children whose in- stry and existence is at all times essential to the peace and od order of the same, and

Whereas, No people can be free and equal before the law ien the right of petition and representation is denied them the mere will and caprice of any existing majority in their ate Assembly, and

Whereas, We are confronted at this time with an existing ndition of State-wide unemployment which has deprived large rtions of our populatio in our large cities, and elsewhere, their accustomed means of livelihood, and impoverish and iously menace the stability of our homes, and our financial d industrial activities, and sufficiently endanger our existing litical institutions, and

Whereas, It is deemed desirable at this time that the right petition and the right of representation be made more gen- al and secure in this session, and all bills and resolutions in- oduced, and the sponsors thereof, given an opportunity to be ard, therefore be it

Resolved, That Rule No. 40 of this House of Representatives amended, by striking out the last seven words which are follows: "majority vote of all the members elect," and in- rting in lieu thereof the following, "a one-third vote of all e members elect, and placed upon the calendar," so that the ction as amended will read as follows:

No. 40, That when a bill or resolution has been ten days in e hands of a committee, after having been referred to it, any mmittee may be discharged from the further consideration the bill or resolution by a one-third vote of all the members ect, and placed upon the calendar.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent r the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there jections?

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED (SPECIAL ORDER)

The SPEAKER. The hour of 11.00 o'clock having arrived the Chair lays before the House the Special Order of business fixed for this time, bills on third reading postponed.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1374, Printer's No. 280, on page 2 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed (special order).

Agreebaly to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Wilson,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1374, entitled:

An Act relating to the minimum salaries and annual increments of the teaching and supervisory staffs of the public schools; granting power to the State Council of Education to permit, as to certain school districts, temporary reductions in the salary schedules; authorizing the State Council of education to suspend mandatory provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," and of its amendments and amendments and supplements; prohibiting school districts from demanding, requesting or accepting gifts or donations from members of the teaching and supervisory staffs, and empowering the Superintendent of Public Instruction to forfeit certain State subsidies for violations thereof; and temporarily superseding any inconsistent acts and parts of acts.

On the question, recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. It is unfortunate that the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, has partially lost his voice, but he has the courage to go through with the bills under the special order of business. The Chair, as a special request, asks that order be maintained during the special order of business.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the committee in framing this legislation was confronted by two different angles of the situation. First, a great section of our population has insisted that the structure of the Edmonds' Act be broken down entirely, and that the school districts of the State be authorized to hire teachers at such prices as they can hire them.

On the other hand there has been strong pressure to preserve for the teachers their structure, but in the meantime make some temporary arrangements by which the school districts could get through the next biennium.

We have set this bill from the Committee on Education. It has been drawn after consultation between the sub-committee of the House on Education and the sub-committee of the Senate on Education, and what it is is largely known to everybody here.

It allows the school districts, the directors of the local districts, to make, first, a ten per cent. reduction in salaries. If their financial picture is such that a ten per cent. reduction in salaries will not allow them to get through, the bill allows them to bring in to the Superintendent of Public Instruction their budget showing their financial picture, and showing that they have put their house in order, and with his consent they may make any mandatory reduction that is necessary in order to keep the schools running

There is one other provision that has to do with this bill, and the Committee on Education of this House thought it was in the bill, but it is not there, and I wish to promise the House that it will be placed in the bill in the Senate, and that is the provision by which a teacher may go on paying the rate toward retirement and the same rate as she pays now, and thus protect herself in her retirement, so that at the end of the biennium, when we take up the salary as it is now she will be unaffected. This is just what this House has had to do, and we are here saying that we are handing back to the districts this question of getting through the next two years, with the proviso that before they cut the teachers more than ten per cent., they must show that they have put their house in order.

I regret, Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, that my voice is in such a condition that I cannot say more than this, but I will be glad to answer any questions and to be interrogated by anybody that wishes to interrogate me.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with due consideration to the work that the committee has done on these bills, with due appreciation for their sincerity and for their endeavor in trying to correct a certain condition, and with full appreciation of the desire on the part of our people back home for us to enact economy legislation, I get up at this time to oppose the passage of this bill. I feel that a wrong procedure is being pursued by the promoters of this legislation. I cannot understand why a calamity that has been brought upon us, in the first place, as an aftermath of war, by wild speculation with the peoples' money, by excessive profits and other things of that nature, a condition that cannot be charged to the teachers, can be cured by reducing the standards of education. I feel that this is a very dangerous proposition that is before us this evening. I feel that education is the most valued possession of the working class of people. I feel that they would be the sole losers if this bill goes through, and I feel that we should give very careful consideration to the matter before we take any definite action upon it.

I know the public is rather hysterical about the high expense of our educational system, but I know also that there are natural reasons why it should be high. The different faculties that have been added to the educational department in the State in the last two decades has made it impossible for it to be any different.

I believe if this measure goes through, that is the beginning of a general reduction for the laboring class all the way down. If our State government sets a precedent like this, there will be no defense for any other class of laborer.

I feel that our teachers were very patient during the war period. When other increases were being granted to the different classes of labor, they stood by and they waited until the time came when the Legislature voluntarily gave them the present school code, the Edmonds Act, and that Edmonds Act has set up standards not any too high. The teachers are entitled to all the consideration they get under that standard. It is not high compared with other professions. When we consider that teachers have to prepare themselves in a college by attending four years, and then spend pretty nearly all of their time in additional preparations to carry on the work that we demand of them, I think that their pay is very reasonable, and I believe that the Educational Department should be the last department under the State government that should be attacked by this kind of economy.

It is an easy matter for us to jump at conclusions. The system that we have today we have worked many years to obtain, and now we may come along and destroy the whole system just by a rash act.

My friends, if this legislation passes at this time, it means that we are going to trade a part of our educational system for something to put in the stomachs of the people who are hungry. It is not a permanent relief. The best we can expect from it is that it will be repeated in two years from now, and then we may be asked to take off another chunk from our educational system of probably four or eight million dollars, and in following that procedure I want to ask how much better we can consider ourselves then Esau who was condemned for selling his birthright for a mess of pottage.

I think that education means too much in the lives of us all to take any hasty action like this and reduce the standards.

It is a matter that should be given much consideration, and therefore I ask the members of this House to consider it very carefully before giving an "aye" vote.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the primary feature of this bill as I view it, is one of economy. We have heard this evening the statement from our worthy Speaker that the economy program for State Government will reveal that we will not be short in funds, and that we will have sufficient funds to take care of the schools for the next two years. In addition to what my colleague has stated about this bill, I oppose it for the further reason that it is taking from the local community its right to control and regulate and maintain its own schools. All of us are familiar with that old expression that it is not disgrace to be poor, but it is mighty unhandy.

Under the terms of this bill, if the school district is unable to pay its school teachers ninety per cent of the wages they now receive, then the Superintendent of Public Instruction may step in and take charge of the school district Under those terms, members of the House, the Superintendent of Public Instruction becomes an absolute dictator. By the terms of the bill, not only may he look after the salaries of teachers, but he may suspend any provisions of the School Code, and if he may suspend any of them, he may suspend them all and that makes him sole dictator of the school system. As I view it, it will make the school system a slave to his wishes, and I oppose the bill for that reason and I hope you will help me to vote it down.

Mr. O'ROURKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that this bill is a very good measure, and if it were not for one section therein, I would give it one hundred per cent support. That is section four, wherein it is provided that the salaries of the instructors and teachers shall be placed on a sliding scale, and on that sliding scale there is no stopping point. We must, and I believe we will, maintain a standard for our present school system, but we will not be maintaining it if we are to place the teachers and instructors upon a starvation wage. I would suggest that the sponsor of this bill, if it possible to insert in there a stopping point on this sliding scale, a percentage point of not less than or under eight per cent., otherwise I am afraid I will have to oppose the bill because I am in favor of placing nobody of labor on a sliding scale.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me that the gentleman from Allegheny is missing this point in the bill, the situation that confronts so many of our school districts, that even if given a ten or twenty percent of an allowance or a reduction in teachers' salaries, that even then they cannot meet the situation.

We have been asked to reduce these salaries twenty percent. That would not, it seems to me, be fair to our teachers about whom the gentleman from Luzerne has spoken. The fallacy of the argument of the gentleman from Luzerne lies in the fact that he measures the quality of education by the amount of money that is paid for it. That, it seems to me, is a slur upon the fine teaching corps of this state who I am certain are willing to make every sacrifice that it is possible to make to carry on the educational standards as they exist today.

We are confronted with this problem, that if we made the reduction ten percent still many of the districts could not carry on and even if we made it twenty percent many of the districts cannot carry on. Many of the districts said "Let us bargain with the teachers ourselves," but that did not seem to be fair to the teachers. Some believed that there ought to be a stopping point and some believe that there ought to be an opportunity for these districts to carry on or many of them must close.

We know that in the last session of the Legislature we were told there were at least five hundred bankrupt districts in the state and we appropriated a large sum of many to help out those districts. Since that time conditions have become steadily worse and now there are thousands of those districts in the state that have been given an opportunity to keep their schools open, and you are therefore met with the dilemma, as I see it, whether we shall find many districts where the school will have to be closed, or whether it will be necessary to close the schools and therefore throw our teachers out of employment entirely, or whether we shall devise some scheme whereby there may be a reduction. Before the teachers are called upon to take a reduction we must be certain that every economy in these school districts has been effected. Some place there must be some person, some arbitrary authority before whom these facts can be brought, some place where a budget can be adopted for every school district if we are to protect the teachers in the state during the next two years.

think this bill is fair. I think it offers the only opportun that we have to carry on, and we cannot in this depres close our schools. The American Federation of Labor has that the schools are the greatest police force in this co and I believe that. I believe we should not have sho terms, I believe we should carry on, and I believe in app to the patriotism of the teachers of this state. We shoul to the teachers, we have protected you from every angl sible, but you are like every other person in this countr has had to take a reduction and who is still carrying on we must say to the teachers of our state we will protec from every angle possible. They have taken cuts of ten, fi and even twenty percent in their salaries, and we must s the teachers of our state, if the schools are to be kept if we are to keep up this school system, if we are to have e cation for the children, you must be placed on some propo tion that will protect you.

Men, I trust that you will not heed these calls to vote again this bill but that you will give it very careful consideration.

The Governor cut the sum in the budget of fifty-eig million to fifty-three million. That was less than a ten pe cent cut. Education takes thirty-three and a third percen the public schools take one-third of the total estimate budget of one hundred and fifty-eight million dollars.

You have heard the Speaker say we have to reduce our ex penses twenty-five percent. If we are asking the school di tricts to take a cut of less than ten percent of the subsidi of the state, if we are asking the school teachers to take a cut of less than ten per cent, and beyond that if necessary. I believe that is a logical basis upon which to place them and I ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not my intention to tarry for any length of time or to prolong this debate, but I think this is a most vital item of income, not only for the state but for municipal control.

After listening to the various objections filed by the various members, one in particular that may be misleading, and I think it is, the gentleman form Cambria, who made the statement that it is written into this proposed act that if this act were passed it would give to the Superintendent of Education the power of suspending the entire school code, if he so desires. I see no such language in this bill. If that emanates from a group of people, emanating from an untruthful statement, then they should receive the same criticism that arose on the floor of this House last Thursday morning when the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Surface, presented a telegram issued by the teachers of Hazleton, Pennsylvania, sending out a warning to every member of the Legsilative group that "we are watching your vote and the teachers of the State of Pennsylvania will use that against you at your next attempt to be elected to the Legislative body of Pennsylvania."

The same condemnation that emanated from the gentleman to my right, Mr. Surface, should come to those ladies and gentlemen who stand sponsor for such a falsehood, because nothing in the bill provides for any suspension of any of the provisions of the Code other than the question of salaries.

Ladies and gentlemen, I not only speak from hearsay but I speak from knowledge obtained in my own particular district. There are many municipalities who are unable at this day to pay the teachers their salaries from the present return from the taxable income of the particular political subdivision. I say to every teacher within the hearing of my voice, nothing in this bill would destroy the principle or the established price for the salary of that teacher until that school directorate would come to Harrisburg and present their books and present their arguments and show that they were unable to meet their obligation, and after proving that there was no extravagance in that budget of that school district that could be surcharged, then the Superintendent of Education may, if he so desires, and honestly believes that the picture painted is one of truth and not a false statement, then he can, if he thinks in his better judgment that the people of that political subdivision cannot meet the requirements of this bill, then he can act.

Again I say, and I say this without fear of contradiction, I know of no man in Pennsylvania who stands more on all fours for the teachers of this State than Jim Rule, and I say as an experienced man who has sat in conference with him in the session of 1931, the extraordinary session of 1931 and the extraordinary session of 1932, and who to the present day still adheres to the principle that the teachers today are not overpaid but are underpaid.

I say to you, my friends, have no apprehension, Jim Rule will not destroy the teachers' salary as long as he is Superintendent of Instruction of Pennsylvania, because he endears himself with the spirit of teaching, and he is not only a student of yesterday or of five or ten years ago, but of many years. I say that somebody must be entrusted with some decency and honesty, and I know of no better man to entrust with that than Jim Rule.

There are teachers in many communities of the State who are only receiving six, ten, twelve or twenty-five per cent. of their salaries and in many townships I know of they have not received a cent of salary for four or five months.

This bill does only one thing; it sets up a reduction of ten percent. and if for any reason the school directors must make a reduction below ninety percent. they must first show their reason why, and I am willing to entrust unto James Rule as Superintendent of Instruction the particular program that this bill carries with it. I see nothing wrong in passing this bill and I hope and trust the members of the House will vote for it.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had not intended to enter into this debate, but I cannot remain silent under the statements that have been made here on the floor tonight.

In the first place, the fact that a few teachers have used poor judgment, have used improper language in appealing to the members of this House should not be held against sixty-two thousand teachers in Pennsylvania. It is entirely unfair that what a small group of teachers may do should be held against the teachers of Pennsylvania in general.

In the next place, I was reminded, when listening to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, of a story, or rather of an occurrence that happened in my boyhood days. A farmer and his sons with six slapping horses got stuck in the mud. They started to beat the horses. One ran backward and the other ran forward, and they were getting nowhere. The wagon stuck deeper and deeper. Finally the son called to the father, "Father, hit this one quick. Here is the one that still pulls." The argument of the gentleman from Delaware, is along the same line, he uses the same psychology. He says the teachers of Pennsylvania have been patient, they have been faithful, they have been the best policemen in Pennsylvania, they have rendered excellent service, therefore they will better bear the burden that will be thrown upon them by this proposition.

I believe that is wrong in principle. I should have voted for the bill had the fourth section of the bill been cut out, because practically all of the teachers in my section of the State were in favor of Bill 1374 with section four cut out. They were willing to bear their share of the burden, they were willing to accept the ten per cent reduction as their contribution to this emergency, but they feel that any reduction beyond ten per cent would be both unfair and unjust.

Only yesterday or the day before yesterday the Governor of this Commonwealth issued a statement in which he said that he would agree to a reduction of ten per cent in the salaries of State employes, but the first twelve hundred dollars must be exempt. I have nothing against the State employes of Pennsylvania who, on the whole, are much more highly paid than the teachers of Pennsylvania. The laws of the Commonwealth have raised the standard of the teachers year after year. They have had to spend time, money and effort in order to acquire a license to teach and every year that standard has been raised higher and higher, whereas on the other hand many of these State employes are picked up here and there without any particular preparation, and yet the Governor says he will not stand for more than a ten per cent cut, and that it must be on salaries above twelve hundred dollars.

I am a member of this sub-committee that framed House Bill, or at least a part of House Bill No. 22. In that bill we provide that there shall be no cuts in salaries below fifteen hundred dollars, because that sub-committee took the stand that a man or woman working for the State of Pennsylvania was entitled to a living wage. Under the Sterling bill, the first seven hundred and fifty dollars was exempt, or rather under the Sterling report. Under practically every other bill that has been brought into this Legislature for the reduction of salaries there has been an exemption of either seven hundred and fifty dollars, a thousand dollars or twelve or fifteen hundred dollars—along that line. But here is a bill that permits no exemption. Here is a bill that cuts down to the very bottom without any stop to it, without anything at all, practically tearing down all the barriers and suggests what we may expect under the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The last sentence of the Governor's statement issued on Saturday, and he gave warning that he would not sign any bill which would cut deeper than what the Governor said—this is the last sentence of the Governor's statement, he said that it would be unfair to cut the small fellow while the big fellow goes uncut, or at least language to that effect.

Now, then, if the highly paid employe here on Capitol Hill in the various State offices will not be cut more than ten per cent., and they then have an extention of $1,200, I ask you, is it fair that the teachers of Pennsylvania should bear this heavy burden, or bear more than their share? These teachers have spent years in preparing, and not only that, every teacher in this Commonwealth knows that after you have become a teacher, after you have received the position, you are supposed to go to a summer school practically every summer, you are supposed to keep up your preparation in order to be up-to-date, and if you do not do that you are considered a back number, and when your superintendent comes around and gives you the teaching rating, you are rated as non-progressive, you are rated as a back-number teacher, unless you have spent a few months, or at least six weeks in some summer school from time to time and from year to year. The public school teacher must ever be on the alert, she must ever keep up her studies, she must study at night her lessons and plans and prepare for the next day.

I want to say further that it has been stated that the tendency of this bill, if it is passed in this House, will mean that there will be cuts in the lower ranks, in the ranks of labor all along the line. It will serve as sort of precedent, for the Governor says that State employes earning three, four, five or six thousand dollars a year may not be cut more than ten per cent. and then have an exemption of $1,200, which may not be touched.

The teachers of Pennsylvania are willing to carry their share of the burden in this emergency. They stand willing and ready to submit to a ten per cent. cut or to any cut that is fair and reasonable, but they feel, the same as the Governor feels, the same as expressed by him in the last sentence of his statement on Saturday, that it would be unfair to cut the little fellow and to let the big fellow to remain uncut.

I want you to understand that the teachers of Pennsylvania are not trying to back out of this emergency, they are not trying to slink away and not carry their share of the burden. but they do hope for a fair deal, they are looking for a square deal. If this program is defeated there is still time to rebuild, there is still time to formulate a program which gives a squarer deal and a larger measure of justice to the teachers.

But it is not only the teachers that are affected by this bill. It means that the morale of the schools will be broken down, it means that the boys and the girls will be the first ones to suffer and to render aid in this emergency. We have one hundred million dollars of roads money, we have money for high salaries in other directions. Why should public school teachers who receive a minimum of eight hundred dollars a year, and are willing to take a cut of ten per cent that brings them down to seven hundred and twenty dollars a year, why should a seven hundred and twenty dollar a year teacher be the first one to bring in his mite and to make his contribution?

We are willing to make our contribution as is fair and equitable, but we are not willing to make our contribution while others go untouched and unscathed, those who can afford it much better and who have had less preparation in their life's work than the teachers of Pennsylvania.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Berks when he is not a member of the legislature, what is his occupation.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, my occupation is that of a teacher. I think every member of this legislature knows it.

Mr. TURER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I never knew that the gentleman from Berks took the Governor so seriously as to feel that his statement in the paper was that it would be enacted into legislation.

I want to point out to my friend from Berks, that under the recommendations of the Sterling Committee and under the recommendations of the Howell resolution, which is now in this House, that one of the provisions is to allow an exemption of seven hundred and fifty dollars and to make the cut on the basis of twenty per cent. In other words, if a man receives a fifteen hundred dollar salary he would deduct his maximum of seven hundred and fifty dollars and then deduct twenty per cent. of the balance or one hundred and fifty dollars, which would be a ten per cent. cut. If you will take it on a basis of a ten thousand dollar salary, you will find that the the cut is about twenty per cent. and when you get to the Governor, although it is said he takes sixteen hundred and eighty dollars, you will find in House Bill No. 22 and under the recommendation of the Sterling Committee and the Howell resolution, his cut will be thirty-five hundred dollars. Maybe he won't sign it, but maybe it will become a law anyhow.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. The enactment at this time of House Bill 1386—the measure now under consideration—would represent a leap in the dark.

The Committee on education—and its subcommittee have been forced to grapple with the educational problems of this Commonwealth while encased in a financial straight jacket.

The educational program presented to this House has been based upon the supposition there is exactly fifty-three million dollars—no more—no less available subject to appropriation for the support of education in this Commonwealth during the coming biennium. If the fifty-three million dollar premise is sound your educational committee has presented to you a program that is sound. Granting the validity of the premise there is no escaping the logic of your committees reasoning. A fifty-three million dollar fund can only be interpreted in terms of reduced appropriations alloted to the various districts.

So I have not arisen Mr. Speaker for the purpose of attempting to controvert the reasoning of your educational committee. Instead, I have arisen to challenge the premise. Moreover I have arisen in this forum because only the house can decide the issue. Your educational committee is bound by its budget. But this House makes budgets. I am not speaking out of any sympathy for or kindly feeling toward the so-called educational lobby which has upon occasion infested this session. Neither am I the legislative agent of those educators who would lead us to believe that a dollar denied the teacher will result in irreparable injury to the children in the schools. The boys and girls of Pennsylvania would evolve into useful men and women if the schools of the State went on half-time and were taught by instructors receiving half pay. The instructors who weep least this legislature deny educational opportunity to the youth of the land are usually shedding one tear for the children and three tears for themselves.

I am not opposed to reductions in the salaries paid teachers if those reductions are necessary items in a comprehensive plan. But I am opposed to a budget and a plan of procedure which starts the economy program with the teacher and gives me no assurance it is going anywhere else.

I am willing to extend my regrets to the teachers of this State and slice their salaries to any extent that is necessary. But I am not willing to cut the salary of the teachers in order that we may be certain of having enough money on hand to pay the judges, their present rate of salary. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, we could pick up $600,000 simply by putting the judges back on the 1929 salary schedule. And we could get another $125,000 by simply wiping out the extra compensation allowed the gypsy judges—holding them to an expense basis when they hold court outside their districts. I am not willing to cut the pay given the teachers just so we can be certain it will not be necessary to cut our own salaries. Before I help pare the salary paid the teacher in rural Cambria County I want to see the salary reductions to which the Department of Instruction in all its branches, branches and far flung ramifications is prepared to accept. I sympathize with the plight in which the school districts in my county find themselves. But I cannot forget it costs my county $140,000 a year to collect its taxes while the man who could get the job for $40,000 a year would make an everlasting fortune. It is not exactly cricket for a county to waste a hundred thousand dollars and then come crying for State aid or appear in support of a program designed to make both ends meet by paring the pay of the teachers.

I am willing to compel the teachers to come in under the economy tent but I don't believe in shoving them in first or compelling them to stay there alone—as a group.

I am interested in the teachers but I am more interested in the plight in which the school districts find themselves. And I am not convinced that $53,000,000 is the limit. I am not a financial expert—but if anything ever was in a state of flux its the proposed budget for the ensuing biennium. About all I know I read in the papers—and the Legislative Journal. I learn on one page that the commonwealth's general fund income during the next two years will be $158,000,000. Then I see responsible leaders of this house quoted to the effect that perhaps the income will be only $135,000,000. But the people who say $135,000,000 probably do not include the governor's $20,000,000 economy program. And the governor does not include the eight million dollar economy program sponsored by the committee on state government. And I have no way of knowing whether either the committee on state government or the governor have included any of many recommendations emanating from the Sterling committee.

And there is no certain way of telling whether either the governor, the committee on state government, or the Sterling committee have included beer among the states revenues assets. The only bench mark in the whole legislative landscape would appear to be the $53,000,000 appropriation for education. That figure is supposed to be sound and a proper point of departure in the financial deliberations of this house. Mr. Speaker, before I accept the figures I want to see the rest of the program. The budget framed by his excellency the governor did not contemplate a general salary reduction including all governmental officers and employes—particularly the judges.

I am conscious of the fact that many of the districts importuning this legislature for assistance wasted their substance in building Grecian palaces which they labeled high schools. I am conscious of the fact that many of the districts now bankrupt wasted money on elective specialties of no permanent value in a school system. I am conscious that in the past educators have been rated upon the basis of their ability to spend more and yet more money. I am conscious that in the past many districts boasted that they spent a million and a half a year on their schools without ever giving very much thought to what their schools were doing. I am conscious that many districts would not be compelled to deal so harshly financially with the teachers in the grades if they had not carried so much useless timber in their high schools. I am conscious that for the last decade or more we have had an educational department crammed with experts whose apparent business it was to find more and more ways in which districts could spend more money.

What we need now is a department of education which will point out to the districts how they can save some money. Perhaps if given guidance the districts themselves can by eliminating waste motion, by throwing unessentials overboard, by stopping leaks find a part of the fund they so badly need. Right here in the city of Harrisburg, under the shadow of this Capitol and within whispering distance of the Commonwealth's palace dedicated to education, school costs will be materially reduced through recommendations developed as a result of a fact finding survey. If Harrisburg, by taking thought, by planning, by economizing can cut two mills from the tax rate without impairing the schools—a similarly intelligent survey conducted on a State-wide basis might actually reclaim several million dollars now being wasted. School districts have become so accustomed to extravagance and emphasis upon nonessentials it is necessary in many instances actually to reestablish sound educational perspective—and practice. But, even so, it is now being proposed that we cut the pay of the teachers and reduce the allotments to the districts without having any knowledge concerning the remainder of the economy and retrenchment program.

Personally I desire information upon a number of points before I vote for this bill.

If the salaries paid the teachers are to be chopped I want to be certain everybody else is in line for similar treatment. The only omnibus bill for which I could vote with a clear conscience would be a salary reducer.

Then I want to know the final outside budget figure—and what that figure includes. I have no intention of voting for reduced school appropriations in order to avoid the abolition of fee offices. I recently listened with interest to the gentleman from Delaware while he told about a mysterious and coy nine million that was flitting from ledger to ledger and from department to department. I want to know whether there is any chance that nine million will be caught and imprisoned in the budget.

In conclusion, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I call your attention to this significant fact. Both the budget framed by His Excellency the Governor and the program sponsored by the proponents of House Bill 22 carry $53,000,000 for the schools. House Bill No. 22 carries alleged economies totaling $8,000,000 that are not found in the Governor's plan.

And the Governor's program carries economies totaling $20,000,000 that are not included in the House Bill 22 scheme. And yet with $28,000,000 to juggle around, we are told that $5,000,000 cannot be set aside for the schools—over and above the $53,000,000 appropriation agreed upon. But gentlemen were the worst to come to the worst and the Governor's $20,000,000 in economies were to vanish and the $8,000,000 to be saved by House Bill No. 22 were to disappear it would still be possible—as a last desperate resort to create a $5,000,000 emergency equilization fund for the benefit of hard pressed school districts by drawing upon motor fund revenues.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. ANDREWS. Because I am convinced that measures reducing expenditures in other directions should be enacted before the schools are led to the slaughter, I move that House Bill 1386 be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, let me say this to the members of the House. The school directors and school boards of Pennsylvania must know soon what they are going to do. This bill now before you has nothing to do with the budget, it has nothing to do with the money they spend, it is simply a bill authorizing the school directors who cannot collect their taxes, who cannot get their money to pay their proportion of the salaries to run their schools, who cannot get the money to pay their proportion of the salaries to run their schools, to do that which every business man has to do, adjust their expenses to what money they get in. Very many fine speeches have been made about the teachers. I bow to no man in this House in the admiration and respect for teachers. I never looked across the table since I was a child that I didn't look at a school teacher, and when I got married, I married one, and I don't bow to Mr. Sarig or any one else in this House in my respect for teachers. There is no other industry that always holds on to a fixed standard, so that when their income goes down below their receipts that they are bound to go on paying that rate, that fixed price, and cannot adjust their labor to their income. All that we have tried to do with the question of what they receive, with the question of what we give to the schools, is contained in the other bills. In this bill it simply says if you cannot get money enough to run your schools and you clean house and straighten up your budget and do what you can do, then if it is absolutely necessary, you may dress your expenses down as every business house did. This bill has been prepared by a sub-committee of the House and of the Senate, and it is absolutely essential that something be done, because the school authorities will now be hiring their teachers for the ensuing year and this matter must be disposed of so that they will know where they are at, and I ask you to vote the motion down to put this bill on the postponed calendar.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I regret very much the action of the gentleman from Cambria in moving that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar. It may be in order to make a few brief remarks on the bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman that the motion before the House is a motion to place the bill on the postponed calendar. Remarks on the bill will not be in order.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, during all of the debate that has ensued, there has nothing been said about the essentials of education in this Commonwealth. Truly that must be admitted, that the essentials of education are the classroom teachers. They have spoken of plans and budgets and where the money was to come from, what the purpose was to be, and a hundred kindred subjects, but they have not brought out the fact that we are about to consider the necessity of the essential education of the children of Pennsylvania on one hand, while on the other hand we appropriate seven million dollars to the institutions of higher learning in this State. I believe that you will agree with me that who need most the educational features and the essentials of education are these children attending the classroom. After a certain age it is physically impossible to give them the benefit of cultural education and classroom education. Strange and significant is the fact that these institutions of higher education should receive approximately seven million dollars when the physical and educational policies of these institutions are not under the jurisdiction of the State.

I would like very much to vote in favor of not only this bill, but all the educational bills, but as has been said before, I feel reluctant to do it until I know what cuts are to be effected in the higher bracket, and I am willing to go on record here and now before the members of this Legislature that if before these bills are enacted into laws the higher brackets are reduced, I shall gladly vote for them, but until such time, I shall be compelled to oppose them.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise at this time to oppose this bill. I happen to come from the city of Hazleton, from where on last Thursday a telegram was read to this House that a great many members took objection to. The telegram was signed by a committee of Hazelton School Teachers. I told some of the members that I did not feel that the teachers of the city of Hazelton and the vicinity knew what was in that telegram, and this evening I presented to the Speaker of the House a petition signed by between two and three hundred school teachers of the city of Hazelton and vicinity stating that they did not sanction that telegram and also stating their position on the school bill that are before the House tonight. In their petition they state they are sorry for what has happened on account of a telegram of that kind being sent to the members of this House. They do not believe in using any undue methods to coerce the members of this House to vote for or against this piece of legislation. However, they do feel as anybody else would that a ten per cent. reduction in their wages at this time is not the proper thing to do and not only that, but that it gives to the school boards and the Superintendent of Public Instruction the right to reduce their wages more if it is necessary.

I heard the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, make the statement that the minimum salary of the school teachers is eight hundred dollars. This ten per cent. cut will reduce that salary to seven hundred and twenty dollars. Can you picture to yourself a school teacher going into the schoolroom, teaching little children and living on a miserable sum of seven hundred and twenty dollars? I say that is a disgrace not only to the school districts but also to the state of Pennsylvania to allow a condition of that kind, that a school teacher must go to work and teach school, teach children, the future generation of this Commonwealth and only be paid a miserable sum of seven hundred and twenty dollars, and if the school board or the Superintendent of Public Instruction says that it is necessary to reduce that salary further they can reduce it We would possibly have a condition in some of the districts where the school teachers who are working for school boards would have to come to the state and look for relief in order that they might be able to live.

I say to you, as some of the gentlemen prior to me have said, that I personally do not believe in any reductions whatsoever. I do not think it is the key to the situation.

Some years ago, I might say during the war, everybody was making big money, and spending it like a drunken sailor, we had prosperity, plenty of it. Somebody conceived the idea that the working people were getting a little too much money and that they would have to start to cut, and they started to cut, and they cut, and cut, with the result that we now have two million people walking the streets who are not getting anything and those who are working are getting wages just barely enough to live on. I say to you that inasmuch as we have declared morotoriums on this and that, on banks and everything we should declare a moratorium on any reductions in wages, and instead of reductions in wages we should inflate wages and bring prosperity where it should be.

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Ederer, Forrest, Storb, Craig, Steitler, Witkin, Heffner, Wood, DeFrehn, Price, Weidemann, Wike, Rice, Shreiner, John L. Holmes, Wilson, Conner, Duffy, Stott, Mohn, Evans and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provision of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED (SPECIAL ORDER)

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1386, Printer's No. 276, on page 2 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed (Special Order).

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Wilson.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1386, entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled, "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended temporarily reducing the reimbursement by the Commonwealth to school districts for salaries of full-time members of the teaching and supervisory staffs for salaries of the teaching and supervisory staffs engaged in special education for closed schools and for the transportation of pupils and relating to the effect of payment of salaries which are less than those established by the salary schedule.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 24, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 203, Printer's No. 86, entitled "An act to validate certain proceedings for municipal improvements municipal assessments municipal claims and municipal liens in the several townships of the first class of this Commonwealth and validating such improvements assessments claims and liens providing for the filing of claims and liens therefor and the proceedings for the collection of such assessments and claims."

This bill would validate certain municipal improvements, assessments, claims and liens in townships of the first class, and would permit the filing of claims and liens therefor and the collection of such assessments and claims.

Several bills identically the same as this bill and relating to other political subdivisions of the Commonwealth are now pending in the General Assembly. I am informed that the provisions of this bill, together with the provisions of those bills, are to be consolidated. This is highly desirable, and it is for this reason alone that I am not approving this bill.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 24, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 327, Printer's No. 31, entitled "An Act Defining the duties of authorities in charge of highways with respect to the entrances of private roads or driveways therein."

This bill would place upon the Commonwealth and all public authorities charged with the care of public highways the responsibility for the construction, maintenance, and drainage of the entrances to all private driveways between the limits of the highway and the improved portion thereof.

The only ones to benefit by this bill would be private individuals and corporations who now have or hereafter construct private driveways entering public highways. The public generally would derive no benefit from this bill.

Regardless of the doubtful constitutionality of such a bill, I cannot approve of the use of public funds in such a way that private individuals only are benefited and not the public generally.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate March 27, 1933.

Whereas, The act of August 19, 1932, P. L. 92, imposing an emergency sales tax, provides for the filing of returns and payment of such tax on or before April 1, 1933; and

Whereas, Legislation is pending providing for payment of only one-half of said tax on or before April 1, 1933, concurrently with the filing of said report, and the remaining one-half on or before May 15; and

Whereas, Said legislation cannot be adopted before April 1, and many taxpayers are uncertain as to what steps are to be taken with respect to the filing of returns and payment of said tax; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That every vendor liable for the payment of the emergency sales tax under the provisions of the Act of August 19, 1932, P. L. 92, entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties," may on or before April 1, 1933, pay one-half of such tax concurrently with the filing of his report and may pay the remaining one-half of said tax in a single instalment on or before the 15th day of May, 1933, but the amount of the tax not paid on or before April 1, 1933, shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum until May 15, 1933, and twelve per centum per annum thereafter.

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution and to authorize the Department of Revenue to acept payment, and to settle said emergency sales tax in accordance with this resolution.

Resolved, That this resolution shall be effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

SENATE

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer.

Almighty God, we thank Thee for the brightness of this morning. We thank Thee that the sunshine is driving the clouds and darkness of night away. So may it be with all of us in the hours of darkness, that they may give place to hours of light. Guide and bless us in everything we do, and grant that the sunshine of Thy presence may be seen by us in everything that goes to make up our life. Bless us all to-day. Guide us until we reach the perfect manhood that we should, the triumph of righteousness and truth. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PROVISION FOR PAYMENT OF SALES TAX IN INSTALMENTS

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented communication from the House informing the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in resolution as follows:

In the Senate, March 27, 1933.

Whereas, The Act of August 19, 1932, P. L. 92, imposing an emergency sales tax, provides for the filing of returns and payment of such tax on or before April 1, 1933; and

Whereas, Legislation is pending providing for payment of only one-half of said tax on or before April 1, 1933, concurrently with the filing of said report and the remaining one-half on or before May 15; and

Whereas, Said legislation cannot be adopted before April 1, and many taxpayers are uncertain as to what steps are to be taken with respect to the filing of returns and payments of said tax; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That every vendor liable for the payment of the emergency sales tax under the provisions of the Act of August 19, 1932, P. L. 92, entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing an emergency sales tax for State purposes upon sales of tangible personal property by vendors, as herein defined; prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax; and providing penalties," may on or before April 1, 1933, pay one-half of such tax concurrently with the filing of his report and may pay the remaining one-half of said tax in a single instalment on or before the 15th day of May, 1933, but the amount of the tax not paid on or before April 1, 1933, shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum until May 15, 1933, and twelve per centum per annum thereafter.

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution and to authorize the Department of Revenue to accept payment, and to settle said emergency sales tax in accordance with this resolution.

Resolved, That this resolution shall be effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

In the House of Representatives, March 20, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of the House of Representatives be authorized to appoint three members of the House of Representatives, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate be authorized to appoint three members of the Senate, who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to fully and impartially investigate the administration of the Workmen's Compensation Law, and make report thereon to the next session of the Legislature with such recommendations for change in such administration as to it may appear advisable and proper;

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee an dto produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to appear and testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. PETHICK, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 257, entitled:

Also from the Committee on Military Affairs reported as committed Senate Bill No. 28, entitled:

CONGRESS MEMORIALIZED AGAINST ANY REDUCTION IN PENSIONS

In the House of Representatives, February 13, 1933.

Whereas, There is a movement among certain organizations of national membership to reduce or entirely cut off the pension of those men who served in the Army, Marine Corps and the Navy, during the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection and the China Relief Expedition, and

Whereas, A joint committee was appointed at the first session of the present Congress to investigate the compensation paid veteran soldiers their widows and minor orphan children of the veterans of the Spanish-American War Philippine Insurrection and the China Relief Expedition, and

Whereas, The living veterans of these wars have now attained an average age of more than sixty years and

Whereas, A large percentage of them would become public charges should their pensions be discontinued, and

Whereas, The compensation received by these veterans averages only forty-one dollars ($41) per month, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize Congress of the United States against any reduction of pensions for the veterans of the Spanish-American War the Philippine Insurrection or the China Relief Expedition their widows and minor orphan children

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Senate and to the House of Representatives of the United States.
